

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Eleanor Bushnell, Editor

Phone 137

Local Items

MRS. WELCH OBSERVES 57TH BIRTHDAY
Mrs. Welch observed her 57th birthday anniversary...

Mrs. Welch is one of the oldest residents of Waynesville and is the widow of the late Lucius Marcellus Welch...

MAJOR MARTIN VISITS PARENTS
Major John B. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Martin, with Mrs. Martin and four sons, visited his parents a few days this week.

Major Martin, who for the past three years has been National Guard instructor at Concord, N. H., has been transferred to Fort Crockett, Galveston, Texas...

Major Martin has been in the service of the war department for 22 years. He graduated from the Waynesville high school in 1909...

Mrs. Martin, who before her marriage was Miss Ethel May Adams of Philadelphia and Atlantic City...

LITTLE MISS FRANCIS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Little Miss Betty Francis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Francis, celebrated her eighth birthday last Thursday afternoon...

Pink and white ponies were effectively used in decorating the home and these colors were also noted in the refreshments served...

Little Miss Francis was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother and Mrs. Sue Willard Linsley. The guests present were: Doris, Ben, and Bobby Colkitt, Carol Louise Bell, Martha Mae and Jane Wyche, Percy Gwyn, Betty Latham, Frances Beak, Betty Mae Withers, Bebe Bedford, Shively Colkitt, Ann Farnley, Theresa Alley, Lois Massie, Jane Francis, Eugenia and Louise Martin, Eloise Martin, and Hubert Burnette.

MRS. B. F. SMATHERS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
An event this week which was charming in every detail was the luncheon given by Mrs. Adora Rayne in honor of her mother, Mrs. B. F. Smathers, in celebration of the seventy-ninth anniversary of her birthday.

The rooms were attractively decorated with pink flowers, with pink and yellow as the dominant color notes. In the dining room, a beautiful arrangement of mixed flowers centered the table. A delightful luncheon was served to the honor and ten of her close friends and each guest received a dainty bag of lavender as a souvenir.

During the afternoon the hours were spent in conversation and singing old songs. Mrs. Rayne was assisted in entertaining by her niece, Mrs. Francis Woods. The luncheon guests included Mrs. Smathers, Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. Tom Lee, Mrs. C. E. Ray, Mrs. J. K. Boone, Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. P. L. Turbyfill, Mrs. D. M. Killian, Mrs. J. H. Way, Mrs. Emma Willis, of Atlanta, and Mrs. R. H. Blackwell. Mrs. B. J. Sloan and Mrs. Harry Rotha joined the group in the afternoon.

The love and affection of a large number of friends and relatives were shown by many beautiful flowers, gifts and messages which were received by Mrs. Smathers during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, who have been occupying the Taylor residence on Haywood street, have moved to Dr. Tom Stringfield's residence where they will spend the summer.

PARTY IS GIVEN AT CAMP DELLWOOD
Mr. Platt Boyd of Boyd and Chance Real Estate Company, Asheville, delightfully entertained the members of his office personnel with a week-end party at Camp Dellwood.

As a special feature of the entertainment a square dance was held Saturday night and a large part of the day Sunday was spent fishing. Approximately fifteen guests from Asheville were present and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Perry, owners of the camp, Miss Fannie Campbell, and Mr. Frank Ferguson, Jr.

MUSIC CLUB HAS LAST MEETING
The Waynesville Music Club met on Saturday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson, who presided. Mrs. Lucile Foy presented an illuminating paper on "Modern Orchestral Music" with various illustrations of the phases under discussion.

Of keen enjoyment to the members was the history of the music club activities in Waynesville, which was given by Mrs. E. B. Camp, in which she told of the various musical organizations, since 1908 when the first music club was organized with Mrs. Hugh Love as president. She stated that all living members of that first club were members of the present club, which was reorganized and federated in 1925.

The hostess was assisted in serving tea and accessories by Mrs. W. W. Norman.

SUPER AT CAMP IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR
Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick were hosts at a most enjoyable affair on last Friday evening when they entertained a number of friends with a supper party at their rustic camp near Crabtree.

Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Reeder, of Miami, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Craft, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Griffin of Havana, Cuba, Mrs. W. T. Blaylock, Mr. A. H. DuBois, of Boston, Mass., and Mr. W. B. Ferguson.

MRS. BLACKWELL WILL BE U. S. HOSTESS
The last meeting for the club year of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held tomorrow afternoon June 2, at the home of Mrs. R. H. Blackwell at 2:30 o'clock.

