IKSON DAY BRATED "Stonewall" Jackson and Robert E. Lee were honored ...

Lee-Jackson Day at the Waynesville Township High School. The program was given by the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

The exercises started at 10:30 a. m. with Mrs. O. R. Martin, Historian of the chapter, in charge of the program. Invocation was given by Supt. B. D. Bunn.

Rev. H. W. Baucom was introduced by Mrs. Martin and spoke on the Youth and School Days of Lee and Jackson.

A quartet composed of Misses Helen and Mildred Medford, Olive Jane Green, and Iris Chafin sang, "Praises for Peace."

Mr. Bill Prevost played a trumpet solo, "Romance," accompanied by Mr. Paul Frye.

As the closing number on the program Mrs. Will Hyatt, Custodian of Crosses, made a short talk and presented the cross of military service to Mr. J. C. Patrick, World War Veteran.

P. T. A. COUNCIL TO MEET TUESDAY

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association Council will be held at the Central Elementary School next Tuesday evening, January 26, at 7:30 p. m. The first number in the study course will be taken up at that time, "Learning," from the general topic, "The Seven Cardinal Principles of Education."

Any man or woman interested in child or community welfare will be most welcome to this and subsequent meetings. A full attendance of teachers and parents is urged.

EAST WAYNESVILLE PARENT-TEACHERS

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the East Waynesville Elementary School held its January meeting on last Tuesday evening, with Mrs. D. M. Simons, president, presiding.

Mr. J. A. Lowe was the principal speaker of the evening. His talk was on "Crime of Today," which was followed by a round table discussion on that subject.

Mrs. G. C. Platt was elected chairman of the committee to solicit food for the undernourished children.

The seventh grade won the half holiday for having the larger number of parents present.

JUNALUSKA P. T. A. MEETS

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Junaluska school had its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday night with the president, Mrs. Ed Glavich, presiding. An unusually large number of parents were present.

Mr. E. L. Hinton, State Sanitary Inspector, was the guest speaker of the evening. His subject was dairies and sanitation of the rural district.

Through the efforts of Mr. Hinton and Dr. Sam Stringfield any child wishing it, will be given the diphtheria toxin anti-toxin. This includes school children and children of preschool age. Where parents are not able to take care of the cost this will be provided by the P. T. A. It is hoped that all parents will see that their children take advantage of this opportunity.

Other talks were made by Mrs. Mrs. Felix Stovall, who spoke on, "Developing Responsibility in Children," and Mrs. O. S. Threlkeld, whose subject was, "The Reversible Why."

During the business session, plans were made to get shrubbery and trees for the school ground.

The next meeting of this organization will be Tuesday evening, February 16, at 7:30 p. m. and the subject will be "Observing Founders' Day."

D. A. R. HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Mrs. Sam Stringfield was hostess to the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home on Walnut street, Wednesday, January 13. This was the regular monthly meeting and in the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Gwyn, (who was unable to be present on account of illness in her family) Mrs. J. H. Howell, the vice regent, presided.

The meeting was well attended and was opened with the usual exercises. Reports were read and the chairman of Crossnore School reported bags sent to same.

Delagates and alternates who elected to the State Conference at Durham in March and to the Continental Congress at Washington, D. C., in April.

The paper for the afternoon was written and read by Mrs. R. P. Walker and was very fine.

The D. A. R. magazine was reviewed by Mrs. Matthews.

After being dismissed with the Mizpah Benediction, the meeting adjourned.

The hostess served a delightful ice course.
