will make him a terrific political foe in the coming primary of June 5.

AUR RALEIGH LETTER.

of Labor and the Federation has announced its support of the Reynolds candidacy.

The organization of the "Committee of One Hundred" in Charlotte to fight under the leadership of Walter K. Neal against all theories of evolution probably will lead into a great fight in the next legislature when an evolution bill is expected to be introduced.

Dr. R. T. Vann, prominent Baptist minister and educator, who fell on the street here several days ago and broke his left arm, already amputated, is now in the hospital here again after an extended stay at a local hospital. Doctor Vann is associate secretary of the Baptist State Board of Education. He was formerly president of the state college.

Worth Remembering

You are pretty sure that your bank is going to be there next time you go to it--aren't you? You satisfied yourself about that before you opened your account.

Now when you plunk down good cash for an automobile why not be sure that you're leaving your money with somebody who will "be there" when you want service on that car?
