BELL MOTOR CO., Canton and Waynesville, N. C.

Report of the Grand Jury.

County Home—We visited County Home and found 28 inmates, 13 head of live stock, consisting of mules, cattle and hogs, all in good condition. 1800 pounds of bacon. We recommend that the County Home have a new stock barn, as it is impossible to take care of stock without waste of feed. We find that the plastering is falling off and we recommend that the roof be repaired.

County Jail—We found 18 prisoners, same being well cared for as could be expected under the conditions of the jail. We recommend a modern jail.

Court House—We find the court house in reasonable good condition.

County Offices—We visited the county offices and found same well kept and in good condition.

Schools—Bethel, good condition. No suggestion; Rock Hill, good condition. No suggestion; Hazelwood, good condition. No suggestion; Waynesville High School, good condition. No suggestion; Waynesville Elementary, good condition. No suggestion; Pennsylvania Avenue High School, Canton, good condition. No suggestion; Clyde High School, good condition; Canton schools, we recommend sanitary accommodations, to be provided in the North Canton schools. That sanitary fountains be provided. That an obsolete water fixture be removed. Segregation of coal bin from boiler room, and placing of metal doors between boiler room and entrance to building, also removal of inflammable material from stair way to boiler room.
