JONATHAN LACONICS.

I've neglected to mention the fact that the Missionary Society found the school house in perfect orderliness the night they gave the party there. The members mentioned the fact that everything was clean. They endeavored to leave the building and premises as neat as they found them. Our school has been functioning smoothly. We have five teachers: Mr. Lunsford, Mr. Hall, Miss Kirkpatrick and Miss Edna Ferguson. Miss Bonnie Teague substituted for Miss Ferguson the first month of school.

Mr. John Freeman has returned to his home in Asheville after having visited relatives hereabouts. Miss Esther Moody has gone to Raleigh where she will teach. Miss Moody teaches home economics. Miss Folsom Leatherwood has gone to Iron Duff to the home of Harley Bryson. Miss Leatherwood attends the State High school at Clyde.

Mr. R. T. Boyd went to Big Creek last week on business. Miss Josie Nelson is able to go to school again. Josie has been laid up with boils on her limbs which made walking impossible. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tweed are at the home of Mrs. Tweed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boyd. Mr. Tweed is recuperating nicely from his injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts and Miss Sara spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Moody. Miss Roberta Moody returned home with them. The threshers (Mr. Moody's outfit) are on Jonathan enroute to Cove Creek. Mr. Kinland's threshing outfit threshed at Mr. Charlie Leatherwood's last week and will thresh at Mr. John Carer's and Mr. Nathan Carver's this week.

Farmers are digging potatoes in this community now. "Taters" are a good price again this year and the "sons of the soil" are in luck. Jonathan has a beautiful country road, which is almost a thing of the past in this country, at least. This same road is interspersed with water melon stands. The vendors are Mr. Bryan Medford, Jim Caldwell, Clifton Parton, Bill Williams and Walter Chambers.

Miss Estine Boyd will leave shortly for White Oak where she will teach school. Miss Elizabeth Boyd had as her guest one night last week little Willie Boone Own, whose mother is seriously ill. The Missionary Society will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. E. Owen. Mrs. C. M. Moody, leader.

I HAVE still a limited supply of very fine grapes. Let me fill your order soon. M. F. Albright. 1839

103 YEAR OF JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS.
The earth's pioneer circus, John Robinson's circus will soon be in our midst, as the billboards throughout the country show in loud and lurid colors, its coming to Asheville for afternoon and night performances on Thursday, Sept. 16th. Hundreds of circus lovers of this community are making plans to attend the circus that day, as the merit and superiority of John Robinson's Circus is well known here.

John Robinson comes this year with an entirely new performance from the opening of the gorgeous spectacle, to the sensational and thrilling finishing numbers. Europe and the Orient were sacked for novelties and features by representatives of the circus last winter, and the foremost wild animal acts of the universe were purchased and added to the Robinson's double menagerie. Such noted trainers of the steel arena as Capt. Theodore, Nellie Roth, Theo. Schroeder, Ione Carle, Bert Noyes, Margaret Thompson, Carl Bruce, and Dewey Butler will send their jungles charges through remarkable routines. Another special attraction will be Carlos Carreon's contingent of Wild West Champions, including cowboys, cowgirls and a tribe of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge reservation in South Dakota.

Regular circus features and acts will also have prominent places on the lengthy program. The Rudy Rudyoff Family of Equestrians from Austria; the Ben Mohamid Arabs from Arabia; the Four Barton Girls from England; Senorita Piedal Morales from Mexico; Miss Rowena Giles from Australia; Petite Tetu from Japan, and the Edlys from London are but a few of the noted acts.

Clown alleys will have a contingent of fifty famous fun makers, boys who know the art of extracting chuckles and grins from young and old. Silvers Johnson, Jack Harris, Abe Goldstein, George Harmon, the Simmons Twins, Jack Fenton, Joe O'Brien, and Joe Wilda are but a few of the famous "Merry Andrews."

COMPETITION IN WORDS

One who goes into the market to buy a motor car today is naturally confused. He has read the words best and greatest so often that they have ceased to be convincing. Where all is best, he reflects, there can be no best. Thousand-dollar cars have been described to him in ten-thousand dollar language. And vice versa. He finds himself the target in a war of adjectives; the helpless victim in a gigantic competition of words. And so he is forced to rely on chance—the advice of friends—or his own limited experience. Dodge Brothers, Inc., have never participated in this verbal competition. They are content with the position they have long maintained in the far more vital competition of honest value. They have continued steadily to improve their product, not only in comfort and beauty, but basically—beneath the body and hood where fundamental values lie. Yet they have not unduly stressed each betterment that has marked the steady progress of their motor car toward a higher perfection. And when economic conditions or greater sales have permitted them to reduce prices without reducing quality, they have announced the fact without excessive emphasis. Unexaggerated truth is not spectacular. But in the long run, implicit public confidence has been Dodge Brothers reward, and this they propose to preserve forever by continuing to build just a little better than they tell.

THE THREE F'S OF ILL HEALTH

The three F's of ill health are Flies, Food and Fingers. They are the chief means by which many diseases are carried from person to person. The fingers carry dirt and germs to eyes nose and mouth. Food easily becomes contaminated from exposure of handling. And flies are loaded with filth and disease germs. The house fly carries disease. It feeds in manure piles, garbage can, privy vaults, spittoons, sick rooms and then carries disease germs to milk baby's bottle, food and dishes. Flies spread typhoid fever, tuberculosis, cholera, dysentery, summer complaint and intestinal diseases. These diseases are worse when and where flies are most numerous. Destroy the breeding places of flies. Keep garbage cans covered. Clean up decaying rubbish. Screen all doors and windows and make sure that the screens are really fly proof and are kept closed. Kill flies. The modern approved way is by the use of liquid household insecticides, a crystal clear liquid, which evaporates quickly after being sprayed about the room. It leaves no muss or dirt. It will not stain the finest fabrics. It is harmless to humans and animals. It may be purchased in convenient sized bottles from your dealer. Spray a cloud into the room. It lingers just long enough to kill the household insects. To get the best results the hand sprayer is recommended. It will spray a larger, finer cloud. Especially kill the winter flies. They breed the summer flies. A single pair of flies can produce billions of flies in a summer.
