

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL
PHONE 137

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ward, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and A.E. Ward, at Lake Junaluska for several weeks moved to the Ward residence on Boundary street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kirkpatrick and small daughter, Nancy Anne, of Asheville are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kirkpatrick, at their home on the Deedwood Road.

Mr. Raymond McCracken, of Fines Creek, was among the visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. Paul Pless was here from East Fork Tuesday.

WAYNESVILLE WOMEN RE-ELECTED

The annual spring district meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of Western North Carolina was held in Asheville Saturday was featured by a large attendance. Mrs. Glenn Hyatt, of Newton, state president, made the chief address. Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, district director, presided and was re-elected for a second year. Mrs. O. B. Hyatt, district secretary, was also re-elected for a second term.

Mrs. Long gave a detailed account of the accomplishments of the division for the past year. She told of the completion of the Fort Fisher monument which is to be unveiled with special ceremonies on June 2 with Major O. Max Gardner and other officials lending their presence.

During the morning session reports from the chapters of the district were given. This included the report for the Waynesville chapter by Miss Nancy Killian.

A luncheon was served in the auditorium, which was gaily decorated with flags and a profusion of flowers. During the luncheon toasts were given as follows: "Our Confederate Veterans" by Mrs. M. Buchanan, of Sylva; "Our Future Organization" by Mrs. Carl Slagle, of Frankfort; "Our Past Presidents" by Mrs. R. R. Campbell, of Waynesville; "Depression" Miss Florence Ker, of Brevard; "Prosperity" Mrs. C. McArthur, of Asheville; "Our Officers" Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. E. L. McKee, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Long, and Mrs. Kelly Thomas.

Miss Ellen Self gave an impromptu dance, accompanied by John and Alice Boon on the violin and Mrs. W. H. Davis at the piano. Members of the Haywood Chapter attended the meeting were: Mrs. A. Hyatt, Mrs. O. R. Martin, Mrs. R. Campbell, president of the Haywood Chapter, Mrs. L. M. Killian, Mrs. D. M. Killian, Mrs. Joan Queen, Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, Mrs. O. H. Hyatt, Mrs. James Harden Howell, Mrs. W. F. Swift, and Miss Nancy Killian, secretary of the Haywood Chapter.

DUNHAM ARRIVES ON ST. AUGUSTINE

Mr. Donald Dunham arrived last Tuesday from his winter home in St. Augustine, Florida, to put the Dunham House in readiness for the summer season. He was accompanied by Mr. Mahr, who will be here for the week. Mr. Dunham will have rooms ready for guests by the end of the week, but the formal opening will not be until about the tenth of June.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Burbridge of Jacksonville are expected Monday. Burbridge will be assistant manager and hostess at the Dunham House this season. Mr. and Mrs. Hoppie of St. Petersburg are expected as soon as the hotel is ready.

A. B. HOLDS MAY MEETING

Mrs. C. H. McDowell entertained Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a May meeting Wednesday afternoon at her home on Depot street. Mrs. James M. Long read a paper "George Washington's Social Life the Builder of the Nation." Mrs. Shelton reviewed the National Magazine. Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn gave the resume of the State conference. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, regent; Mrs. J. Lenoir Howell, vice regent; Mrs. Siler, treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Howell, recording secretary; Mrs. M. Long, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kate Morris, registrar; Mrs. Sarah Haynes, historian; Mrs. R. Prevost, librarian; and Mrs. R. Barber, chaplain.

SCOUTS ENTERTAIN BOY SCOUTS

Last Friday evening the Girl Scouts entertained the Boy Scouts at a party at the home of Mrs. W. Smith. About sixty young people present and cooked their supper on the lawn over three large fires. Various games under the supervision of Mr. Smith featured the evening's entertainment. The occasion was in celebration of the first anniversary of the organization of the Scouts in Waynesville.

WEEK-END CATALOCHEE

Thelma Howell, instructor of the club at W. C. T. C. Miss Mary A. Miss Mabel Clark, Mr. Mark Gibson, Mr. White Mease, of W. C. T. C., Mr. Rankin and Miss Annie Roe of Johnson, spent the past week-end fishing at Catalochee.

MAN'S CLUB MEETS TODAY

The final business meeting of the Men's Club for this year will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Grover Davis with Mrs. W. L. McCracken as associate secretary. Every member of the club is expected to be present.

