Merry Christmas

Many of us are getting old, but there are lots of little girls and boys that know there is a Santa Claus. There are many Wives, Sweethearts, Mothers and Fathers, and while we say times are hard, and I know they are, it is up to us to carry on and do the best we can.

I can't imagine any Mother or Father going to bed Christmas Eve and not putting something in or by their little one's stocking.

I said before, we all think times are hard, but can't we sacrifice something besides the joy we bring the little ones Christmas morning? Remember them with the best you can afford. Then how about Father and Mother? Just almost anything in the Christmas Spirit will bring joy to their hearts.

Then boys, you are not worth a darn if you don't make THE GIRL happy with a memento of the "Happy Day."

In our town, the merchants are doing their best to help you.

My business is to sell HARDWARE, and I believe because of the "hard times" that you can, to a great advantage, find lots of things that will make your Mother, Father, Sweetheart, Wife, Children and other relatives happy on Christmas and the days to follow. We list some of them.

Wagons
Footballs
Tricycles
Kiddy Cars

Base Balls
Air Rifles
Scout Knives
Pocket Knives

Clocks
Watches
Flash Lights
Baseball Gloves

Silverware
Percolators
Electric Irons
Curling Irons

The above items and many other useful things that I cannot list because this advertisement costs money and I want some left to use in practicing what I am preaching.

I send you and all yours best hopes and wishes for a Merry Christmas.
