S. S. HALLOWEEN PARTY HONORS FOOTBALL SQUAD

The entertainment at the Methodist church, sponsored by the Intermediate-Senior department of which Mr. James Atkins is superintendent, was a success, on Saturday evening. The occasion honored the football boys of W. T. H. S. and all did them compliment in attending. The games were directed by Misses Bessie and Daisy Boyd and Miss Frances Robeson.

Four score and more were there to join in the festivities. Pumpkins, corn shocks and every minute detail of Halloween lore, superstition and tradition was enacted or hinted upon. Witches walked, hobgoblins called, jack o'lanterns stared. Ginger bread and apple cider were served ere the witches hour.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATED AT THE COLKITT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Colkitt were hosts on Monday evening with a Halloween party at their home on Love Lane. The reception rooms were aglow with the fall festival suggestions and the guests came in costume, wearing masks.

Lots of games and rivalry in contests kept the group hilariously entertained, and dancing and music whiled away the rapidly passing moments. A piping hot supper was served at a late hour.

Those assembled at the Colkitt home included: Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Stretcher, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles.

MEN'S SUPPER AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

On Thursday evening, October 29th, at seven o'clock a supper was served at the Presbyterian church for the men of the church. The following is the program that was carried out: Invocation.

Special music, solo by Miss Ida Jean Brown with organ accompaniment.

Why the meeting R. L. Prevost. Our Bible Class. W. D. Smith. The Boys. Paul Fry.

Appreciation. Doxology and Dismissal. Ladies of Circle No. 1 of which Mrs. Walker is chairman, served the supper.

Dr. R. P. Walker, pastor of the church, presided over the meeting. There were twenty-two men of the church present for the occasion.

CENTRAL P. T. A. REGULAR MEETING

At the Central Elementary school on Tuesday evening Mrs. Grover Davis presided over the regular monthly P. T. Association. Two short plays were given. The first grade presenting "Genevieve's Health Dream," with Patsy Gwyn as Genevieve. The second grade gave a Modern Health Phantasy. The acting was excellent.

The reports of officers were most gratifying, particularly that of Mrs. James Massie, the treasurer. The Halloween entertainment netted about $41.

The second grade won the prize for having more parents present.

Matters of routine business were transacted, including the further plans for the cafeteria and food for undernourished children. Several valuable gifts were acknowledged, including the donation of two bags of apples by Mr. R. N. Barber and several dozen aprons by Mrs. Leon Killian.

MANY FRIENDS HERE ARE INTERESTED

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Satterthwaite expect to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next Monday, Nov. 9. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Withers and Ernest, Jr. will go to Atlanta Friday to assist in observance of the day. The other children of the Satterthwaite are all residing in Atlanta. Mr. S. C. Satterthwaite, Jr., Mrs. Willis B. Haviland, and Mr. W. C. Satterthwaite. They and their families plan to make the day a great occasion. The family reunion and the felicitation of their friends will probably include Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Satterthwaite were married Nov. 9, 1881, at Turnpike, a famous hostelry on the Haywood-Buncombe county line, and the ancestral home of Mrs. Satterthwaite, who was Miss Hester Smathers, one of the thirteen children, who lived to be grown of John Charles and Lucilla Smathers, from pioneer families who have been influential and prominent in the history of Western North Carolina.

Following their marriage Mr. and

Mrs. Satterthwaite lived in Aiken, S. C. for several years—then returning to Waynesville, this has remained their home for forty years, where they are held in highest esteem by everyone. Their numerous friends here are most regretful that they are not commemorating the event here, as they had long expected to do, but this seemed impracticable and a number from here will attend. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smathers and Mr. and Mrs. Will Smathers and daughter, Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Farmer, all of Asheville, expect to go to Atlanta for the week-end. Dr. B. F. Smathers of this city is also a brother, and Miss Jessie Herren and Mrs. Lucile H. Foy are nieces. About thirty members of the family who live in Atlanta will be present for the golden wedding anniversary.

THE AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

Monday, Nov. 2nd, 1931, the Haywood Post No. 47, Auxiliary of the American Legion, held their regular monthly meeting at 7:30 P. M. in the Masonic Temple. After the usual joint opening exercises in the main hall, with the Post members.

Mrs. Camp, the president, opened the business meeting with the American's Creed, by Wm. Tyler Page, which was repeated in concert by the Auxiliary members.

The roll call was with twelve members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Reports from chairmen of standing committees were called for. Mrs. Camp then read several communications from various state chairmen. She also advised the members that dues for the coming year were payable now.

Nov. 8th, the Sunday preceding Armistice Day, is to be observed as Armistice Sunday and a representative of each church was appointed to ask the ministers to offer special prayers for strength and faith for our disabled "Buddies," who lie in our hospitals fighting the Great Battle, for health. Poppies and flags will be used for decorations in the churches.

Preparations for the Armistice Day program were made.

The Auxiliary members were invited by Major J. H. Howell to be the guests of the Haywood Post No. 47 members at the banquet on the evening of November 11th at the Methodist church.

Hostesses for the December meeting were appointed as follows: Mesdames R. R. Campbell, T. G. Massie, George F. Plott, and J. C. Patrick.

After the adjournment of the meeting, the hostesses, Mesdames M. C. Green, W. R. Phillips, James Toy and Doyle Alley, served delightful doughnuts and coffee during the joint social hour which followed.

