Perfect.
The husband almost jumped out of his chair as the sound of a terrible crash came to him from the direction of the kitchen.
"You know, darling," he said to his wife, "I think we ought to call that maid of ours Dawn."
"Dawn?" she echoed wonderingly.
"What ever for?"
He regained his calm and smiled.
"There isn't a day that she doesn't break," he replied.
BOUNTY ON GAME DISCONTINUED
Mr. G. W. Burnett, County Game Warden, has received instructions from Raleigh to discontinue paying bounty after Dec. 31, 1931 on hawks, crows and wild cats.
Mr. Burnett stated that the season for killing deer and squirrels closed Dec. 31, 1931.
To Mr. Burnett's knowledge there has been 13 bear and 67 deer killed in Haywood county this season.
