1. In SIX (6) advertisements on this page there is an important word missing. Small words like "and", "is", and "it" are not counted as missing words. Only words that change the meaning of the sentence are left out.
2. No set rule is required in making answers. Originality and neatness will count. Just as long as it is made clear what word is missing and from which ad it is missing is all that is necessary.
3. Answers must be mailed or brought to The Mountaineer office not later than Tuesday after publication of advertisements.
4. Everyone may participate, except members of the staff of this paper and their families.
5. All answers mailed in should be addressed to The Missing Word Editor, Care of The Mountaineer.
6. Winners will be announced in The Mountaineer on February 25th.
7. Decision of judges will be final.
8. The person finding the correct missing words for the four publications will be awarded first prize, next best second prize and third best will receive the $2.50.

TIED TOGETHER

Pharmacy is part and parcel to the medical profession. The one cannot be considered independently of the other. This being true, the selection of a druggist is no light matter. He is the man upon whom your doctor must rely for the careful, skillful compounding of the prescriptions he orders. Here at Alexander's we can conceive of no greater responsibility than that of supplying those prescriptions in pure, accurate, dependable form. ASK YOUR DOCTOR.
