MRS. RAY HONORS MRS. RAYMOND

Charming in every detail will be the bridge luncheon given today by Mrs. Wilford Ray at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. E. Alley, honoring Mrs. L. L. Raymond, who leaves next week for her home in New York City. Mrs. Raymond has been a popular guest at the Hotel Gordon this summer.

Sinias and gladioli and other summer flowers were chosen to carry out a color scheme of yellow and white in decorating the home. Mrs. Raymond with nine intimate friends will be seated at the large table in the dining room. This table will be centered with a lovely bowl of flowers in yellow and white shades. Other guests will be seated at small tables. The chosen color motif will be artistically carried out in the luncheon appointments. Tiny yellow crepe paper chairs will be used as place cards and small umbrellas will be placed in the center of the ice. Miniature yellow birds holding mints will decorate the glasses. Mints and nuts in attractive containers and tallies will further the color note.

Contract bridge will be played at four tables following the luncheon after which the holder of the high score will receive a luncheon set. Mrs. Raymond will be presented with a remembrance of the occasion.

Mrs. Ray's guests will be Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Mrs. J. W. Seaver, Mrs. William Shoobred, Mrs. William Kimberly, Mrs. C. C. White, Mrs. Rolph Bell, of Jefferson City, Tennessee, Mrs. Francis Massie, Mrs. F. E. Alley, Jr., Mrs. Carol Bell, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. Roy Francis, Mrs. Alvin Ward, and Miss Betsey Lane Quinlan.

MISS BARBER HOSTESS

A charming buffet supper was given Friday evening by Miss Mary Barber at her home on Love Lane, in honor of her guest, Mr. Dave Sinclair, of Wilmington.

The home was effectively arranged for the party with lovely summer flowers. The guests were entertained with bridge during the evening.

Miss Barber's guests were Miss Dorothy Lane, Miss Elizabeth Norman, of Griffin, Georgia, Miss Virginia Welch, Miss Eleanor Bushnell, Mr. Dave Sinclair, Mr. Woodson, Purcell, Mr. Aaron Prevost, Mr. Ben Sloan, and Mr. Richard Barber.
