LONG-HILDEBRAND

The following announcement was received by friends here last week: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Hildebrand announce the marriage of their daughter Margaret to Mr. Carroll Kirkpatrick Long on Monday, April the twenty-fifth nineteen hundred and thirty-two Sylva, North Carolina.

The marriage was quietly solemnized in the presence of a few close friends and relatives.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Hildebrand of Canton. She was graduated from Greensboro College and since graduation has been a successful teacher in the North Canton graded school. She is a charming and attractive young woman and is admired by a host of friends.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Dr. R. C. Long and Mrs. Long of Lake Junaluska and a grandson of the late Rev. J. R. Long, pioneer minister in Western North Carolina, who gave the property on which the present Long's Chapel is situated and for whom that church is named. He is a graduate of Bailey Military School in Greenwood, South Carolina and received his higher education at Duke University, Durham. Mr. Long is at present connected with the Le Faine Hotel and is popular among a large group of friends.

Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Long will be at home at the Le Faine Hotel.

MISS ANNE SEAWELL HOSTESS

Miss Anne Seawell celebrated her birthday with a party on last Wednesday evening. She had as her guests twelve girls and twelve boys as this was her twelfth anniversary.

The home was charmingly decorated with pink roses, sweetpeas and larkspur.

The lovely birthday cake with twelve lighted candles was cut by the guests.

Games and contests featured the entertainment. Hilda Way and Dick Henry each received a box of candy as winners in the contests.

Those attending were: Misses Martha and Hilda Way, Mary Willie Rotha, Mary Wood, Thessie Mae Nolner, Ellen Self of Asheville and her guest, Mary Craig Roberts of Birmingham, Alabama, Carolyn Ward, Thomasine Stringfield, Catherine Martin, Emily Siler, Hasetine Swift, and Barbara Countney of Morganton; James Dicus, Ernest Withers, James Latham, Joe Dillard Self, Newton Inman, S. MISS WELCH ENTERTAINS WITH DINNER-DANCE

One of the most brilliant events of the season was the dinner party given by Miss Virginia Welch Monday evening at the Gordon Hotel.

Red, white and blue predominated in the elaborate decorations, thus carrying out the Fourth of July color scheme. Balloons and paper streamers hung from the ceiling in the private dining room where the dinner was served and the table was graced with a bowl of mixed garden flowers. Appropriate place cards directed the guests to their seats. Flags were also in evidence. Attractive favors were at each place, the ladies receiving wrist corsages of pink sweet peas and the gentlemen receiving cigarette cases with decoration suggestive of the occasion.

Following the dinner Miss Welch entertained her guests at the dance which was being held in the ball room of the hotel.

After the dance the party went to the Waynesville Country Club where a display of fireworks concluded the delightful evening.

JOINT HOSTESSES GIVE TREASURE HUNT AS HONOR

One of the many delightful courtesies extended to Miss Lila Womble of Winston-Salem, guest of Miss Martha Neal, was the treasure hunt given by Miss Neal and Miss Jewel Hipps Thursday evening.

The guests assembled at the Hipps home to start on the quest for the hidden treasures. Direction for the next drive and search were found at each place as the merry party drove on their rounds from place to place.

Miss Elsie Smathers was presented a box of candy and Mr. Lawrence Patton received cigarettes as the first to reach the treasure.

The last clue led the treasure hunters back to the home of Miss Hipps for a dance. The home throughout was arranged with a profusion of bright summer flowers. The punch bowl was arranged on the dining room table which was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and fernery. Here punch and sandwiches were served during the entire evening.

In the party were: Misses Lila Womble, Constance Patton, Martha Mock, Mary Mock, Rosalyn Ray, Marietta Way, Louisa Thackston, Hester Ann Withers and guests, Caroline Long, Elizabeth Alexander, and Eloisa Alexander, Marion McDowell, and guest, Jean Smith Cantrell, Ellen Louise Killian, Tillie Rotha, Elsie Smathers, Gladys Dicus, Martin Stringfield, Elizabeth Ray, Mary Emma Massie, Wilma McCracken and Messrs. CHAMING HOME WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

The following account from a California paper will interest a wide circle of friends in Western North Carolina:

At a charmingly appointed wedding, Miss Jean Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bowman, of 109 East Spruce street, became the bride of Roy Gordon Miller of Waynesville, N. C., on Saturday evening. The nuptial ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bowman, relatives of the bride at 728 East Nutwood street, the Rev. Thomas L. Burden of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiating. The double vow ritual was used.

The marriage service was read before a huge panel of flowers in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of light blue crepe trimmed with cream lace with which she wore a lace cap beaded with pearls. Her bouquet contained white rose buds and sweet peas. Miss Alta Ross assisted as bride's maid, becomingly gowned in green satin and carrying pink roses. Walter Nichols served Mr. Miller as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony. Refreshments were served and the bride cut a beautifully decorated wedding cake. Following a brief trip up the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Long Beach. The bride was the recipient of many lovely pre-nuptial courtesies during her betrothal days.

Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller of Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Rogers entertained a number of friends at their home near Lake Junaluska July Fourth. Dancing was an attractive feature of the afternoon, with wonderful music of many delightful numbers. A delicious luncheon and refreshments were served by the hostess.

HERE FROM FLORIDA Mr. A. M. C. Russell of Palmetto, Florida arrived in Waynesville Wednesday for a stay of a few days. Mr. Russell is editor of the Palmetto News of Palmetto, Florida, and is one of the ablest newspaper men of that state. For a number of years Mr. Russell has had a summer place at Topton, but this is his first visit to this immediate section. He expresses himself as being perfectly delighted with the scenic beauty of the mountains here in Waynesville. Although originally from Georgia he finds Western North Carolina to have advantages that few sections elsewhere possess.