SPLENDID PROGRAM AT COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

The Community Club held the second meeting for the club's year on Monday afternoon at the club rooms. These were most interestingly arranged with a decoration touch of the Halloween season, and colorful leaves and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. R. R. Campbell, first vice-president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Thos. M. Seawell, substituting for the social chairman, Mrs. C. C. White gave a report of the husband's party at the Campbell camp, on Oct. 23.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt most delightfully reported the meeting of the first district in Bryson City on Oct. 26.

discussion of the care of the underprivileged children attested the fact that they are being planned for and will be taken care of. The matter of a change in club dues was left with a committee, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mrs. J. M. Long and Mrs. J. L. Stringfield to investigate and report upon at the December meeting. New members unanimously elected include: Mrs. Carrol Bell, Miss Charlotte Hatcher, Mrs. B. D. Dunn, Mrs. J. S. Goode, Mrs. Clayton Walker, and Mrs. Doyle Alley. Mrs. Jas. L. Stringfield contributed most interesting Current Events.

Mrs. E. L. McKee, senator and club woman, well known and generally appreciated by Waynesville people, was presented by Mrs. R. P. Walker, who was in charge of the program, the subject being "Citizenship." Mrs. McKee in her usual delightful manner, began by paying the club women her tribute for their sustained interest and active support in her campaign and career. Presenting a new phase of the responsibilities of women as citizens, she did not disparage the narrower viewpoint of voting being a major objective of citizenship. Mrs.

McKee declared "Good citizenship like every thing else fine, must come from within, a few characteristics can be summarized to be necessary for a splendid citizen: earnest, honest, truthful, at all times, unselfish, generous, kindly and Christian. Mrs. McKee asked women to reflect, think frankly for five minutes each day, asking, "Are we willing to give of our selves when we get no benefit and no credit?" "First train ourselves—second train our children. They will be like us, regardless of precept, children follow example, whether we raise a generation of law breakers or raise law abiding citizens depends on the homes of today. Co-operate with the schools, the Scouts, the Sunday school, churches and other organizations, but be sure to stand firmly and staunchly for the ideals we know are true and right." She specified the needs of the local community as the greatest project a group of women could sponsor, and the unemployment and lack of food, fuel and clothing the supreme need this winter, and urged this be given careful, prayerful attention, assisting local authorities in every way possible. Mrs. McKee declared the club represented the type of community, and type of home and people in it just as the home represented the type of mother in it." The women have no movement or cause, save the cause of humanity and the movement to better mankind." "The schools of our state are in a precarious condition and it depends on the women to rescue and sustain them. Propaganda is being spread abroad. Get facts, secure the correct data, then think for yourselves. Can we afford to rest, when according to Dr. Knight, our North Carolina children of the 8th grade are on a par with the 5th grade child in Massachusetts? Schools in North Carolina cost less than one-half of the average, in the United States. Seek to know all you can know. Do not hoard the knowledge, use it in service."

The music of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Albert New and Mrs. E. B. Camp, who played a piano duet by special request.

A social half hour followed, several visitors were present. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. J. R. Latham, Mrs. Eli McKee, Mrs. Sam Plott and Mrs. Lucile Foy.

VISITORS FROM GASTONIA

Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Davis had as their guests from Friday till Sunday, C. W. Winchester and family, Sherwood Lewis and family, W. H. McClure and family, R. W. Frye and son, J. A. Abbott and family, all of Gastonia. The party enjoyed an outing and picnic in the Cataloochee community.

Miss Virginia Seay, Miss Ila Greene, Mr. Mark Davis and Mr. Nobel Ferguson left after the Halloween dance last Friday for Knoxville. They were chaperoned by Mrs. James Greene.

You are all invited and urged to assist with the observation of Confederate Flag Day by purchasing one from the children who will sell them on the streets Saturday. The proceeds go toward the education and beneficent work of the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Plott and Mr. W. A. Grahl spent the week-end in Atlanta with Wayne Grahl.

Make Home Beautiful For Cheerful Home Life

Because grandmother's room was a dark, dismal color and her lovely old-time furniture in a bad state of repair, the A. G. Breach family of Caldwell County began improvements which led to the whole house being renovated and beautified.

"Mrs. Breach is a member of the home demonstration clubs of Caldwell County and was one of those studying home furnishings at the regular club meetings," says Miss Helen Estabrook, house furnishing specialist at State College. "Through these studies, the whole family inspired to express its affection for Grandmother Breach by making her room more attractive. Mother, father, son and nephew used hours when outside employment was not feasible, laid a new floor, painted the walls a lovely, soft ivory color, added two new windows and refreshed the furniture."

When this was done, Miss Estabrook says the cheerfulness added to this room made the remainder of the house look shabby. This did not cause family pessimism because the members had made the important discovery that they could make valuable improvements at little cost and during hours. The other needed improvements were therefore attained was not long before the dining room was enlarged. A door was placed between the dining room and the kitchen, and then new floors were laid in the kitchen, living room and dining room. The walls were also finished.

A spacious living room was put out of the old narrow parlor. The kitchen was equipped to include a workshop. As a result, Miss Estabrook, the family specialist and labor and materials and a home that is worth the cost in the cost in satisfaction of living.
