Timely Questions And Answers On Farm Problems

Question: I produced only two-thirds of the feed needed for my livestock this year. How should this be fed and what should I plant to supplement this feed?

Answer: Use the grain hay on hand for feeding this winter and sow barley, oats, and vetch at the rate of 1 1/2 bushels of oats, 1 bushel of barley, and 15 pounds of vetch to the acre.

Question: My cow is giving milk streaked with blood and the udder is hard and lumpy. What is the trouble and how can I correct it?

Answer: This is an inflammation of the udder and is caused by a blow on the udder from horns or feet, exposure to extreme changes of weather, indigestion or insufficient stripping of the udder in milking.

Question: How much silage should I feed my cow each day during the winter? What other feeds should be added?

Answer: This depends on the weight of the animal. A cow will consume about three pounds of silage to each one hundred pounds live weight.

Beef Cattle Furnish Surplus Feed Market

The two main advantages of fattening beef cattle for market are to provide a market for surplus feed-crops and to secure manure that will cut down the fertilizer bill.

Whether it will pay any farmer to feed some cattle this winter will depend largely on the amount of feed he has on hand and the need for manure in his farming operations.

Mr. Case makes it clear that the best beef feed for fattening cattle is corn. If this grain is fed with dry roughage and a protein concentrate, it will produce excellent gains.

With present prices of beef cattle it will not pay to buy feed, except cottonseed meal or some other concentrate for balancing the corn. When cottonseed meal is low in price, it may pay to buy both meal and hulls.

SCHOOL NOTES FROM BETHEL

As part of a fairly comprehensive citizenship program in the Bethel school a Student Senate, has been proclaimed. Membership in the student senate is elective—two members may be elected from each high school grade.

Recent elections have placed the following pupils on the student senate body: Mae Henson, president; Mary Clark, secretary; William Wilson; Margaret West; Norman Platt; Weaver Sheffield; Francis Medford; Howard Stamey; Charles Osborne; Irigula Welch; Lucy Platt; Arthur Justice; James Sheffield; Nannie Hargrove.

The honor roll at Bethel consists of those pupils who do not fall below a "B" in any subject. This roll for the second month is as follows: Mary E. Maylock, Clara Brown, Ava Chambers, Avis Hanson, Rebecca Parker, Audrey Moore Sherrill, Edith Wells, Billy Cogdill, D. J. Edwards, Mark Russell, Max Burnett, Evelyn Cathey, Ethel Lightower, Sue Kelly, Irene Russell, Frances West, Frances Wells, Bradwin Hargrove, Robert Justice, Bertha Cabe, Joy Mae Osborne, Irene West, Catherine Justice, Mary Hyatt, Willa Mae Bright, Fulton Burnett, Lenoir York, Mildred Hargrove, Cathem Henson, Mary Jane Michael, Myrtle Murry, Eula Lee West, Robert Welch, Marie Powell, Harold McLaughlin, Charles Osborne, Lois Aldrich, Bonnie Kuykendall, Audrey Pressley, Winifred Rigdon, Edith Stamey, Laiter Culbertson, Francis Medford, Mabel Wilson, Joseph Francis, Fannie Francis, Deanie Frazier, Laura Chambers, Mary Clark, Ralph Evans, Mary Gregg, Judson Mease, Lucy Platt, Wandros Pipes, Margaret West, William Wilson.

As part of the health program of the school the teachers are keeping weight records of each pupil in the school, the pupil being weighed at the end of each month. The net gain in weight by all pupils in the school for the second month is 544 pounds.

WORK OF PUTTING ROCK ON HIGHWAY 107 NEARLY FINISHED

Work of placing crushed rock on the 11-mile stretch of Highway No. 107, from a point south of Smoke-mountain to Newfound Gap, on the North Carolina-Tennessee State line in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park area, is expected to be completed by November 20 or December 1, at the latest.

SAYS ROOSEVELT MAJORITY IN N. C. WILL BE 25,000

"Roosevelt will carry the State by 25,000 votes and Bob Reynolds's majority will be 5,000 more than that of any other state candidate, in the largest vote ever polled in North Carolina," said D. F. Giles, former candidate for lieutenant-governor in Marion recently, upon his return from an extensive tour of the tenth and eleventh congressional districts.

many times. However, in the second half some of the players began to show the punishment of their heavier opponents. In the third quarter a beautiful pass soared over the head of Reeves into the waiting hands of a tall opponent. This resulted in one touchdown. A few minutes later Bryson, an Asheville back, who is heavier than any player on the Waynesville team, ran off his right guard for the final touchdown of the game. Point was nicked and the damage was done.

Waynesville had been defeated by one of the best teams Asheville has ever produced. The Asheville sport writers give Weatherly credit for presenting the best coached team on the field. I believe we have one of the best coached teams in the state. We certainly have one of the best teams provided they keep in proper training and continue to improve until the season has ended.

