

Booster's Club Makes Plans To Beautify Town Of Hazelwood

Club Offers Prizes To Sunday School Pupils For Best Attendance Record

Deciding upon a resolution to beautify Hazelwood by co-operating with the welfare department of Haywood county in the distribution of the Federal relief fund in exchange for labor on public improvements by the unemployed and to give appropriate prizes to all members of Sunday Schools in the primary classes, who have been present every Sunday during the present year, the Hazelwood Boosters' club held one of the best sessions of the year at the City Hall.

President Sam Knight called the meeting into session at 6:30 o'clock. After a business session, the program committee, headed by B. D. Bunn, superintendent of the Waynesville township schools, introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. Wade Johnson, newly arrived pastor of the Methodist church.

The program committee for arranging for the next meeting which is set for the second Thursday in January is composed of W. Thomas Reeves, chairman, T. L. Blalock and James L. Robinson.

It is expected that the program of beautification of the town of Hazelwood by utilizing the work of the unemployed men of the town through the Federal relief fund will go forward in a short time.

A commercial traveler, calling upon a new customer, produced by mistake a snapshot of his fiancée instead of his business card.

"That's the firm I represent," he said.

The customer examined the somewhat determined-looking features of the young woman and returned the photograph with the remark: "I'm afraid you'll never be manager of that firm."

22 Make Grade Honor Roll At School Here

(By Supt. B. D. BUNN)

We are very interested in the causes of many of our school problems. In most cases when the cause for deficiency is located a remedy can be applied. A few days ago we asked for a report of all students failing on two or more subjects during the first three months. There were 49 names handed in. More than 20 of this number had failed on all subjects.

We then asked for an honor roll of all students in high school who have averaged 90 or more on each subject. This is called the high ten of the school. It is tragic to find this group smaller than the group of failures. Probably the names of the lower quartile should be given along with the honor roll. But we are withholding them at this time.

At the close of mid-term we expect to publish the A. and B. honor roll. The A. honor roll consists of all those making a grade of 90 on all subjects. Students can make a grade or two in the 80's and then get on the B. honor roll.

The A. honor roll follows:
Mary Willie Rotha, Martha Way, Mildred Arrington, Patricia Brandt, Hunter Henry, Abye Fay Henry, Lucy Farmer, Mary Medford, Anne Peck, Anna Katherine Palmer, Norine Lowe, Robert Sloan, Wilma Hoyle, Elizabeth Ray, Alice Stringfield, Sam Carswell, Margie Campbell, David Matthews, Dean Medford, Jean Morrison, John West, Thomasine Stringfield.

Take no chances on the winter being mild. We may have a severe winter. Fertilized wheat develops strong root growth which saves the plants from winter killing.

From an average of 156 birds during the past poultry year, Lee Drum of Catawba County secured an income of $207.43 above feed cost.

Over 18,000 bushels of sweet potatoes are stored in the curing house at Cherryville, Gaston County. All of the potatoes are in crates.

Lee Davis Elected President Of Duke Alumni At Banquet

Freddie Crawford Will Be Tendered Welcome Upon His Arrival Home.

Lee Davis, of Waynesville, was elected president of the Haywood county alumni association of Duke University at the annual banquet and business meeting of the group at the Hotel LeFaine here Monday night.

Other officers elected were: Harmon Moore, of Canton, vice president; Mrs. L. J. Blackwell, of Canton, treasurer; and Miss Mary Mock, of Waynesville, secretary.

Retiring Officers
Retiring officers are: C. E. Weatherby, of Waynesville, president; Dr. A. P. Cline, of Canton, first vice president; Miss Jane Tucker, of Waynesville, second vice president; and Hugh Noland, of Waynesville, secretary-treasurer.

The banquet was held in observance of the eighth anniversary of the signing by the late James B. Duke of the endowment trust that made possible Duke University.

Coach C. E. Weatherby, retiring president of the association, presided at the banquet. The principal speaker was Coach Alex Waite, of Duke University, who said that the duties of the Haywood county alumni of Duke University are to explain to the people of Haywood county the principles for which Duke University stands.

Duke University, he said, contrary to the belief of some, is not catering to the rich. The prices at the university, he said, are lower than in many other institutions of the same grade. The university, Mr. Waite pointed out, is seeking students fit for higher learning. As an example of this he stated that from 1,200 applications for admission to the freshman class only 600 were accepted.

The speaker also urged the Haywood county alumni to keep in touch with the alumni office at the university.

Honor guests at the banquet were: Frank Miller, of Waynesville, a member of the football team of 1933 which defeated the University of North Carolina; Dr. Thomas Stringfield, a member of the football team which was champion of the South; Coach J. P. Leeper, of the Asheville high school and president of the Duke University alumni association of Buncombe county, who paid tribute to the sportsmanship of the Waynesville high school football team, and also stated that the Waynesville team was one of the best co-ordinated aggregations that the Asheville high school had played against this season; and Mrs. W. T. Crawford, of Waynesville, mother of Fred Crawford, a junior at Duke University, who by reason of his stellar football playing this season, made the all-Southern team and the second team of the all-American.

Decision was reached by the Haywood alumni to give Fred Crawford a big welcome when he arrives home for the Christmas holidays. A committee, composed of Frank Ferguson, chairman, Dr. Thomas Stringfield, and W. Thomas Reeves was appointed to make arrangements.

Stewards Of Junaluska Church Outline Plans For Coming Year's Work

Eighteen members of the junior and senior board of stewards met at the Junaluska Methodist church for a social and the first business meeting of the new fiscal year. Plans for the coming year were discussed and an outline of the year's work mapped out. Plans for meeting financial obligations were also taken into consideration.

Supper was served by the pastor, Rev. F. O. Dryman and his wife in the dining room of the church.

Rev. L. B. Hayes Will Hold Quarterly Conferences In County Next Sunday

Rev. L. B. Hayes, presiding elder of the Waynesville district, will hold the quarterly conference next Sunday, December 18, at Pinegrove Church, Fines Creek, at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Hayes will also conduct quarterly conferences on the same day at Davis Chapel on the Haywood Circuit, at 3 o'clock and at the Methodist church, Canton, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Hayes will deliver the sermon at each place and a large congregation is expected to his messages.

Brother Of Mrs. W. A. Hyatt Dies Recently

Was Well Known In This County. Died As Result Of Pneumonia At Hayesville

News of the death of Walter McIntosh, eldest brother of Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, was received with deep regret by friends here.

Mr. McIntosh died at his home in Hayesville last Tuesday week as a result of pneumonia. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon.

The deceased was born in Greenville, S. C., and spent his childhood here. He had many friends in Waynesville and Haywood county and was loved by all who knew him.

He served in the Spanish-American War and was an interpreter for General Fitzhugh Lee's staff. After leaving the war he and his family moved to Florida where he was a prominent horticulturist. Last summer he and his family moved to Hayesville where he devoted his time to farming.

Mr. McIntosh was an expert linguist.

Mr. McIntosh married Miss Casanova, of Havana, Cuba. She died in 1920. He later married Miss Marie Menburo, also of Havana, by whom he is survived. He also leaves three small children, Caroline, Donald, and Walter.
