DINNER IS GIVEN AT METHODIST CHURCH

An interesting event last week was the dinner given by the Young Men's Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School...

Mr. Bill Bradley, president of the men's class, acted as toastmaster and welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Wilford Ray, who was in charge of the program presented a group of colored musicians in a number of selections which were of unusual interest and thoroughly enjoyed.

The program follows: Solo, "Jesus Loves Me," by Pauline Prayter.

Solo, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" by Essie Childs.

Solo, "Please," by James Gibbs.

Reading, "Speak Up Ike," by Magdalene Gibbs.

Solo, "Just A Little Street," by Aliceene Chapman.

Male Quintette, "This Train."

Solo, "Darkness On the Delta," by Lucille Gray.

Group of Spirituals, Male Quartette. Chorus, "Just An Edho."

Following the program Rev. L. B. Hayes spoke briefly of the benefit derived from these social meetings to the church.

Other short talks were made by Rev. Wade Johnson, pastor of the men's class; Mrs. Johnson, teacher of the women's class; Mrs. W. T. Spurlock, president of the women's class; Mr. Hugh Massie, superintendent of the adult department; and Mr. Hugh Sloan, superintendent of the Sunday School.

Miss Margaret Hyatt in behalf of the women's class thanked the men for the delightful occasion.

The dinner marked the close of a contest for new members between the two classes in which the losers entertained the winners.

Approximately eighty members of the two classes were present.