Dewey Patton Stars For Mountaineers

The entire team played wonderful ball. Nevertheless the end playing of Dewey Patton was easily the outstanding feature in Waynesville's defeat. He played the greatest end game that has ever been played for Waynesville high school. Patton, I believe, was the best football player on the field Friday. The fast stepping backs on both sides, with the possible exception of Bryson of Asheville, must step aside and give credit to Patton. If his play continues to improve as it should, I cannot see how he can fail to make All-State unless he fails to get the proper publicity. This well built athlete was only down with Asheville's interference, and time and again he would slip by the interference to get the ball carrier. Asheville lost ground on his end of the line.

Not only did the defensive work of Patton steal the show from the ball carriers, but the two Davis boys saw that no ground was gained around right end. Jim Davis the blocking back was the best Waynesville offered in the backfield. He got his man and also carried the ball for many gains. Asheville lost many yards on their end runs. They could not get around Patton and Davis. And for real football, Waynesville possesses the best team in its history.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

TILLET VS. TILLET

Editor of Mountaineer.

"I see by the pa-a-pers" as Mr. Dooley was wont to say, that the family of the late Teddy Roosevelt, wilson president of the United States are angered that our Democratic candidate is running for president under the name of Roosevelt; and they appear to think that he has no right to run for high office under that alluring name. They haven't suggested a remedy, but I assume that they either wish Franklin to withdraw as a candidate or to change his name pro hac vice (as the lawyers say) and campaign under the name of Franklin Delano Smith or name of Franklin Delano Brown.

Now, strange to say, I sympathize with the family of Teddy, him of the Big Stick. If you ask me "wherefore" I'll tell you. I have been before the public here in North Carolina for nine or ten to fifty years, assuming the role of supporter and defender of every Democratic candidate since I carried Richmond County democratic for the first time in its history in 1884 when we elected Grover Cleveland president. I have ever since been a pestiferous democratic publicist ever advocating Al Smith in the columns of every newspaper in the State that would publish my "stuff." By my writings as well as by political speeches too numerous to mention, I thought I had made the name of Tillet a synonym of the purest form of Jeffersonian Democracy, in the State of North Carolina, at least.

Now, comes upon the scene one Boone Tillet who is closer kin to Daniel Boone than he is to me; that is to say, he is my cousin fifty-one degrees removed, or in other words, my "forty-leventh" cousin. Every-where I turn in North Carolina people are asking me the question: "What kin to you is this candidate for lieutenant-governor on the Republican ticket?" You can see how annoying that is to an "old-war horse of democracy" as I call myself.

Soon after he was nominated, the aforesaid Boone stated to a reporter in Charlotte that both he and Frazier, their candidate for governor, were both in favor of a substantial modification of the Turlington Act, and when the bone-dry Republicans forthwith jumped on him with both feet. At first he hesitated, then affirmed like a Quaker (which I understand he is) that he would stand by what he had said; but when he was informed that if those were his real sentiments he would have to retire as candidate, without delay he adapted his position to the requirements of the occasion. He promptly announced: "Oh, upon reflection I find the reporter in Charlotte got me down wrong; I never said it."

And here comes Hon. Jake F. Newell, clearly seeing that Boone is about to break up his tea-party, and announces in no Sunday School language that Boone must get off the Republican ticket as unworthy of the support of any decent Republican; and later, when the bogie check and consequent extradition warrant came to light, Jake was even more vociferous in his demand, and I understand (though I can't prove it) that Jake used some near cuss-words. Sunday School or no Sunday School. If he did, I hope St. Peter dropped a tear and blotted out his transgression. Well, Jake, strength to your arm! I am with you on this point only; and I hope, and expect, "our Bob" will defeat you by at least 100,000 majority. But I want Boone to come off the ticket or change his name. Let the battle-cry be: "Down

Those present, included: Watson O. Goode, W. C. Allen, P. V. Massey, J. M. Mock, R. T. Messer, W. A. Hyatt, C. C. Hanson, B. D. Bunn, Ernest L. Withers, T. L. Green, F. F. David J. Kerr, A. J. Hutchins, Perry L. Cogburn, P. C. Hicks, J. M. Haynes, R. N. Pressley, H. Arthur Osborne, Clyde, George C. Haynes, F. O. Dryman, J. M. Haynes.

Since the first mention of the need of a welfare officer in this paper, scores of people have expressed their opinion on the matter and the sentiment for such an officer has grown daily.

During the past week the Booster's Club at Hazelwood went on record favoring such an officer, and also the Rotary Club. Several of the civic organizations of the women also voted resolutions for such a worker, and at least one or more missionary society of the ladies made similar resolutions.

Mention has been made from pulpits and privately by the ministers of the city, for the need of such a worker. Many letters have been written and numerous phone calls have resulted since the project was put under way.

with a Republican ticket that bears the name of a Tillet;" and if he persists in running, let's "lick the stuff" out'n him."

In conclusion, if Boone doesn't resign then "aufwiedersehn," which sign then "aufwiedersehn," which again."
