Catawba poultrymen are using brick furnaces, built at home, for brooding their baby chicks. About 100 are now ready for use during the coming season.

SUN LIGHT

Oh, the beautiful sun shine That makes the world so bright, Just for your pleasure and mine, If we will only do right. There may come some dark days, When all brightness seems gone; Its then that temptations play, And "Satan" tempts us to do wrong. Its then, we must ask for His power, To keep us when in temptations' ways. For He can be to us in this hour, As He can in the brightest days. —H. B. Freeman.

Richland Chapel Sunday School Sunday School begins at 9:45 each Sunday. Present last Sunday 105. Supt. H. B. Freeman. Singing Tuesday evening 7. Preaching by the pastor, Mr. Clark, first and third Sunday. Present Sunday evening 200. Everybody come and help us, too, and let us help you, and the Lord will bless us "two." By H. B. Freeman.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Monday March 7, 1932, at eleven o'clock a. m., at the temporary court house door (Masonic Temple Building) in the Town of Waynesville, Haywood County, N. C. I will sell at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash the following described lands and premises lying and being in Ivy Hill Township, Haywood County, N. C.: Beginning at a stake on top of a little ridge, a corner of the Adolphus Henry tract of land and west of where W. W. Rathbone now lives, and running with said Henry line in the direction of W. A. Campbell's to a stake at the edge of the road leading to where Amos Setzer now lives; thence up said road and a branch to a stake at the fork of the branch to a stake in the line of the parties of the first part on top of mountain; then down along the top with said line to the Beginning, supposed to contain about 50 acres more or less, and being the same property conveyed to Marcus N. Setzer by Jacob M. Setzer and wife by deed dated November 15, 1896, and recorded in Book 16, page 195, Record of Deeds of Haywood County, N. C. Sale made pursuant to the power conferred upon me by deed of trust executed by Marcus N. Setzer dated June 14th, 1930, and recorded in Book of Deeds of Trust No. 26, page 198, office of Register of Deeds of Haywood County, to which reference is made for all the terms and conditions of the same. This February 3, 1932. J. R. MORGAN, Trustee. Feb. 11-18-25-Mar. 3.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE UNDER DECREE OF COURT

That by virtue of a judgment and decree of the Superior Court of Haywood County at January Term, 1932, rendered in the case of "Mrs. CARRIE FELMET CORZINE vs. HUGH J. SLOAN AND S. A. HUBBARD, J. R. MORGAN, TRUSTEE, AND THOMAS STRINGFIELD, before A. M. Stack, Judge presiding, whereby it was decreed that a certain deed of trust executed by the said Hugh J. Sloan and S. A. Hubbard to J. R. Morgan, trustee, for the said Carrie Felmet Corzine, which deed of trust is duly registered in the office of Register of Deeds of Haywood County, in Book 15, Page 291, Record of Deeds of Trust, be foreclosed by a sale of said lands described in said deed of trust, for the purpose of applying the proceeds derived from the sale of said lands toward the costs and expenses of foreclosure, and the balance applied upon the payment of the judgment rendered in the above mentioned case, upon the notes secured by said deed of trust. And by virtue of said judgment and decree in order to carry out a sale of said land, by virtue of the said deed of trust and the said decree of sale, William T. Hannah and J. R. Morgan having been appointed commissioners of the court, therein, to make sale of the said land under said decree for the purpose of applying the proceeds of said sale to the discharge of said judgment and costs and expenses of sale: Therefore, on the 7th day of March, 1932, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the Courthouse door of Haywood County, the undersigned William T. Hannah and J. R.
