HOW IS AMERICA TO STAND?

Lake Junaluska, July 4, (Special)—Is it to be America drunk, or America sober? What are we going to do with growing industrialism, shall it be a democracy or a paternalism? Are we going to have racial respect and co-operation, or racial strife and hatred? Is America to become militaristic power; is it to wield the big stick, or be the big brother? Is America to be a materialistic machine or a spiritual power? were some of the questions Dr. E. D. Soper, dean of the school of religion, Duke University, raised as alternatives, in a Fourth of July sermon, Sunday when he appealed to youth to accept the responsibilities of leadership, and to the older generation to give to youth a correct interpretation of the principles upon which the American nation was founded.

"The modern flapper and the average high school boy or college youth is interested in God," said Dr. Soper. "It is the stupidity of adult leaders and their inability to read the hearts and minds of young people that makes them blind to the great thirst for spiritual things that boys and girls have today. Boys and girls must be educated to an appreciation of true Americanism if this country is to make its proper contribution to the life of the world," he continued.

AN APPRECIATION.

Editor Waynesville Mountaineer:

In your issue of June 24th there was an article contributed to the memory of my father, Robert Henry Piott. I want to publicly thank the writer for the words of praise and commendation so worthily bestowed, and I trust it will not be considered out of place for me to add a few words to what has already been said, that some of the ache in my heart may be relieved because of the fact that I alone of all his big family of children was unable to be with him and minister to his wants and comforts during those closing days as life ebbed slowly away.

My father was, indeed, a noble, upright Christian. He had no sympathy for the low and mean things of life. His honesty and integrity were above reproach, he was temperate to the last degree, and in his death the cause of prohibition has lost one of its most ardent defenders. He taught these things by precept and example and the greatest heritage left to his children is the influence of his righteous life. He was, indeed, the head of his household. No man ever filled a bigger place in his home than did our father, and now that he is gone we feel as a company without a captain, an army without a general, but we are thankful for the goodness of God who spared him to us so long and for giving him such a peaceful end, for his going was "Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him" and lies down to pleasant dreams."

MINNIE RAE PLOTT, Kennedy, Ala., July 3, 1926.

Miss Elizabeth Smathers has returned to her home after visiting with her uncle, Judge Will Smathers, in Atlantic City for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Reed of Atlanta will arrive Saturday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will entertain for their guests Monday evening with a buffet supper and dance.