The paper for the afternoon will be read by Mrs. J. Harden Howell. The subject will be "The Cherokee Nation in Confederacy." Mrs. W. F. Swift will read the President General's letter.

PIANO PUPILS GIVE RECITAL
Mrs. Joseph Johnson presented her piano pupils in their spring recital on last Tuesday afternoon.

The recital was given at Mrs. Johnson's home on Boundary street and was greatly enjoyed by an audience composed of mothers of the young musicians and former music pupils. About thirty-five were present.

For the occasion the home was beautifully arranged with quantities of spring flowers. At the conclusion of the program light refreshments were served and each guest was presented an attractive favor.

The program follows: Daffodil Waltz Rhythmic Orchestra Frederick A. Franklin. Arpeggio Waltz—Op. 39, Caroline H. Crawford—Maud C. Jones. A Lily Pad Boat, Mildred Adair—Carolyn Curtis.

Minuet in G. Beethoven—Jane White. Duet, The Old Clock in the Corner, Fred W. Roth, Maud Jones and Mildred Boineau.

Evening in the Forest, Op. 74—No. 1, Leopold J. Beer—Vera Hosafloek. Helpful Hands, John Williams—Betty Gene Alley.

March of the Wee Folk, Jessie Gaynor—Betty Burgin. Little Sweetheart, H. P. Hopkins—Mary Lee Alley.

Duet, Flying Doves, Carl Heines—Carolyn Curtis, Mrs. Johnson. Hawaiian Nights, Frank H. Grey—Mildred Boineau.

Sylvia—arrangement for piano, from song by Oley Speaks—Jane White. Italian Song—Op. 39—Peter Tschakowsky—Maud C. Jones.

The Bobolink, John M. Williams—Vera Hosafloek. Jolly Jugglers, Carl Wilhelm Kern—Carolyn Curtis.

The Sleepy Kitchen, Ann Scott—Mary Lee Alley. Duet, Festival March from Lowell—Betty Burgin and Mrs. Johnson.

Tea Time Waltz, Martin Auston—Mildred Boineau. Lucy Locket, John M. Williams—Betty Gene Alley.

The Tin Soldiers Parade, P. Valdemar—by Rhythmic Orchestra.

MISS MOCK WILL RECEIVE DEGREE AT DUKE THIS YEAR
Miss Martha Mock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mock, will graduate at Duke University next week with an A. B. degree. The commencement exercises begin June 7.

CONTRACT CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEET
The Contract Club was delightfully entertained on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Carol Bell at their home on Central avenue.

A profusion of lovely spring flowers decorated the home and formed a colorful background for the tables. High score prizes went to Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mr. Frank Bell. A delightful salad course was served at the conclusion of the games.

Those playing were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Keener, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Jones and Little Miss Nancy Jones of Hayesville spent Monday in town.

Mr. C. L. Hill of Crabtree was a Waynesville visitor last Thursday.

Mr. R. T. Boyd of Jonathan spent some time here on business last week.

Mr. Tom Crawford was among the visitors here from Clyde last week.

Mr. John W. Shook of Clyde was a visitor in town last Friday.

Mr. F. W. Messer of Crabtree was here on business last Friday.

Mr. W. E. Sorrells of Canton spent Friday in Waynesville.

Mr. D. J. Kerr of Canton was among the visitors here Friday.

Dr. E. M. Davis of Canton spent Friday in Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rogers of Crabtree were Waynesville visitors Friday.

Mr. Jarvis Palmer of Cataloogee was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. W. H. Anderson of Asheville was here on business Monday.

Clyde Howell, Jr. of Asheville is the guest of his cousin, Ed McGee.

Mr. Ray Coble of Asheville is spending a few days here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

Mr. Ralph Prevost left Sunday for a week's business trip to Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stretcher left Monday for a week's visit in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. J. R. Metracken is leaving today for Hayesville where he will hold a clinic for two days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Knight have as their guest the former's mother, Mrs. Knight, of Winston-Salem.

Miss Louise Rotha and Miss Harriet Boyd were Asheville visitors last Friday.

Miss Joy Whitlow spent last week-end in Asheville as the guest of Miss Anna Lou Rhinehart.

James Dions returned yesterday from Tryon where he spent a week with his cousin, Seth M. Vining, Jr.

Mrs. J. R. Thomas and Mrs. Laurel in Hardin were Asheville visitors Monday.

Mr. Hugh Shelton has returned to Columbus after spending the week-end with his parents.

Mr. Lee Tomlinham of Clyde was among the visitors in town last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bowden Smathers were Waynesville visitors last Thursday.

