Cuthbert—"I'm going to go, me a nice little wife. I'll have a cozy little home, well-cooked meals, my slippers will be all ready for me when I get home at night, my pipe will be handy, and peace and contentment will reign for the rest of my life. I tell you it's great!"

Hubert—"You never ought to marry, Cuthbert—Why not?"

Hubert—"Well, when a man has a beautiful dream like that he should not take the risk of waking up."

"I'll examine you for $10," said the specialist.

"All right," said the victim, "and if you find it I'll give you half."

Boggs, which is registered in Book No. 2, page 834, and is described as follows: Beginning at a white oak stump north east corner of the tract of land bought by the said Charles Goodyear from D. D. Davis, and northwest corner of the tract of land now owned by George E. Boggs and running south with the line of the Goodyear and Boggs tract aforesaid 65 poles to a point in said line opposite a large apple tree in the tract of Charles Goodyear; thence west 13 poles to a stake; thence north 23 poles to the public road; thence following said public road a northwesterly course 27 poles to a point opposite a large apple tree in the east line of said Goodyear tract; thence north with said line 28 poles to the southwest corner of a tract of land now owned by George Casey; thence east with said Casey's line 83 1/2 poles to the beginning containing 9 1/2 acres more or less.

FOURTH TRACT: Fully described in a deed bearing date of October 5th, 1889, from J. K. Boone and wife, Mary E. Boone to George E. Boggs, and recorded in Book 9, on page 425, Record of Deeds of Haywood county and described as follows: Beginning at a stake south of a hickory in George E. Boggs north line and ran North 1 degree east 48 poles to a chestnut and Boone's northwest corner; thence south 89 deg. east 192 1/2 poles to a stake and hickory in said Boone's north line; thence south 1 deg. west 14 poles to a stake in said Boggs' line near a small walnut; thence north 88 deg. west 152 1/2 poles with said Boggs' line to the beginning containing 50 acres more or less. Reserving and excepting however, from the operation of this deed in trust and from the land conveyed therein the following tract of land, which have heretofore been sold: First tract: To William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs, their heirs and assigns on which the Boggs residence now stands, and the grounds immediately around same, said reserved ground and tract being fully described as follows: Beginning at a large oak stump supposed to be the northwest corner of the so-called fifty acre tract conveyed by Evans to Boggs and northwest corner of the tract conveyed by Goodyear to Boggs and runs thence with the north line of the latter tract north 87 deg. west 130.5 feet to a stake in the middle of the road leading from the small blue house formerly owned and occupied by Ed Swayngin; thence with said road south 10 deg. west 100 feet to a stake; thence southwest 100 feet to a stake; thence south 32 deg. west crossing the creek at 240 feet to a stake at the intersection of said road with a road leading to the Boggs barn; thence with said road south 73 deg. west 735 feet to a stake in the middle of the county road; thence with said county road S. 62 deg. E. 157 feet to a stake in prolongation of the fence west of the Boggs Fish Pond; thence with said fence due south 335 feet to the intersection of said fence with the fence south of the fish pond; thence with the latter fence south 73 deg. 42 east 192.26 feet to its intersection with the main fence separating the Boggs orchard from the Good-year or Graves Orchard; thence north 12 deg. 30 east 97 feet to a stake (oak stump) about five feet north of a small maple; thence north 58 deg. east 249.4 feet to a stake in the middle of the county road in prolongation of west edge of a road leading up into the orchard; thence with the County road north 86 deg. east 118 feet to a stake opposite the middle of the road leading to the Boggs farm; thence a straight course north 13 deg. east 397 feet passing through a maple tree west of the new house formerly occupied by Swayngin and also through a peach tree in the north edge of the garden to the middle of the branch or creek opposite a locust stake; thence down said branch with its meanders north 77 deg. west 298 feet (Measured straight) to a point in the branch opposite a clump of evergreen trees; thence north 6 deg. and 30 east through the edge of the woodland 408 feet to the beginning said reservation containing 7.7 acres more or less. Reserving also to the said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs their heirs and assigns the right to conduct water in pipes as at present from a spring or spring in the orchard to their house with the right of access to the said pipes and spring for the purpose of cleaning them and repairing and maintaining the pipes.

Reserving also to the said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs the right to take water as at present from a small dam in the orchard to the fish pond on the ground reserved to said William E. Boggs and A. A. Boggs their heirs and assigns together with the right to enter upon the premises herein conveyed for the purpose of cleaning out, repairing and maintaining the pipes leading through the farm to said pond, but no reservation of water right herein made shall have the effect to hinder or deprive the party of the second part herein his heirs and assigns from improving and using his said lands in such manner as may be deemed expedient to him. Such use however, not to have the effect to destroy the water rights of the said William E. Boggs, A. A. Boggs, their heirs and assigns.

Second Reservation: Fully described in a deed from Alexander G. Johnston and Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, executors of the last will of Robert P. Johnston, deceased to Walter and George Wiley Franklin bearing date of March 6th, 1925, and registered in book 68, on page 122, Record of Deeds of Haywood County, which exception and reservation is described as follows: Beginning at a point in the north eastern corner of said Pigeon Road in the center of the Brookside Orchard and S. T. Graves property, a line intersects with the north margin of said road and runs across said road south 6 deg. east with a fence 6.87 chains to a stake in the center of an old highway along the center of said highway south 36 deg. 00 east 2.86 chains to a stake in the center of said highway; thence north 69 deg. 12.94 chains to a stake in an alley; thence north 48 deg. 15 east 80 feet to a stake in an old road; thence north 22 deg. 27 east 18 chains to a stake in the center of a branch bridge; thence north 26 deg. east 1.50 chains to a stake in the road; thence north 46 deg. 40 east 1.20 chains to a stake in an old road; thence north 23 deg. 40 east 1.46 chains to a stake in the road; thence north 16 deg. east across Pigeon road 2.67 chains to a stake of bar, in the S. T. Graves line; thence north 86 deg. 30 west along the Graves line 7.15 chains to the point of the beginning being part of the Brookside orchard and containing 4.48 acres more or less. However, the right of way reserved in the above described land, which heretofore was sold to Walter R. and George Wiley Franklin by the executors of Robert P. Johnston, deceased, and whose right of way was reserved over said lands is hereby conveyed by this instrument.

The following property described in a release deed executed March 10, 1930 by C. N. Walker, Trustee, and Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and Alexander Garrett Johnston, Executors to C. A. Black, is also excepted and will not be sold: Lying on the West side of State Highway No. 254 in Waynesville Township, Haywood County, North Carolina.
