

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL
PHONE 137

Jeter C. Hawkins of Clyde was here Monday.

John W. Shook of Clyde was here on business Monday.

J. M. Wells of Canton was here on business Monday.

Rev. Thomas Erwin of Pigeon was a Waynesville visitor Monday.

Mrs. Ernest Withers was spending Tuesday in Asheville.

W. A. Moore of Woodrow was in the city on business this week.

Manson Medford of the Iron Duff section was a visitor here Monday.

Fred E. Stokes of Canton was here on business last week.

B. D. Smathers of Canton spent some time in the city last Thursday.

C. F. Christopher of Woodrow spent Friday in the city.

John Mann of Canton was a business visitor here Saturday.

L. B. Staley of Burlington was here on business last Saturday.

W. R. Medford of Lake Junaluska was in the city Saturday on business.

H. W. Medford of Canton was here on business last Saturday.

Mrs. Mattie Leatherwood of Clyde was a visitor here Saturday.

Charles Moody and Earl Ferguson of Jonathan were in the city Monday.

F. E. Haynes and W. W. Haynes of Clyde were here on business Monday.

Guy Hips of Canton spent some time in Waynesville Monday on business.

Jarvis L. Palmer of the Cataloochee section of the county was here Monday.

Guy Hips of Canton was a business visitor to Waynesville Monday.

N. C. James of the Fines Creek section of the county was here for a short time Monday.

Bryan Medford of the Jonathan Creek section of the county was a visitor here last week.

Roy Medford of the Crabtree section was in the city last Friday looking after business affairs.

Guy Chambers of Iron Duff was a Waynesville visitor one day the latter part of last week.

R. B. Howell of the Jonathan section of the county was here for a short while last Saturday.

O. M. Smathers, a prominent citizen of Canton, was in Waynesville Monday.

R. E. Sentelle, an attorney of Canton, was here on business during the early part of the week.

Charles B. McCrary of Fines Creek spent some time here on business last week.

S. H. Justice of Canton was shaking hands with friends in Waynesville one day last week.

E. D. Rickman of the Pigeon section of the county was here a short while last week.

C. F. Owen of Canton spent some time in Waynesville attending to business last week.

D. J. Noland, superintendent of the County Home, was a visitor in town Monday.

Hon. H. A. Osborne of Canton was in the city Monday for a meeting of the County School Board of which he is a member.

Messrs. George Ward and Welch Galloway, prominent attorneys of the Buncombe county bar, were here on business last week.

Miss Pearl Weaver was here Tuesday in the interest of Gov. Gardner's program for the unemployment and deflation situation. A meeting is being held for Friday morning, Nov. 6.

D. R. McCracken of Crabtree township spent Monday here on business.

Jack Snyder of Salisbury was a visitor over the week-end.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Allison, on Oct. 17, a son, John Mack.

Joe Shackford of Duke University spent the week-end with home folk.

Mr. David Cabe left Tuesday for San Francisco, California.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Perry were recent Asheville visitors.

Mr. Will Campbell of Maggie was in town Monday on business.

Mrs. P. M. Weston of Talbotton, Ga. is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Bell.

Mrs. Andrew E. Moore and Mrs. R. H. Mitchell spent Tuesday in Asheville.

Mrs. Addington and small daughter of Atlanta are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick motored to Asheville and met Mrs. Laura Rearden last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost and Aaron Prevost returned Monday night from a short visit to Morganton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hyatt were attendants at the Tennessee-Duke game in Knoxville last Saturday.

J. W. Noland was another of the folks from Fines Creek here on business Monday.

B. B. Caldwell and family came over from Mars Hill and spent the week-end with relatives.

The report is that both the dances celebrating Hallowe'en on last Friday evening were a decided success.

Miss Robina Miller is expected home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Niles in Griffin, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauriston Hardin returned from their apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Steifel have gone to their home in Galion, Ohio, following a fortnight's visit here.

Miss Edith Byrd of Hendersonville spent the week-end with Miss Elizabeth Henry.

Miss Isabel Ferguson was here from Salem College with her mother, Mrs. Hester C. Ferguson over the week-end.

Mr. J. B. Ivey of Charlotte was in town part of this week. He is attending business at his Lake Junaluska home.

Ben Medford, Carey McCracken and Guy Fulbright have returned from Denver where they have been during the past six months.

