We never miss the sunshine,
until the shadows fall,—
We never regret the bitter words,
Till passed beyond recall.
We never miss the laughter,
Until the eyes are wet,
We never miss the happiness,
Till love's bright sun has set.

We never miss the singing,
Until the birds have flown.
We never miss the blossoms,
Until the spring has gone.
We never miss our joyousness,
Till sorrow bids us wake.
We never know we have a heart
Till it begins to break.

MRS. HOWELL IS HOSTESS FRIDAY.

Mrs. James Harden Howell delightfully entertained the teachers of James Harden Howell, Jr. and several additional guests with a dinner party Friday evening at her home.

The color note of yellow and green was very effectively carried out in the decorations and place cards. At the center of the table a vase of jonquills was placed which added further to the color scheme.

After the dinner the guests assembled in the living room where they enjoyed music and games.

Covers were laid for twelve who were: Misses Lois Harzold, Louise Berry, Helen Marshall, Addie MacDonald, Lucy Tate and Mrs. Howell, Messrs. Will Coble, Pritchard Ferguson, Mayor Howell, J. P. Beam, T. M. Shackelford and Otis Aiken.

ENVIALE WORKING CONDITIONS.

Wage earners in this country earn more, live better, have more recreation and yet save more than workers of any other country. Including skilled and unskilled labor, the daily pay of the American workman is approximately that of the weekly pay of the English workman. Yet the demand is equal to the supply in this country, and in some crafts there is a shortage, while in England about 1½ million persons are maintained in idleness on the "dole" which the government contributes. England is regarded as the most tightly unionized country in the world.

Unions in the United States have done much to raise the standards of pay and living conditions. Those standards now are at a level where there should be little dissatisfaction, little excuse for labor disturbances and strikes.

FROM MISSOURI.

Missouri business men have formed an organization "to show the tax wastage and to formulate a plan whereby the present methods of administration may be improved so the taxpayers may receive a larger return."

They propose to examine the whole state administrative system and also that of the counties. Such an effort should be welcomed by every public official, as well as by the people.

Several states have formed such organizations and the rest should follow, for it is only by organized effort that state, county and city taxes will ever be reduced.
