GIRL SCOUTS AND MOTHERS
ARE ENTERTAINED

An interesting and most enjoyable affair last week was the Mother and Daughter Banquet given on Friday evening for the Girl Scouts and their mothers. The Community Club, which sponsors the Girl Scout organization, assisted the girls with the entertainment of their mothers and the banquet was held in the Community Club room.

For the occasion the room was bright with a wealth of spring flowers. The guests were seated at one long table which was beautifully arranged with bowls of mixed flowers.

Mrs. W. D. Smith, Captain of the Girl Scouts, was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Ben Colkitt, president of the Community Club, welcomed the guests and Miss Abbie Fay Henry responded for the Girl Scouts and Mrs. J. M. Kelley responded for the mothers.

The main address of the evening was given by Mrs. Jerre Cockett of Asheville, vice commodore of Girl Scout work in this district. Her talk on the organization and progress of Girl Scout work in Asheville was both instructive and entertaining and was followed by a round table discussion.

Other numbers on the program included short talks by the following: Abbie Fay Henry on "First Aid"; Kathryn Martin on "Homemaking"; and Drama Lampkin on "Nature Study." Mrs. H. W. Baucum and Miss Bessie Boyd, members of the Girl Scout executive committee, spoke briefly and Mrs. Joe Limer gave a synopsis of the Girl Scout work here. A solo by Miss Iris Chaffin, accompanied by Miss Hilda Way, were greatly enjoyed.

Approximately fifty guests were present for the delightful affair. Members of the committee from the Community Club who helped the girls prepare the meal and served were: Mrs. Ben Colkitt, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Lillian Grahil, and Mrs. Carol Bell.

BRIDGE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEET

The Monday evening Contract Club members and several other guests were delightfully entertained this week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell.

For the occasion bowls of mixed flowers were arranged in the home. An interesting game of bridge was enjoyed at three tables. Mrs. Roy Campbell and Mr. Horace Keener won the high score prizes. After the games a salad course was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Keener, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Marr, Mrs. William Shoobred, and Mr. Furney Ivey of Asheville.

Miss Martha Neal, who has been visiting one of her classmates at Kingsport, Tennessee, for a week following the close of Salem College where she is a student, will arrive today to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. T. Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Seaver returned Tuesday evening from Winnsboro, South Carolina where they spent a few days as the guests of Mrs. Seaver's sisters, Mrs. W. H. Macfie and Mrs. R. B. Macfie.

MRS. KIRKPATRICK IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

One of the loveliest affairs of the summer season was the luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick at the Hotel LeFaine.

The guests were seated at one large table, beautifully appointed in silver and crystal. A bowl of pink roses graced the center of the table and the delicate shade was further noted in the candles and the place cards which were in the form and color of pink roses.

After the serving of luncheon contract was enjoyed on the balcony of the hotel. Attractive Dresden China baskets with major decorative features of pink roses were given at each table for two scores. These were won by Mrs. D. D. Perry and Mrs. J. W. Seaver. The guests who did not play cards cut for a basket of pink buds. Mrs. J. W. Reed received this attractive gift.

The guests present were: Mrs. J. Harden Howell, Mrs. J. W. Reed, Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. J. W. Seaver, Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, Mrs. Roy Francis, Mrs. R. L. Lee, Mrs. R. L. Allen, Mrs. Angus Craft, Mrs. M. H. Reeves, Miss Roberta Miller, Miss Frances Robeson, and Mrs. Drayton Perry, of Sylva.
