

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

Lesson for June 11 JESUS ON THE CROSS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 15:1-47. GOLDEN TEXT—But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Romans 5:8.

- PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Dying for Us. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Giving His Life. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Accepting the Cross. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Meaning of the Cross.

This is the grand climax of the year's lessons. Without apprehending the significance of the crucifixion of Christ, all the other lessons are meaningless. It is not a matter of learning lessons taught by a great teacher or imitating the example of a great and good man, but apprehending the vicarious atonement made by the world's Redeemer, Christ saves, not by his ethical teaching, but by his shed blood.

I. Jesus Arraigned Before Pilate (vv. 1-15).

They bound Jesus and delivered him to Pilate in the early morning before the mock trial of the high priest. The Jews would gladly have felled him but they lacked the authority to do so. They delivered him to the Gentile governor, thus involving the Jews and Gentiles in this crowning act of human sin. Pilate questioned him without delay. He was accused of pretending to be a king. To this slanderous accusation of the chief priests and elders he made no reply, to the utter astonishment of Pilate, who sought to release him because convinced of his innocence. After several unsuccessful efforts to escape responsibility, he resorted to the expedient of letting the people choose between Barabbas and Jesus.

II. Jesus Crowned With Thorns (vv. 16-20).

After Pilate had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

1. Crown of thorns (vv. 16, 17). Knowing that Jesus had been condemned for claiming to be Israel's King, they clothed him with purple and crowned him with a wreath of thorns. The crown of thorns typified the cross which he bore for man's sins (Genesis 3:17, 18).

2. Their salutation (v. 18). In derision they said, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

3. Their mock worship (vv. 19, 20). They smote him on the head with a reed, taunted him, and went through a process of mock worship.

III. Jesus Crucified (vv. 21-41).

1. They led him away to the place of crucifixion (vv. 21-23). At first they compelled him to bear his own cross, but when physical weakness made this impossible they forced Simon, the Cyrenian, to bear it. Christ's face was so marked by the thorns and cruel blows that there was no form nor comeliness (Isa. 52:2).

2. Gambling for the clothing of the Lord (vv. 24, 25). They gambled for his seamless robe under the very cross upon which Jesus was dying.

3. The superscription (v. 26). It was customary to place over the victim on the cross, his name and a statement of his crime. He was indeed the King of the Jews.

4. Between two thieves (vv. 27, 28). His identification with the two robbers was in fulfillment of the Scripture (Isa. 53:12).

5. The dying Savior reviled (vv. 29-32). They taunted him by bidding him come down from the cross, and said derisively, "He saved others, himself he cannot save." He could not save himself and others, so he chose to die to save others.

6. Darkness upon the land (v. 33). Nature threw around the Son of God a shroud to hide him from the gaze of a godless company.

7. The cry from the cross (vv. 34, 35). When God hid upon his beloved Son the world's sin and turned his face from him, there went out the awful cry of anguish, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

8. He dismissed his spirit (v. 37). When the price of redemption was fully paid, Jesus as sovereign dismissed his spirit.

9. The rent veil (v. 38). This symbolized the giving up of his life (Heb. 10:20).

10. The centurion's confession (v. 39). He said, "Truly this man was the Son of God."

11. The huzzering group of women (vv. 40, 41). Having lovingly ministered to him in life they were now waiting to care for his precious body.

IV. Jesus Buried (vv. 42-47).

Loving hands now took the body and laid it in Joseph's new tomb. This man who did not consent to the foul treatment of the Lord now risks his reputation, and by his action made a bold confession of the Lord.

The Solid Bible

Few books can stand three readings. But the Word of God is solid; it will stand a thousand readings, and the man who has gone over it the most frequently and the most carefully is the surest of finding new wonders there.—Hamilton.

Fire of Holy Spirit

Unless the fire of the Holy Spirit is in our hearts, there will be no burning speech upon our lips.—D. O. Shelton in The Bible Today.

Relieved By Taking Cardui

"I was weak and run-down and suffered quite a bit with pains in my side," writes Mrs. Nick Baranco, of Bonham, Texas. "I was nervous, I did not rest well at night, and my appetite was poor. My mother had used Cardui with beneficial result, so I decided to take it. I surely am glad I did, for it stopped the pain in my side and built up my general health. I took seven bottles in all." Cardui is sold at all drug stores.

Advertisement for NERVES NERVINE. Includes a portrait of a woman and text: "Nerves NERVES NERVINE. Dr. Miles' NERVINE. 'Did the work' says Miss Glivar. WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT?"

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles' Nerve which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights, start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.

At Drug Stores 25c and $1.00.

E. Boggs and runs east with Sensabaugh tract 100 poles to a stake in said line; thence south 80 poles to a stake; thence northwest 130 poles to the beginning, containing 25 acres more or less.

THIRD TRACT: Fully described in a deed bearing date of April 29th, 1891, from Charles Goodyear to Geo. E. Boggs, which is registered in Book No. 2, page 834, and is described as follows: Beginning at a white oak the north east corner of the tract of land bought by the said Charles Goodyear from D. D. Davis, and northwest corner of the tract of land now owned by George E. Boggs and running south with the line of the Goodyear and Boggs tract aforesaid 66 poles to a point in said lines opposite a large apple tree in the tract of Charles Goodyear; thence west 13 poles to a stake; thence north 23 poles to the public road; thence following said public road a northwesterly course 27 poles to a point opposite a large apple tree in the east line of said Goodyear tract; thence north with said line 28 poles to the southwest corner of a tract of land now owned by George Casey; thence east with said Casey's line 83 1/2 poles to the beginning containing 9 1/2 acres more or less.

