MISS WAY HONORS VISITOR
One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the dance given Tuesday evening by Miss Marjorie Way honoring Miss Lila Womble, of Winston-Salem, guest of Miss Martha Neal. A profusion of delphinium and daisies decorated the rooms, carrying out a color scheme of yellow and blue. A special feature of the evening's entertainment was the unraveling of the spider web which was woven throughout the living rooms. Each guest was given a dangling end of the web and by working in and out until the net work was dissolved found his partner for the first prom.

Punch and sandwiches were served throughout the evening.
The guests present were: Misses Lila Womble, Martha Neal and Mary Mock, Ellen Louise Killian, Tillie Rotha, Louise Frye, Louisa Thackston, Marion McDowell, Jean Cantrell, Hester Ann Withers, and guests, Caroline Long, Elizabeth and Eloise Alexander, Jewel Hips, Rosalyn Ray, Margaret Ashton, Wilma McCracken, Constance Patton, and Messrs. Two charming visitors, Mrs. O. J. Stacy and Mrs. O. C. Burkhardt, of Petersburg, Virginia, who were the guests of their sister, Mrs. E. B. Camp, were a complimented last Wednesday afternoon with a lovely bridge party given by Mrs. Harry Kotha.

Decorative combinations of garden flowers were used with colorful effect in the living rooms where the games were enjoyed. When the cards were put away the prize winners were found to be Miss Robena Miller and Mrs. Marjorie Blaylock.
Making up the tables were Mrs. John N. Shoolbred, Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell, Mrs. E. B. Camp, Mrs. Stacey, Mrs. Blaylock, Mr. Burkhardt, Miss Alice Quinlan, and Miss Robena Miller.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING OF YEAR
Mrs. E. S. Harrold, was hostess at the final meeting of the year of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Haywood street. The meeting was well attended. Many of the summer visitors and other guests were present as guests of the club. Mrs. James Harden Howell presided in the absence of the president and Mrs. John Queen acted as secretary.
Final plans were made for the quilt show which will be sponsored by the club. Mrs. E. S. Harrold is chairman of the committee that has this affair in charge. Indications are pointing to a most successful showing.

Preparations for the Danlia show, to be held in August, were also discussed. Committees on the Danlia show arrangements are enthusiastic over the prospects for the best show since the club began sponsoring the affair. Mrs. Frank Ferguson is chairman of this committee. She is receiving the support and cooperation of such Danlia growers as J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte, J. C. Cleveland, of Zirconia, and W. T. Sheator, of Waynesville.

It was reported that Powers had been sent to Mrs. V. B. Matthews, an honor member of the club, who has been confined to her home home on account of illness.
Among the guests present were: Mrs. Franklin Williams, president of the Woman's club of Point Pleasant, New Jersey, who responded to an invitation to speak on the work of the club, of which she is president; Mrs. Kelly Elmore, of Raleigh, who spoke on the work of the Raleigh club of which she is a member; Mrs. L. P. Williamson, of Atlanta; Mrs. W. B. Harbeck, of Waynesville, and Miss Mabel White, who has been conducting the vacation Bible school at the First Presbyterian church here.

Miss Elizabeth Baucom, a student of Winthrop college, gave piano selections.

JUNIOR STUDY CLUB OF SYLVA HONOURED
Mrs. Doyle Alley entertained the Junior Study Club of Sylva on last Friday with a delightful evening of bridge at her home on North Main street. The rooms were decorated with roses and sweet peas, pink and white being the color note of the occasion. At the conclusion of the game, Miss Pauline Miller held high score and was presented with perfume. Miss Myrtle Henson held low score and was favored with a desk set. An ice course was served.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Misses Docia and Rose Garrett, Ruth and Irene Oliver, Myrtle Henson, Pauline Miller, Sue Allison, Emily Smith, Llewellyn Rhodes, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Frank Crawford, and Mrs. Cyrus Nicholson. Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., of Waynesville, assisted Mrs. Alley in receiving the guests.

