CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

The fourteenth annual Book Week will be observed this year November 13th to 19th.

The Juvenile Department of the Waynesville Library contains many old favorites and standard works.

Owing to lack of funds, however, the board of directors of the local library has been unable to replace many of the books all children love and read.

In observance of Children's Book Week a program will be presented one morning during the coming week in the auditorium of the high school.

Any contributions of money or books to the Waynesville Library during this week will be greatly appreciated by the young readers of the town, as well as the board of directors of the Waynesville Library.

COMMUNITY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The regular November meeting of the Community Club was held on Monday afternoon in the club rooms with Mrs. Ben Colkitt, the president, presiding.

The meeting was opened with the song and the assembly reading of the club collect. During the business session interesting reports were given by the various chairmen of the departments and the officers.

It was decided also to give the annual tea to the teachers of the township schools. The time and details of the affair will be left in the hands of the entertainment committee of which Mrs. R. L. Prevoist is chairman.

Mrs. Rufus Siler, member of the conservation department, introduced in a pleasing manner the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. U. G. Speed, national chairman of North Carolina.

After adjournment a social hour followed, with tea, cakes and sandwiches served by the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. J. Howell Way, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. R. L. Prevoist, and Mrs. J. R. Latham.

MISS COIN HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Anna Katherine Coin was most delightfully honored on last Friday evening when her mother, Mrs. R. L. Coin, entertained a number of her classmates at a supper in celebration of the thirteenth anniversary of her birthday.

Chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used in decoration of the home and the table was attractively arranged with Halloween suggestions.

Covers were laid for the honoree, and Miss Emily Siler, Miss Sara Welch, Miss Jane White, Miss Thomasine Stringfield, Miss Haseltine Swift, Miss Hazel Massie, and Miss Martha Way.

Miss Elizabeth Norman returned to her home in Griffin, Georgia Sunday after a week's visit to Miss Mary Barber. She was accompanied by Miss who will be her guest for several days.

DIMINISHING PARTIES ARE DELIGHTFUL AND BENEFICIAL EVENTS

The diminishing party given by Mrs. J. F. Abel last week at her home on Love Lane proved to be a delightful affair.

The home was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves. Bridge was played at two tables and at the conclusion of the game a salad course was served.

Mrs. Abel's guests were: Mrs. Cameron Lewis, of Charleston, West Virginia, Mrs. Andrew Moore, Mrs. H. H. Mitchell, Mrs. Hilliard Atkins, Mrs. Lauriston Hardin, Mrs. J. L. Stringfield, Mrs. Bess Lee Page, and Miss Lena Altstaetter.

In continuance of the series Mrs. Andrew Moore entertained a group at a theatre party on Wednesday afternoon. The party motored to Asheville to see "Grand Hotel."

Mrs. R. H. Mitchell gave her party on Thursday evening when she entertained a dinner at her home on Love Lane.

A profusion of autumn leaves and flowers decorated the home. The dining table was centered with a silver bowl of yellow chrysanthemums.

Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. John Harring, Mrs. Andrew Moore, Mrs. H. Phelan, Mrs. Bess Lee Page, Miss Mary C. McNamara, and Mr. L. L. Council.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Betty Lane Quinlan entertained at one table of bridge at her home in the Kirkpatrick Apartments. Those playing were: Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Miss Lois Briggs, Miss Nancy Crockett, and Miss Charlotte Hatcher.

MISS BARBER HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Honoring her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Norman, of Griffin, Georgia, Miss Mary Barber entertained with six tables of bridge at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Barber, on Thursday evening.

The handsome Barber residence was thrown en suite for the occasion and a color effect of gold and white was carried out in the flowers and other party details.

Among those enjoying the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Smith, of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ward, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Miss Mary Stringfield, Miss Virginia Welch, Miss Eleanor Bushnell, Miss Mary Quinlan, Mrs. Caroline Ashton Hyatt, Miss Wilda Crawford, Miss Virginia Carter, and Mr. Richard Barber, Jr., Mr. Ben Sloan, Mr. Whitener Prevost, Mr. David Felmet, Mr. Jimmy Neal, Mr. E. L. Hinton, Mr. Fred Ferguson, Mr. Aaron Prevost, and Mr. Ralph Prevost.

MEN'S SUPPER AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

On last Thursday evening a delightful supper was served to the men of the Presbyterian church in the Sunday School room. This was the first of a series of such events which will take place during the winter.

The tables were placed in U-shape and artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The dinner was served by Circle No. 1 of which Mrs. R. L. Prevoist is chairman.

An interesting feature of the program was the talk by Rev. O. C. Landrum of Hazelwood on the "Progressive Program of Men's Work in the Presbyterian Church." Following this Mr. R. L. Prevoist discussed the program in its application to the local church and Mr. Ralph Prevost spoke briefly on the program of work for the young men.

On last Friday evening the faculty of all the township schools, the township school board, the county school board, and the officers of all P. T. A. organizations with their wives and husbands were guests at a dinner sponsored by the Home Economics Department of the Waynesville High School.

The dinner was served in the clothing laboratory and adjoining halls at the high school building and was prepared and served by fifteen girls from the second year Home Economics class under the supervision of Miss Louise Edwards.

