

QUACKS

By I. E. A. QUACKER

... saw two ... a wonder ... you made to get ...

... a natural ... field just below the Shack ...

... a good lecture in history is delivered ...

... Briefs: Strolling down the main ...

IT HAPPENS 'ONCE IN A BLUE MOON'

A Three-Act Comedy Drama to Be Staged in the High School Auditorium

Start, Dear Snop ... Wayneville is going to have ...

... a most delightful Pierrette with ...

... a sign of ... what an ugly place ...

... After going to Fines Creek via Ben ...

instead of one. We wonder what he is looking for. The funny part of the story is the fact that he finds it.

... Mrs. Fred Martin disguised as a pretty Gypsy will have the time of her life ...

... Many of the local business men have received invitations to be guests ...

... The whole production will be very pleasing and enjoyable ...

Slick Tougued Salesman Makes $150 Saturday

(Continued from page 4) ... After the 25 empty boxes and one box ...

When one investor realized that he had been led into such foolish investing ...

... The Pied Piper saw that fire was beginning to show in the eyes of some ...

... Immediately after the "king" had departed from the scene ...

... Tired Business Men ... E. L. Hinton ...

Once In a Blue Moon

Sponsored by Rotary Club. Directed by Southern Arts Studio. 150 Prominent Local People In Characters 150

- Masqueraders: Mahatma Gandhi, Vamp of Waynesville, Paul Revere, Baby Face, Will Rogers, Gypsy, Charlie Chaplin, Prince of Wales, Beauty Winner, Flaming Youth, Paul Whiteman, Gold Digger, Major Hoople, Chesterfield Girl, Jack and Jill, Dancing Girl, Life Guard, Bathing Beauty, Football Star, Tennis Star, Judge, Bride (blushing), Bridegroom.

- Musical Numbers: Old Songs, Once In a Blue Moon, Moonlight and Roses, Masquerade, Betty Co-Ed, I'm Keeping Company, Finale.

- Girls' Chorus: Mary Glee Ferguson, Virginia Campbell, Edith Long, Louisa Thackston, Loretta Threlkeld, Hattie S. Freeman, Ruth Ratcliff, Gertrude Plott, Lucy Farmer, Gladys Dicus.

TRAIN TRAVEL BARGAIN FARES TO WASHINGTON, D. C. ROUND TRIP Saturday, January 28th. From Asheville, N. C. $6.00. Black Mountain, N. C. 6.00. Old Fort, N. C. 6.00. Tickets sold for all trains January 28th. good returning leave Washington, January 30th.

Murder Mystery of the Paris Grand Opera House—Explained by Aston-Wolfe of the French Detective Police in 'The American Weekly', the Magazine Distributed With Next Sunday's BALTIMORE AMERICAN. Buy it from a Local Representative.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TONIGHT, Thursday, Jan. 26th. ADULTS 10c CHILDREN 25c CURTAIN 8:15

FINNEY OF THE FORCE By Ted O'Loughlin. A comic strip featuring a detective and a dog. Dialogue includes: 'TOP O' TH' MORNIN' TO YEZ, MRS. SNOOP! DO YE STILL HAVE THAT CUR WHICH YEZ GOT LAST WEEK?' and 'I'LL HAVE YOU KNOW THAT DOGS ARE VERY NOBLE ANIMALS—WHY, EVEN IN THE BEAUTIFUL WORLD OF BOTANY, CANINES HAVE LENT THEIR NAMES TO GROWING THINGS!!'