Among the visitors in town Friday were Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Messer of Crabtree.

Miss Elsie Partin of Hot Springs was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson several days last week.

Mrs. R. H. Mitchell has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Gerald Weston, her home in Marietta, Ga.

Mr. F. T. Peden and Mr. J. H. Kirkpatrick of Canton were here on business last week.

Mrs. M. P. Adams of Asheville is spending several days in Waynesville and is stopping at the Cory House.

Mr. J. W. Dean returned Saturday after a two weeks' visit to his former home in Coatesville, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Graden Ferguson, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. M. H. Bowles, and Misses Eula and Irma Patterson were Asheville visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Horace Keener and little daughter have returned from a visit to relatives in Johnson City, Tennessee.

Mrs. Troy Wyche and children left Monday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brown, at their home in Reidsville.

Mr. Sam Bushnell, Jr. arrived yesterday from the University of North Carolina to spend the summer vacation at home.

Miss Jessie Shive, of Knoxville, Tennessee is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carter, at the Cleveland Apartments.

Miss Fay Gilde arrived last week from Atlanta, Georgia and is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Dions before going to Tryon.

Miss Dora Messer, student at Mt. Hill College, arrived Friday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Messer.

Miss Mary Snyder of Salisbury is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Black, at their home on the Pigeon Road.

Mr. Alfred Moore, of Welford, South Carolina, spent last week-end here visiting Mrs. Andrew Moore at the home of Mrs. R. H. Mitchell.

Mr. James Miller, of St. Louis, spent several days last week at the Hotel LeFaine and visited his cousin, Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick.

Mr. Helen Ray returned last week from Chapel Hill where she had been on a visit to her brother, Mr. Charles Ray, and Mrs. Ray.

Miss Henrietta Bain of Asheville spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Carolina Hyatt, at her home on Main street.

Mrs. W. W. Davis and children returned Tuesday from Menard, Arkansas where they spent two weeks as the guest of relatives.

ANNOUNCEMENT: Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude McCracken, of Crabtree, twins on Tuesday, May 16. Mrs. McCracken was before her marriage, Miss Nora Bell.

Miss Edna and Elizabeth Garrett, students at Greenboro College, arrived Tuesday to spend the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Garrett.

Advertisement for KANTRUN tobacco featuring a portrait of a man and the text: 'THIS IS A GREAT SMOKE! THERE ARE NO TRICKS IN CAMELS—JUST MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS. It's the tobacco that counts!'

KANTRUN Prevents runs, snags, breaks in silk, rayon and chiffon hosiery—or lingerie—One treatment lasts life of article—One trial and you are convinced. Guaranteed—25c—Guaranteed Mail Orders Appreciated W. M. Burton, State Distributor, KANTRUN 17 Haywood Street Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Mrs. W. W. Norman and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr. spent Sunday at Max Patch as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rippetoe.

Miss Louise Stringfield arrived Sunday from Fayetteville. School in Hendersonville to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stringfield.

Miss E. I. Morgan, who is a student at Mar. Hill College, has returned to spend the summer with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan.

Mr. Joe Sloan, who is a student at South Georgia State College, arrived yesterday to spend the summer. Since the close of school Mr. Sloan has spent two weeks traveling in Florida.

DR. O. N. DONNAHOE POCTOLOGIST Specializing in the non-surgical office treatment of rectal disease 504 Public Service Bldg. PHONE 1111 ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Advertisement for Garrett Funeral Home featuring a cartoon character and the text: 'IF YOU MAKE UP YOUR MIND TO DO THE RIGHT THING DON'T LOSE ANY TIME GETTING AT IT! FAIR AND SQUARE. Let's get right down to the point—without wasting any time or money. You want to supply your table with the best foods in the market—you order them here—your wishes are respected—your wants are politely waited upon and we lose no time in getting up your order. J. C. ROSE Home Grocery Choice Groceries Phone 88 Main St.'

Garrett Funeral Home Phone 1-W Main St Waynesville, N. C.

Opening TO-DAY "Belle Meade Playground" Waynesville's Recreational Center Adjoining Country Club Golf Course You'll enjoy the refreshing environment at Belle Meade Playground. Bring the family out and enjoy our recreational facilities... tennis courts... large swimming pool... elaborate tea room serving home cooking... what more could you want? The charges for enjoying the many things at Belle Meade Playground are most reasonable... you can hardly stay at home as cheap... come on out, you'll be welcomed. "MEET YOUR FRIENDS AT BELLE MEADE PLAYGROUND"