1918 CLASS REUNION
Last Wednesday evening thirteen members of the 1918 graduating class of Waynesville High School, with their wives and husbands, had a delightful picnic supper at the rustic lodge of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell.
After supper songs and reminiscences were enjoyed around the camp fire.

Since graduation two of the class, Ada Grahl Francis and Irene Howell have died; the remaining twenty-one are scattered from coast to coast.
Members attending the reunion were: Elizabeth Grahl Platt, Virginia Matney Martin, Mary Shelton Ketner, Sara Thomas Campbell, Elizabeth Reeves Francis, Josephine McDowell Williams of Point Pleasant, New Jersey, Helen Marshall of Roseland Virginia, Ruth Rodgers Turbill, of Asheville, Mildred Crawford, William Hannah, Wilford Ray, James Ferguson, and Linwood Grahl. Guests were Mesdames William Hannah, Wilford Ray, Linwood Grahl, and Messrs. Sam Platt, Ed Turbill, Walter Ketner, Roy Campbell, Roy Francis, and Prof. E. J. Robeson.

ASHE-BISCHOFF
Whittier, N.C.—Coming as a complete surprise to friends here was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Winona Ashe, of Whittier, to Mr. George Albert Bischoff, of Hazelwood, which took place in Greenville, South Carolina, on June 18. The ceremony, which was a very quiet affair, was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kuykendall, friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Bischoff is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Allen Ashe and has resided in Whittier all her life. She received her education at Bethel High School and North Carolina College for Women. Mr. Bischoff is the son of Mrs. Emma Bischoff, of Mt. Holly, New Jersey, of which state he is a native. Three years ago he came to North Carolina and has since that time been connected with Royle & Pilkington Company, at Hazelwood.

MISS TUCKER AND MR. STOVALL WED
The following account from The Charlotte Observer will be of interest to a wide circle of friends in Waynesville:
A wedding characterized by beauty and impressiveness was that of Miss Julia Tucker of Lincolnton and Mr. G. Dewey Stovall of Waynesville, which took place at the First Methodist church in Lincolnton last Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. P. W. Tucker, pastor of the church and father of the bride, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with floor baskets of hydrangea, shasta, daisies, fever few and regal lilies.
Following two organ solos by Miss Wetmore, Miss Helen Myers of Concord sang "Sweetest Sorrow Ever Told," and "At Dawning." Miss Wetmore was gown in pink chiffon and Miss Myers in pale blue crepe. Both wore picture hats to harmonize with their trucks and shoulder sprays of roses and sweet peas. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" was softly played by the organist.
Mr. Edmond Ramsour and Mr. Claude Nace were ushers. There were no attendants as the bride and groom entered together.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of blue French crepe fashioned along princess lines. She wore pink slippers and pink picture hat. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses, lilies of the valley and swansonia.
Mrs. Stovall, an attractive and popular young woman, is the older daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. W. Tucker. She received her education at Davenport college, Lenoir, and at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. During the past few years she has been a teacher in the Waynesville schools. Mr. Stovall, the older son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stovall of Cleveland, Georgia, is a graduate of Young Harris college, Young Harris, Georgia. He is a prominent young business man of Waynesville where he is in the wholesale business.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Stovall left by motor for a bridal trip to northern points and upon their return will be at home in Waynesville.

LEES ENTERTAIN AT CAMP
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lee entertained a few friends last Thursday evening with a rink-tum-ditty supper at their lodge above Balsam. The guests included Mrs. T. H. Quinn of Birmingham, Alabama, Miss Isabel Ferguson, Mr. James Ferguson, Mr. Jimmie Neal, and Mr. Joe Little of Asheville.
Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Grayden Ferguson, and Miss Eula Patterson motored to Lincolnton last Thursday to attend the wedding of Miss Julia Tucker and Mr. Dewey Stovall.

SUPPER PARTY AT BALSAM