FOURTH TRACT: Fully described in a deed bearing date of October 5th, 1889, from J. K. Boone and wife, Mary E. Boone to George E. Boggs and recorded in Book 9, page 426, Record of Deeds of Haywood county and described as follows: Beginning at a stake south of a hickory in George E. Boggs north line and runs North 1 degree east 48 poles to a chestnut said Boone's northwest corner; thence south 89 deg. east 162-3 poles to a stake and hickory in said Boone's north line; thence south 1 deg. west 48 poles to a stake in said Boggs line near a small walnut; thence north 88 deg. west 16 2-3 poles with said Boggs line to the beginning containing five acres more or less. Reserving and excepting however, from the operation of this deed in trust and from the lands conveyed therein the following tracts or pieces which have heretofore been sold: First tract: To William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs, their heirs and assigns on which the Boggs residence now stands and the grounds immediately around same, said reserved ground and tract being fully described as follows: Beginning at a large oak stump supposed to be the northwest corner of the so-called fifty acre tract, conveyed by Evans to Boggs and northwest corner of the tract, conveyed by Goodyear to Boggs and runs thence with the north line of the latter tract north 87 deg. west 139.5 feet to a stake in the middle of the road leading from the small blue house formerly owned and occupied by Ed Swayngin; thence with said road south 10 deg. west 100 feet to a stake; thence southwest 100 feet to a stake; thence south 32 deg. west crossing the creek at 240 feet to a stake at the intersection of said road with a road leading to the Boggs barn; thence with said road south 73 deg. west 155 feet to a stake in the middle of the county road; thence with said county road S. 62 deg. E. 157 feet to a stake in prolongation of the fence west of the Boggs Fish Pond; thence with said fence due south 335 feet to the intersection of said fence with the fence south of the fish pond; thence with the latter fence south 73 deg. 42' east 102.26 feet to its intersection with the main fence separating the Boggs orchard from the Goodyear or Graves Orchard; thence north 12 deg. 30' east 97 feet to a stake (focus; post) about five feet north of a small maple; thence north 58 deg. east 249.4 feet to a stake in the middle of the county road in prolongation of west edge of a road leading up into the orchard; thence with the county road north 86 deg. east 118 feet to a stake opposite the middle of the road leading to the Boggs farm; thence a straight course north 13 deg. east 307 feet passing through a maple tree west of the new house formerly occupied by Swayngin and also through a peach tree in the north edge of the garden to the middle of the branch or creek opposite a locust stake; thence down said branch with its meanders north 77 deg. west 298 feet (Measured straight) to a point in the branch opposite a dump of evergreen trees; thence north 6 deg. and 30' east through the edge of the woodland 408 feet to the beginning said reservation containing 7.7 acres more or less. Reserving also to the said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs their heirs and assigns the right to conduct water in pipes as at present from a spring or springs in the orchard to their house with the right of access to the said pipes and spring for the purpose of cleaning them and repairing and maintaining the pipes.

Reserving also to the said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs the right to take water as at present from a small dam in the orchard to the fish pond on the ground reserved to said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs their heirs and assigns together with the right to enter upon the premises herein conveyed for the purpose of cleaning out, repairing and maintaining the pipes leading through the farm to said pond, but no reservation of water right herein made shall have the effect to hinder or deprive the party of the second part herein his heirs and assigns from improving and using his said lands in such manner as may be deemed expedient to him. Such use however, not to have the effect to destroy the water rights of the said William E. Boggs, A. A. Boggs, their heirs and assigns.

Second Reservation: Fully described in a deed from Alexander G. Johnston and Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, executors of the last will of Robert P. Johnston, deceased to Walter and George Wiley Franklin bearing date of March 6th, 1925, and registered in book 68, on page 317, Record of Deeds of Haywood county, which execution and reservation is described as follows: Beginning at a point in the north eastern margin of said Pigeon Road in the common line of the Brookside Orchard property and S. T. Graves property where said line intersects with the northern margin of said road and runs thence across said road south 6 deg. 37' west with a fence 6.87 chains to a stake in the center of an old highway; thence along the center of said old highway south 56 deg. 00' east 2.86 chains to a stake in the center of said old highway; thence north 69 deg. 15' East 1.94 chains to a stake in an old road; thence north 48 deg. 15' east 80 chains to a stake in an old road; thence north 22 deg. 27' east 98 chains to a stake in the center of a branch at the bridge; thence north 26 deg. and 15' east 1.50 chains to a stake in an old road; thence north 46 deg. 40' east 1 chain to a stake in an old road; thence north 23 deg. 40' east 1.46 chains; thence north 16 deg. east across said Pigeon road 2.67 chains to a stack of bars in the S. T. Graves line; thence north 86 deg. 30' west along the said Graves line 7.15 chains to the point of the beginning being part of the Brookside Orchard and containing 4.48 acres more or less. However, the right of way reserved in the above described land, which heretofore was sold to Walter R. and George Wiley Franklin by the executors of Robert P. Johnston, deceased, and which right of way was reserved over the said lands, is hereby conveyed by this instrument.

The following property described in a release deed executed March 10, 1930 by C. N. Walker, Trustee and Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and Alexander Garrett Johnston Executors to C. A. Black, is also excepted and will not be sold. Lying on the West side of State Highway No. 284 in Waynesville Township, Haywood County, North Carolina.
