52 Times During 1933 You May Travel The Path of Leisure and Economy - - - - -

IN EVERY HOME there stands a clothes hamper.
And into it goes hours of labor, backaches, frazzled nerves —the weekly washing. But this hamper needn't hamper YOU. Let us show you the lane that leads to leisure and economy, through our modern and economical service.

Invest your washday in serving as a comrade to husband and children. It will bring far greater dividends than hours wasted at a washtub. Just as you have made an art of homemaking, we have made a BUSINESS of washday.

Hundreds of women in this community use our service every week. Many of them, doubtless, are your neighbors. They know the joy of worry-free washdays —and they know, too, that our way safeguards HEALTH as well as CLOTHES.

Mrs. Ed Bright, owner of Bright's farm and operators of the boarding house there, announced this week that she had leased from G. L. Blankenship the New Carolina Cafe on Main street here and will operate the new business under her supervision, specializing in home cooking and using produce grown on her farm near here.

In the near future Mrs. Bright plans to make some changes in the interior of the cafe, it was stated.
One of the features of the cafe is the home cooking and much stress is being made on the breads that are being served. Each day the menu is changed.

Mrs. Bright has been in the boarding house business for over 25 years, she said.

been working hard for the past several days in preparation for the today's game to be played here Friday night at 7:30 with the Hendersonville eagles.

The Mountaineers after losing their opening game to the fast Candler team expect to show better team work and marksmanship when they meet the invaders from Hendersonville.

It is likely that there will be a change in both boys' and girls' line-up in order to make a smooth attack on the offense.

Admission price including both games will be 25 cents.

Some Facts Gathered For 1933's Calendar

There Will Be Two Friday's The Thirteenth, And Four Months With Five Pay Days.

For those who are forward looking, it may be interesting to have provided some definite information about the new year as gleaned from the calendars—a sort of program of coming events.

To those who are inclined to be superstitious there may be some cause for concern on two widely separated days in the year 1933, for there will be that many Fridays that fall on the 13th days, one in January and the other in October.

And for those who feel that by glancing at a new moon for the first time over the right shoulder, when their glances are cast along with a wish, means luck and more of it, there will, of course, be 12 new moons. These are scheduled to make their appearances January 25, February 24, March 25, April 24, May 24, June 22, July 22, August 21, September 19, October 19, November 17, and December 16.

February 12—Lincoln's birth-day—falls on Sunday, and Washington's birth-day, February 22, will be on a Wednesday. On March 4, a Saturday, the nation will witness the advent of a new president—Franklin D. Roosevelt, on that date replaces Herbert Hoover at the helm of national affairs.

From then on until May 1, there perhaps will be no events to demand such widespread notice—All Fool's Day is on Saturday.

April, July, September and December each will have five pay days—if any—and, provided of course you are paid on Saturdays. Then, Easter Sunday will be April 16. Independence Day will be on Tuesday, July 4; Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11, while Thanksgiving Day comes on Thursday, November 30, the last day of the month, and Christmas Day, Monday, December 25, another chance for a two-day vacation, counting the Sunday before.