FERGUSON-NICHOLS

Etta Ferguson of Marion and Roy Nichols were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Gray Nichols, at Ratcliff Cove. Only relatives and close friends attended the ceremony.

HERBERT BAUCOM HONORED

Herbert Baucum, son of Rev. H. W. Baucum, was recently elected president of the Baptist Student Union at Wake Forest College. Baucum is a member of the sophomore class.

E. P. Gay attended a medical conference in Asheville Tuesday night.

COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING OF YEAR

On Monday afternoon the last meeting of the year of the Community Club was held in the club rooms, with Mrs. Ben Collett, the newly elected president, presiding. During the business session the president announced the following chairmen and members of committees, with attention called to the fact that the committees not given in full would be made known later: Garden, Miss Carolina Altstaetter, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Jales M. Long, Mrs. J. P. Dicus, Mrs. W. T. Shelton, Miss Alice Quinlan, Mrs. Carol Bell, Mrs. Raymond Hyatt, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn; Literature, Miss Alice Quinlan and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn; Education, Mrs. B. D. Bunn, Mrs. J. L. Stringfield, and Mrs. W. D. Smith; Health, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. J. Howell Way, and Mrs. H. W. Baucum; Welfare, Mrs. Harry Rotha, Dramatic, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Miss Alice Quinlan, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn; Music, Miss Nancy Killian; Conservation, Mrs. R. L. Coon, Mrs. J. P. Dicus, and Mrs. Frank Bell; Finance, Mrs. James A. King; Legislation, Mrs. James L. Stringfield; Interracial, Mrs. J. R. Latham and Mrs. Sam Platt; Entertainment, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. James M. Long, and Mrs. C. C. White; Attendance, Mrs. O. R. Martin, Mrs. Linwood Grahil, and Mrs. Jerry Collett; and House, Mrs. Linwood Grahil.

Mrs. Ben Collett and Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell, who had represented the club at the State Federation Convention held in Winston-Salem last week, gave inspirational talks regarding the activities of club work as outlined at the meeting, with interesting accounts of the social affairs that honored the delegates. The members were particularly interested in the report given by Mrs. Seawell of the state department of education and gardening.

In the absence of Miss Altstaetter, chairman, Miss Alice Quinlan gave the report of the Garden Department, stating that the Spring Flower Show would be held on June the 2nd. She urged all the members to make entries.

The question of a suitable entrance to Waynesville since the opening of the Smoky Mountain Park, was discussed, and a motion was made that the matter be turned over to the Garden Department to take up with the other civic organizations of the town at an early date.

The latter part of the program was turned over to the Girl Scouts, who were special guests of the occasion, their organization having been sponsored by the Community Club. Troup 1, which is known as "Pine Tree Troup," has as its captain Mrs. W. D. Smith, with Miss Lincoln as Lieutenant. The girls under the direction of their leaders gave a most enjoyable program, which set forth the ideals they are taught in their work. The following features were given: Scout Chant, by the entire troupe, "Sir Baden Powell," a talk by Mary Medford, "Who Are Girl Scouts," by Norine Lowe, "The Promise and Laws of the Girl Scouts," by Edith Baucom, "A Sketch of the Life of Sacapanuca," by Elizabeth Wilburn, "The Story of Louisa May Alcott," by Hattie Siler Freeman, "The Life Work of Anna Shaw," by Doretta Thulkeid, "The Kike Song," by the troupe. A talk regarding Scout activities by Miss Lincoln. An exhibition of signalling by Hattie Siler Freeman and Loretta Thulkeid, and closing number, Taps, by the troupe.

During the social hour that followed adjournment, tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. O. R. Martin, Mrs. Ernest Hyatt, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, and Miss Alice Quinlan.

LITTLE MISS ALLEY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. W. H. Limer complimented her young granddaughter, Theresa Alley, with a party last Thursday afternoon in celebration of her third birthday. A profusion of spring flowers in pink and white were used as decoration in the living rooms of the Limer home.

After playing numerous games the small guests were invited into the dining room. Here the pink and white color scheme was further carried out in the favors, ice course, and in the lovely birthday cake which was placed in the center of the table. Little Miss Alley was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

The small guests present were: Bebe Medford, Barbara Ann Boyd, Gladys Walker, Anne Farmer, Kathryn Hill, Lois Massie, Mary Lee Alley, Betty Jean Alley, Billy Davis, Noble Garrettt, Parker Gay, and Zeb Alley.