An artistic arrangement of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves formed a colorful background and vases of chrysanthemums graced the tables. About seventy guests were present.

Mrs. H. Phelan, of Memphis, Tennessee, who is a member of the summer colony in Waynesville, is spending the month of November with Mrs. R. H. Mitchell at "Hillcrest." Mrs. Phelan has many friends among the Waynesville residents.

Mrs. Charles Bartlett and sister, Mrs. Eddleman, of Grenada, Mississippi, are visiting their niece, Mrs. Elizabeth Meredith. They are guests at "Hillcrest" while in the city.

Mrs. C. D. Welch and family spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Welch, who make their home at "Hillcrest."

VOCATIONAL STUDENTS HONORED AT PARTY

The boys of the Vocational Department of the Waynesville Township High School were delightfully entertained on last Saturday evening by the girls of the second year Home Economics Department.

The entertainment was in the form of a Halloween party which was given in the rooms of the Home Economics Department. Orange and black crepe paper covered the lights and windows and lighted jack-o-lantern gave the desired spooky effect.

Members of the faculty who were present were: Mr. W. D. Smith, head of the Vocational Department, and Mrs. Smith, Miss Louise Edwards, head of the Home Economics Department, Miss Bernice McElhannon, and Mr. B. D. Bunn.

Welfare Officer Is Employed In County

(Continued from page 1) will devote most of his time to making records for the report that must reach Raleigh by November 15th in order that Haywood county will receive a $5,000 donation for welfare work from January to April. Cases will be investigated, and as near as possible, a correct summary of the existing situation will be recorded," Mr. Henry said.

The fact was stressed that the citizens of the county are urged not to give beggars anything without first consulting the welfare headquarters. "If the citizens of the county have anything to donate, give it to the officer or if they prefer to give it to the needy themselves, please, under all circumstances, notify the office so that that family may be charged with that donation and not receive more than they deserve," Mr. Henry said.

Such donations as cash, clothing and food will be handled by the officer, who for the time being will have his office in the same office of Mr. Henry's, and will use his phone, number 119. "One thing is important," said Mr. Henry, "the public must not give out donations promiscuously. Consult the welfare officer first."

Mr. Ferguson, son R. M. Ferguson, is well known in Waynesville, having graduated from high school here, being president of the student body and a star football player. He graduated from the University of North Carolina several years ago. He knows the county, and many people of the county, it is said, and that will enable him to carry on the work in a most efficient manner.

Mr. Henry stated that the commissioners "did not act" on the matter, and since he was approached by the citizens of the county, he said he abided by the law which reads as follows:

—where, the county commissioners do not desire to so participate, the county superintendent of public instruction shall become ex officio county superintendent of public welfare. Whenever by such action a county superintendent of public instruction becomes ex officio county superintendent of public welfare, he shall receive no salary in addition to that received as county superintendent of schools, but the board of education, by and with the approval of the board of commissioners, shall furnish him such clerical or other assistance as it deems necessary—C. S. 5017—powers and duties—to have, under control of commissioners, the care and supervision of the poor, and to administer the poor funds."

The appointment of a welfare worker for this county brings to a close a matter that has been of utmost concern to the majority of people in the county for the past 6 weeks. A mass meeting called by Rev. H. W. Baucom, president of the ministerial association, Homer Henry, superintendent of schools of the county, and W. C. Allen, chairman of the Red Cross of this county, of the leading business and civic leaders in the county 4 weeks ago, passed a resolution asking the commissioners to employ such a worker. The commissioners did not act on the matter during the absence of W. H. Henderson, who was confined at his home for some weeks with pneumonia. According to Mr. Henry, they "did not act Monday."

Tribute Is Paid To Washington

Trees Are Planted At Excercises Held At Courthouse

Five civic organizations of women, the D. A. R., the Women's club, the Community club, the Civic League, and the American Legion auxiliary, joined in a memorial service Monday afternoon, commemorating the bicentennial of George Washington by each planting a tree on the lawn of the courthouse here. An interesting program was rendered.

Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, as regent of the Dorcas Bell Love chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was in charge of the exercises. After stating the purpose of the gathering, she called upon the Rev. Albert New, rector of the Waynesville Episcopal church to deliver the invocation. The flag was then saluted by the five organizations.

Mayor J. H. Howell delivered the address eulogizing Washington as a lover of trees and of nature. Mrs. U. G. Speed, of Baltimore Forest, a member of the National Committee of Conservation, made the speech of dedication. Then followed the planting of trees. The Rev. H. W. Baucom, pastor of the First Baptist church, pronounced the benediction.

Music was rendered by a special quintet of boys with their director, F. M. Pratt, from the Waynesville high school. Several patriotic selections were given.

Robinson, Dorothy Chaney, Marcella Hill, Babel Fowler, Roy McDowell, Judith Sentelle, Lynette Sentelle, Ruth Bryson, Mary Jane Curtis, Bruce Brown, Pauline Downs.

Eight Caldwell farmers have had 38 cows dehorned so far this fall and others who will keep their cows in feed lots or barns are planning to dehorn their animals.
