MISS BETTY BURGIN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Betty Burgin was most delightfully honored on last Saturday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Charles Burgin, entertained a number of her little friends in celebration of the tenth anniversary of her birthday.

Various games and contests furnished amusement for the guests. Contest winners were little Miss Sara Jo Goodlin, who received a doll and little Betty Burgin who received a toy dog.

Baskets of other apple blossoms were effectively used as decoration of the home and a most delightful and happy party was held on every detail of the party.

At the conclusion of the game, each guest was given a glass of pink lemonade and invited into the dining room to share a dainty ice cream treat with the birthday cake.

Mr. Burgin was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Ruby Davis, Miss Mary Frances and Miss Abbie Fay Henry.

Patrons included Helen McConkey, Nora Alice Walker, Doris Peck, Olga Matting, Junior and Baby Brown, Edwin Burgin, Ruth, and Miss Ruthie, Richard and Betty, and Miss Thelma, Lois Johnson, and Miss Haywood, Phyllis, and Miss Betty. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Burgin and Miss Ruby Davis.

APPROXIMATELY 1000 MEN ATTEND MEETING

Approximately 1000 men and boys of the city attended the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Council held at the court house last Monday evening.

Mr. B. D. Bunn, president of the council, presided.

Yearly reports were given at this time from the Parent-Teacher Association of Central Elementary, East Waynesville, Junaluska, Hazelwood, and Allen Creek School. Mrs. Bunn gave a report of the Council and stated the objective of this organization for the year 1933-34.

Mr. Doye Alky, as a delegate to the state convention in Greensboro, gave a most interesting account of the meeting and brought back new features of the work to be used next year.

The speaker of the evening was Mrs. C. S. Freed of Canton, district president of P. T. A. She spoke of P. T. A. work in general and gave an outline to be followed in making programs both instructive and interesting to the membership.

As the closing number on the program, Supt. B. D. Bunn read the School Machinery Bill before the legislature and asked the Parent-Teacher Association to assist in preventing the school standards being lowered.

MASONS ATTEND GRAND LODGE MEET

A number of Masons from the Waynesville lodge attended the annual meeting of grand officers of grand lodges of York Rite Masons from North Carolina held in Charlotte yesterday. Among them were Dr. J. R. Metracken past grand high priest of the grand chapter; Mr. Lawrence Green past illustrious master of the grand council; Mr. Troy Wiggins, conductor of council in the grand council; and Mr. W. A. Collier past grand master of the grand community of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Blackwell and children of Birmingham, Alabama are spending several days here as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell.

Mr. C. S. Badgett of Richwood, West Virginia, spent Friday in Waynesville on business.

Gov. Ehringhaus Cuts Salary 25%

Governor and Other State Officials Return Part Of Salaries To State

A 25 per cent reduction in his $10,500 annual salary has been taken voluntarily by Gov. J. C. B. Ehringhaus, records in the state auditor's office revealed.

This came to light following a memorandum from the budget bureau which notified state officers whose salaries are fixed by statute they may refund any voluntary cut to the state.

A number of state officers followed the governor who in April returned $218.75 of his monthly pay of $875. State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson, it was learned, is taking a 25 per cent reduction in his $4,500 yearly pay.

Commissioner of Labor, A. L. Fletcher, has taken a voluntary 25 per cent cut, and Dr. A. T. Allen, State superintendent of public instruction, is refunding 15 per cent a month of his $5,000 a year salary.

Supreme Court justices and superior judges have agreed to reductions representing $1,000 a year in their salaries.

Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt refunded $81.65 of his salary in January, nothing in February. $92.75

Sale Of Marriage Licenses Increases

12 Have Been Sold Since April First. Seven During Past Few Days

Edwin Haynes, register of deeds, reported yesterday that the sale of marriage licenses was on the increase. During the past few days seven licenses have been issued. Most all of them were to Haywood residents, the records showed.

No change from the old price of $5 has been made pending official notice from Raleigh, Mr. Haynes said. If a change is made, a refund will be made.

The records showed the following licenses had been granted since April first:

April 1, 1933. W. L. Coleman, Clyde Route 1, and Mary Robinson, Clyde Route 1. Marshall W. Hannah, and Lucy Curtis, Haywood County. Carl Stacy and Eva Gaddy, Haywood County.

April 21, 1933. George W. Wiley, Canton Route 2 and Thomas A. Smith, Canton Route 1. Alice Smith.

P. L. M. Smith and Nannie N. Smith, both of Canton.

May 11. Deane Prosser, and Veldie Sheppard, both of Canton Route 2. James William Ledford, and Gertrude Whittaker, both of Canton.

May 8th. Raymond Dorkey and Annie Conard, both of Maggie. Carl Palmer and Lillie Haney, both of Clyde.

LAW DEFINES DEAD MAN

SALEM, Ore.—A man isn't dead until he's been missing seven years and then he is adjudged dead from the first day of those seven years, a "freak" law passed by the Oregon Legislature provides.

The doctor was puzzled. "You ought to be getting well by now," he said. "Have you carried out my instructions all right?"

"Well, doctor," said the patient, "I've done most of them, but I can't take that two-mile walk every morning as you ordered. I get too dizzy."

"Who do you mean 'dizzy'?" asked the doctor.

"Well, sir," said the patient, "I must have forgotten to tell you. I'm a lighthouse keeper."

in March, and nothing in April. He got $7,500 yearly.

Constitutional officers' salaries can not be reduced by legislative act and any pay cuts they have taken have been voluntary. All other state employees have had their salaries reduced by 25 per cent for the current quarter, the last of the fiscal year. They also have had two previous salary slashes.