ATTEND ROTARY MEETING

Several members of the Waynesville Rotary Club with their wives attended the annual meeting of the 58th district of Rotary International, held at Asheville last Thursday and Friday. Aside from the business sessions, this convention was featured by extensive entertainment. On Thursday the Rotarians and their wives were shown over the Vanderbilt Estate and on Thursday evening a formal banquet was held at Grove Park Inn. At this banquet Mr. Ralph E. Noolner, president of the Waynesville club, presented a silver service to Mr. Bret Shaeffer of Hickory, retiring governor of the district. A luncheon was given Thursday at the George Vanderbilt Hotel, featured by talks by the past district governors which included Ernest L. Withers. On Friday luncheon was served at the Battery Park Hotel. On both days the Rotarians were entertained with bridge and teas.

Among those attending the convention were: Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Noolner, Mr. and Mrs. Bonner Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Robinson, Mr. and W. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Withers, Dr. S. P. Gay, Mr. W. L. Lampkin, Mr. Hilliard B. Atkins, and Dr. Thomas Stringfield.

O. E. S. MEETS TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the Order of Eastern Star tonight at 8 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. A degree team from Asheville will be present at the meeting and will exemplify the work of this order. Other orders in this section have been invited to attend and all local members are asked to be present.

Mrs. Akers and son, Hamilton Akers, and Misses Edna and Belle Bright spent Sunday in Spockville as guests of Miss Edith Gentry. Miss Gentry entertained her guests at an elaborate dinner in celebration of her birthday anniversary.

Mr. Edward Robeson of Newport News, Virginia spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson, at their home on Love Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Robeson and Miss Frances Robeson accompanied him home Monday for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. Hallett Ward of Richmond, West Virginia arrived Saturday to join Mrs. Ward at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hipps. Mr. and Mrs. Ward will return to their home the latter part of this week.

Miss Alice Stringfield, a several of her relatives from Concord, N.C., spent Sunday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield. Miss Rosalyn Ray accompanied Miss Stringfield back to Spartanburg for a visit of a few days.

Mrs. Wayne Battle of Sylva came yesterday to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Platt. Mrs. Battle is the former Miss Anna Jean Platt. While in town she will be extended several social courtesies.

Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell and daughter, Anne Seawell, motored to Columbia, South Carolina last week-end, taking Mrs. Seawell's mother, Mrs. L. P. Williamson, who has been visiting them for the past few weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Margum, of Greensboro, Mrs. Charles De Wolf, the former Miss Edith Mangum, of Chapel Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Chambliss Keith, of Selma, Alabama, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the Mangum home in Waynesville.

Miss Elizabeth Henry has as her guest Miss Edith Byrd of Hendersonville.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Medford announce the birth of a daughter, Lavonia, Wednesday, May 11.

FARMERS-----

If you are going to sow SOY BEANS, now is the time to buy. We can supply your needs with,

"The Yellow Mammoth"
"The Virginia Browns"
"Laredos"

We also have a limited supply of Field Peas, Cane Seed and Stock Beets.

SPRAYING MATERIALS

We Are Headquarters For All Kind Of Spraying Materials

We Carry a Full Line of Farming and Garden Tools

OUR MOTTO

"Quality, Price, Service"

PEOPLE'S SUPPLY STORE

FORMERLY HYATT & COMPANY
Phone 43 - - - Opposite Depot

Humming Bird
FULL FASHIONED HOSIERY

Whether You Want—

- Sheer Chiffons,
- Medium Weight,
- Service Weight,
- Lace Tops,
- or
- Meshes,

There is a Humming Bird Style to fit your every need at the lowest price consistent with the manufacture of quality merchandise.

We feature and strongly recommend Humming Birds because of their style appeal, uniform quality and fine workmanship, and because we can stand squarely behind every pair we sell.

IF YOU PAY TOO LITTLE, YOUR HOSE MAY COST TOO MUCH

QUALITY--

--HOSIERY

WITH AN ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE OF SATISFACTION

Is Your Assurance of Style, Quality, And Value. And The New Low Prices Are The Lowest in The History of Silk Hosiery.

$1.00 SERVICE OR CHIFFON WEIGHT NOW

79c

NO. 30 Extra Service $1.25	NO. 80 Super Sheer $1.50
--	--

REMEMBER

A New Pair With A Smile if You Are Not Fully Satisfied is our Regular Guarantee on Humming Bird Silk Hosiery Mesh Numbers Excepted

C. E. RAY'S SONS

DEPARTMENT STORE