Mrs. Minthorne Woolsey, who has been at the Hotel Waynesville for several months, left Tuesday for her new home in Asheville.

Attorney Sam Robinson and D. H. Harris and Miss Kate Williamson have been here several days this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Meece, who have been visiting Mrs. John Cabe on Church street, left Tuesday for their home in Bellingham, Wash.

Miss Edna Mae Price and Miss Delle Wofford, Cullowhee students, spent the week-end with Miss Josephine Cabe on Church street.

Atkins Shackford who is a student at Emory and Henry College, Emory Va., was with his family at Branner Crest the past week-end.

Mr. M. T. Brady, who is employed by Diegs Brothers, is stopping at the LeFaine during his vacation. He has been in South Carolina.

Mrs. Cora Alley and daughter, Mrs. Madge A. Morrison have taken an apartment in the Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Alley is the mother of Attorney Doyle Alley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cabe of Vancouver, Canada, who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Cabe, on Church street, left for their home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Platt and Mr. W. A. Grahl returned Sunday from Decatur, Ga., where they attended State horse show.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meredith has returned to Grenada, Miss. for a stay of several weeks, after having been at Hillcrest for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith are attending the Jackson County Poultry Day in Sylva Thursday. Mr. Smith is a judge in the poultry.

Mr. W. H. Kiser of the Greenville, Tennessee Chamber of Commerce was in town en route the Sylva Poultry exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Sheeley of Morristown, Tenn. have been the guests of Miss Jessie Herren during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sprague and children of Hancock, N. C. were guests during the past week of Miss Jessie Herren.

Miss Dorothy Lane arrived Tuesday evening from Columbia and is spending about a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell, at the Hotel Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Benn and Mrs. Harry Marshall left last Thursday morning for Philadelphia after being the much feted guests of Mrs. R. H. Mitchell.

Mr. Ben Medford has returned from Mancus, Colo., where he has been doing construction work for the past several months near the park area there.

A possum hunt was reported as being very successful, in as much as they actually caught and ate one. In the chase were Ward Kirkpatrick, J. L. Stringfield, Gilbert Herr of Galion, Ohio and the two Carson boys.

Harry McCracken and two guests Ben Davis and Ruffin O'Neal, students at the University at Chapel Hill, spent the week-end with the parents of young McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCracken, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newton of Arlington, N. J. spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Newton. The visitors had been on a few week's vacation and had been as far south as St Petersburg, Fla., they were en route to New Jersey and especially enjoyed their visit in this locality.

GATHER GARMENTS THIS WEEK

The Needle Work Guild is gathering garments Wednesday and Thursday—and will hold a tea from 3:30 to 4:30 Thursday P. M. Everyone is invited to participate.

TO TOUR FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Massie expect to leave Saturday for a tour of Florida. They expect to be gone about ten days or two weeks. Mr. Massie is connected with the Massie Furniture Company here.

ROTARIANS ENTERTAIN FOR WIVES

The Rotary club is giving the monthly dinner to the Rotary wives. The program begins at 7:30 P. M. Circle No. 4, Mrs. Ira Thackston, leader, is serving the dinner. A most attractive evening is planned.

DR. KIRKPATRICK HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Dr. W. L. Kirkpatrick returned home Sunday from the Charlotte Sanatorium where he has been for treatment. Edwin Haynes, W. F. Kirkpatrick, Ward Kirkpatrick and Ernest McCracken went down to Charlotte and accompanied him home. He is reported much improved.

KIRKPATRICK CAMP HAS HAD PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. George Rhodes and their guest, Mrs. Addington, of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jeffries of Burlington, were honored by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick with a camp party Monday evening. Mrs. James Tutwiler and Mr. I. L. Council and Miss Margaret Hahn were additional guests.

ALL DAY MISSION STUDY

The women of the Presbyterian church held their annual Home Mission study class at the church Wednesday, November 4th, beginning at 10:30 A. M. The text book used was "The Imperative of Home Missions," by Rev. P. D. Miller. The subjects were most interestingly and helpfully presented.

The local work chairman, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, ably assisted, served a luncheon at one o'clock.

MRS. BUNN'S FATHER HAS DIED

The many friends here of Prof. and Mrs. R. D. Bunn are grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Bunn's father, Mr. George W. Finch, of Henderson.

