of the tomatoes, which imparts a superior flavor. The okra is very delicate and may scorch if not stirred frequently. For this reason many Creole cooks fry the okra pods separately in a frying pan, seasoning with pepper, cayenne, and salt and then add them to the chicken. Equally good results may be obtained with less trouble by simply adding the okra to the frying chicken and watching constantly to prevent scorching. The least taste of a "scorch" spoils the flavor of the gumbo. When well fried and browned, add about 3 quarts of boiling water and set on the back of the stove to simmer for about an hour longer. Serve hot with nicely boiled rice. Round steak may be substituted for chicken, but it must be borne in mind that the chicken gumbo is the best flavored.

Mrs. George Semmes, of Jacksonville, Florida arrived Sunday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ray.

OKRA DISHES and how to Prepare Them

Since the okra season is at its best in Haywood county at this time, it was thought that some of our readers would like to have a few receipts of okra dishes which were recently sent out by the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

"No copper, brass, or iron cooking vessels should be employed in preparing okra, as the metal will be absorbed and the pods discolored or possibly rendered poisonous. The cooking should be done in agate, porcelain, or earthenware vessels."

OKRA SOUP

2 pounds of beef, without fat or bone.

2 cupsful of okra, chopped fine.

1/4 pound of butter.

4 quarts of cold water.

1 onion, sliced and chopped.

Salt and pepper.

Cut the beef into small pieces and season well with pepper and salt. Fry it in the soup kettle with the onion and butter until very brown. Then add the cold water and let simmer for an hour and a half. Add the okra, and let simmer gently for three or four hours longer.

WINTER OKRA SOUP

1 can of good New Orleans okra.

1 can of tomatoes.

2 onions, chopped fine.

2 tablespoonfuls of butter.

1 dozen oysters.

3 tablespoonfuls of rice.

A red pepper pod, with the seeds.

Chop the onions and fry them in the butter. Wash the rice well, then stew the onions, tomatoes, and pepper together in about 3 quarts of water and 1 pint of oyster water for about three hours, stirring frequently. Ten minutes before serving add the okra and let it come to a boil. Then drop in the oysters, boil up once, and serve.

CHICKEN GUMBO

1 chicken, weighing 3 or 4 pounds.

1 quart of sliced tomatoes.

1 onion.

Out For Another Championship

Coach C. E. Weatherby

Although shy on making predictions, it looks from the training Coach Weatherby is putting his charges through that he is determined to get another championship this year. Coach has just returned from summer school at Duke, where in connection with other studies, he got many new ideas and plays from the coaching school that was in session there. "I'm not predicting what we'll do this year but I've seen worse starts."

He is now engaged at Lenoir.

"What was the excitement down the street?"

"Oh, a man in a reverie ran into a woman in a tantrum."

"Were the machines badly damaged?"

Mrs. Thompson (learning to drive) "Henry, that little mirror up there is right."

Thompson: "Isn't it?"

Mrs. Thompson: "No, I can't see anything but the car behind."

"What did the traffic cop say to you?"

"I don't know," answered Mr. Chuggins. "I was so busy saying yes, that I couldn't hear him."

"How fast is your car, Jimpson?" asked Harkaway.

"Well," said Jimpson, "it keeps about six months ahead of my income generally."
