The Episcopal church during Lent and especially during Holy Week, March 20-27.
During that week the pastors will preach at noon each day in the Waywood Theatre; and Dr. Hayes will preach at night in the Methodist church.
Each evening next week, March 13 to 18, at 7:30, there will be revival services in the Presbyterian church. The preaching will be by visiting ministers as follows:
Rev. C. R. McCarty, Sunday; Rev. S. R. Crockett, Monday; Rev. A. J. Flanagan, Tuesday; Dr. L. B. Hayes, Wednesday; Rev. G. B. Hammond, Thursday; and Rev. M. S. Avery, Friday.
We hope to have special music at each service.

D. C. HOLDS MARCH MEETING
The Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met on last Friday afternoon with Mrs. D. M. Killian and Miss Nancy Killian as hostesses. An unusually large number of members were present to make this a successful and interesting meeting.
The main feature of the afternoon's program was the paper on "Arkansas and Louisiana" by Mrs. Roy Campbell. This proved to be a splendid paper, showing deep thought and research, and was thoroughly enjoyed by those who heard it.
Miss Margaret Stringfield detained the chapter with several violin numbers—playing old Southern Melodies—accompanied by Miss Nancy Killian.
During the social hour which followed the program the hostesses served a delightful salad course. Mrs. Walt Allen, mother of Mrs. E. C. Moody, was a guest of the afternoon.
WAKE FOREST COLLEGE ALUMNI TO MEET
The Wake Forest Alumni will hold their first meeting at the LeFaine Hotel in Waynesville on Tuesday night, March 22, at 7 p. m. All the Wake Forest College men in Haywood County and Jackson County are expected to be present one hundred per cent. There are around 60 alumni in these two counties. Dr. H. T. Hunter, president of Western Carolina Teachers College at Canton, Asheville, and Hugh Monteith, prominent attorney of Sylva, expect to have all Wake Forest men of Jackson County present.
Supt. A. J. Huttenbach of the Cent in Schools is highly optimistic over the coming meeting. There are around twenty-two Wake Forest men in Haywood County and every man is expected to be present.
The purpose of the meeting is to organize, get together, to know each other better, and to hear Al Daxton, Alumni Secretary, from the College speak on the activities of the college. Mr. Daxton expects to bring with him some prominent members of the Wake Forest faculty.
The LeFaine Hotel will furnish an excellent place for the occasion at a very reasonable rate.
EASTERN STAR ELECTS OFFICERS
The Waynesville Chapter No. 195 Order Eastern Star held its regular meeting on Thursday night, March 3, at the Masonic Temple. One candidate was initiated into the Order, and balloting on three petitions was accomplished at this time. As this was the time for the annual election of officers the following members were selected to serve for the ensuing year:
Mrs. D. M. Simons, Worthy Matron.
Mr. Jarvis Campbell, Worthy Patron.
Mrs. M. C. Green, Associate Matron.
Mr. Joe Schenck, Associate Patron.
Mrs. Otto Burgin, Conduress.
Mrs. Thad McIntosh, Associate Conduress.
Mrs. Edna McJee, Secretary.
Mrs. Mary Oaks, Treasurer.
Mrs. Nelson Post, W. M. from Michigan, was present and made a beautiful talk.
The district deputy G. M. Mrs. Minnie K. Lewis of Asheville will make her official visit on March 17 and many phases of the work will be put on at this time. All members and visitors are invited to attend.
Appointive officers will be named at this meeting by the New Worthy Matron. Installation will take place on March 31. (Contributed.)
BISHOP HORNER WILL HOLD CONFIRMATION ON SUNDAY
In "Grace Church in the Mountains" at eleven o'clock on Sunday morning, March 13th, the Right Reverend Bishop Junius Moore Horner, of Asheville, will preach the sermon and administer the sacrament of Holy Communion. Every one is most cordially invited to hear the Bishop.
At 3 P. M. Bishop Horner will preach at St. Mary's, Micalade.
EVANGELISTIC SERVICES IN WAYNEWOOD THEATRE
Through the kind courtesy of Mr. J. E. Massie, the ministers of the city will hold noonday services in the Waywood Theatre during Holy Week, which begins on Monday, March 21st. A short program of sacred music will be given each day, except Friday, at 11:45 a. m., and the service of song and prayer will begin promptly at noon, closing at 12:30 p. m.
Revs. H. W. Bausom, J. S. Goode, L. B. Hayes, R. P. Walker, and Albert New will preach in the order named.
No service will be held in the theatre on Good Friday, as on that day the "Three Hours" service will be held in Grace Episcopal Church, commencing at noon.
Our local ministers extend a fraternal invitation to all to attend each and every service of the "Holy Week" services of devotional meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark of White Oak were visitors here this week.
We are glad to report that Mrs. S. H. Keller, who was quite ill the first of the week, is steadily improving.
Mr. W. A. Bradley was reported to have spent the week-end in Asheville hospital and has returned from his roomy home.
Mrs. Donnivan also spent the week-end in Asheville and has returned home.
Mrs. M. J. McInnis, who has been in Asheville for some time, has returned to her home in White Oak.

SHIRT HEADQUARTERS

HE CALLED IT A MIRACLE

WE CALL IT "SANFORIZING"

A FEW WEEKS ago a "shirt crank" friend of ours bought one of our handsome Arrow "Sanforized-Shrink" Shirts. It fitted him perfectly, of course. After several washings it still fitted him perfectly. That was a new experience for him. Now he knows that "Sanforizing" means "guaranteed permanent fit for the life of the garment." Yesterday he proved his knowledge by the purchase of a drawer-full of Trumps in white and colors. $1.95. We have Trump in your size, too.