Mrs. Bunn had been apprised of his illness and went to be with her father on Wednesday of last week. His passing occurred on Sunday night, Nov. 1. Mr. Bunn left Monday to attend the funeral.

DINNER PARTY NEAR HALLOWE'EN

Miss Elizabeth Ray celebrated her birthday anniversary last Thursday evening by inviting a group of friends to dinner.

The Hallowe'en colors and suggestions were carried out in the details of the appointments.

The dinner table was centered with a yellow flower cluster and the covers were laid for Miss Katherine Ray, Miss Virginia Welch, Miss Margaret Ray, Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Mary Ray and Miss Wilda Crawford.

GUESTS OF THE HOTEL LEFAINE

The following guests are registered at the LeFaine this week: J. A. Alexander; A. W. Noll and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baxter of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ritter of Columbia, South Carolina; C. A. Patterson of Charlotte; V. L. Watson of Burnsville; Miss Edna Wise and Miss Ruby Smith of Greenville, South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Knox, Miss Clara Knox, Mrs. George W. Funk of Social Circle, Georgia; E. G. Woods of Greensboro; F. S. Davis of Wilson; Jas. P. of Raleigh and Johnson Willis of Marion.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS HELP CELEBRATE UNAWAKE

Several close friends and a few members of the family were invited in to have midday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. M. Theodore McCracken last Thursday, Oct. 29, and discovered before their departure that they had assisted in celebrating the nineteenth wedding anniversary of their host and hostess. The table was prettily appointed with gold and orange flowers as a center. A most delicious dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Nobeck, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haynes, Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. T. C. Breeding and Mr. Edwin Haynes.

SUCCESSFUL HALLOWE'EN AFFAIR

Many attended the Hallowe'en celebration at the Central Elementary school on Friday evening. A good sum was realized for the work of the P. T. A., and to assist the underprivileged of the school. The program given in the auditorium was well attended, and well worth the while of each who was there. Then side shows, including a Hall of Horrors and fish pond, supplemented the circus and the food booths. All were well patronized. Much was donated and the proceeds were profit.

BENEFIT DANCE HELD AT CANTON

(Special to The Mountaineer.)

The benefit dance given by the Canton Business and Professional Woman's Club at the K. of P. Hall, on last Friday evening was quite a success. While the dance was given for the purpose of making money, the Finance Committee of the Club thought it wise to restrict the attendance to invited guests and no admittance was made without a card.

The Hall was attractively decorated with autumn leaves and other decorations suggestive of the Hallowe'en season. Mark Hamilton and his orchestra from Asheville furnished the music.

Sandwiches and doughnuts were on sale, while cider was furnished without charge.

The party enjoyed to the extent that requests were made by the guests that the Club give another of these dances soon. The Club and especially the Finance Committee, was well pleased in the way the evening's entertainment was carried out.

$5,000.00 IN CASH PRIZES See Your Druggist

Attend the REXALL ONE-CENT SALE Thursday-Friday-Saturday ALEXANDER'S DRUGS

EFIRD'S
ASHEVILLE'S FASTEST GROWING STORE

GREATER WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA SALE

Now On In Full Blast

This is an opportunity of Sensational Value in New and Desirable Merchandise that forcibly demonstrates our keen appreciation of the liberal patronage of Thousands of Western North Carolina Customers.

TO THE PEOPLE OF HAYWOOD COUNTY:

I extend a most cordial invitation to you to attend our GREATER WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA SALE where values will be served that say stronger than words, WE THANK YOU.

G. G. BYRD, Manager

OUR MOTTO THE SAME AS 4 YEARS AGO— "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded"

BUY NOW FOR PRESENT AND FUTURE NEEDS. PLAN TO VISIT ALL FOUR FLOORS AND SAVE MONEY

Prices that shout our appreciation of your patronage. Come expecting real values—EFIRD'S never Dissappoints.

We've Scoured the Markets of the Country for Values Worthy of a Place In This GREATER WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA SALE

The entire staff of Efird's buyers has for weeks been seeking exceptional values in dependable quality seasonable merchandise to be featured in this great event. The proof of success attained is evident by a perusal of prices or better still by a thorough examination of the merchandise and a comparison of prices elsewhere. We invite you to attend this event and supply your needs at savings that are truly remarkable.

EFIRD'S
Asheville's Fastest Growing Store
PATTON AVE. ASHEVILLE, N. C.