

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Eleanor Bushnell, Editor Phone 137

ALL EXPENSE TOUR TO THE WORLD FAIR

:- $50 :-

Next Bus Leaves August 15 INCLUDES

- 1. Transportation from Asheville to Chicago and return in comfortable bus. 2. Seven nights in clean comfortable, modern fireproof hotels, going and coming from Fair. 3. Three meals per day during duration of trip. 4. Four paid admissions to Fair Grounds. 5. Twenty-five mile sight-seeing tour of Chicago. 6. Sight-seeing on trip to Chicago and return. 7. Guide to Century of Progress. We are not identified with any other tour bureaus leaving Asheville for Fair. Phone or Write

H. B. NEWLAND C. D. NEWLAND 67 Arcade Bldg Phone 3731

Commercial Photography in all its Branches

Copy Work of Old Time Types Old Photographs Copied Mountain Views Kodak Finishing

SMOKY MOUNTAIN PHOTOS CO. at the Aiken Gift Shop

Messrs. Jesse and N. C. James, of Fines Creek, spent Saturday in town.

Mr. C. A. Campbell, of Jonathan, spent Monday here on business.

Mr. Jack West was among the visitor here from Clyde Saturday.

Mr. J. F. Shelton and Mr. Robert Howell were among the visitors here from Jonathan Monday.

Mr. M. M. Kirkpatrick, of Fines Creek was here on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, of Crabtree, spent Monday in town.

Mr. Norville Rogers, of Fines Creek, was in town Monday.

Mr. C. L. Hill, of Crabtree, spent Monday here on business.

Mr. John W. Shook was among the visitors here from Clyde Monday.

Mr. R. R. Mease, of Canton, was here on business Monday.

Mr. T. T. Noland, of Crabtree, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Mr. Craton Norris, of Clyde, spent Saturday in Waynesville.

Mr. J. B. James was here from Crabtree Saturday.

Mr. Homer West was among the visitors here from Clyde Saturday.

Mr. Lee Ferguson, of Jonathan, was a Waynesville visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Boyd, of Jonathan, were Waynesville visitors last week.

Miss Nancy Crockett of Franklin, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Jones.

Vogue for Dots

A sheer expression of the vogue for dots. Eel gray dotted sheer, relieved with white stitched handkerchief linen.

Messrs. H. P. Ledbetter and W. A. Moore, of Pigeon, spent Friday in town.

Among the visitors in town last Friday were Messrs. C. B. Jones, C. E. Brown, of Clyde.

Rev. B.H. Freeman and Rev. R. P. McCracken, of Clyde, were here last Friday.

Mr. Oral Yates and Mr. Henry Brown, of Irenduff, were in town on business Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Murphy had as their guests last week-end Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McCracken, of Hickory.

Miss Ruth Bowman, of Mt. Airy, is the guest of Miss Mildred McCracken.

Miss Mary Ruby Davis is spending a few weeks visiting friends in Raleigh and Durham.

Mrs. Gene Lind, of Miami, Florida, is the guest of Miss Adora Holtzclaw at the home of Mrs. Adora Rayne.

Mr. Paul Frye, former instructor of English and music in the Waynesville High School, spent last week-end with friends here.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stretcher have as their guest Mrs. Stretcher's mother, Mrs. Lulu Uzzle, of Wilson Mills.

Mrs. Henry Bryan, of Raleigh, is the guest of Mrs. Charles R. Thomas at her home on Walnut street.

Miss Margaret Shackford, of Charlotte is the guest of Miss Martha Way.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Jordon and Sonny Jordon, who have been guests of Mrs. Susan Crawford, left Monday for their in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. Robert Woodward, of Columbia, S. C., joined Mrs. Woodward at the Adger House Friday for a week-end visit.

Mrs. John Kirkpatrick and infant daughter, of Fayetteville, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Kirkpatrick.

Miss Flora McNeil, of Fayetteville, is spending this week in Waynesville as the guest of Miss Mary Stringfield.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Adams, of Four Oaks, N. C., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gwyn on Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld and daughter, Ruth, will leave Saturday for a visit to their former home in Boston, Massachusetts.

Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan returned Monday after a week's visit to relatives in Towanda, Pennsylvania.

Miss Anna Preston, field secretary of the Alumnae Association of Salem College, who was here Tuesday and Wednesday in the interest of the college, visited Miss Martha Neal.

Miss Tillie Rotha returned Friday after a several days visit in Charlotte as the guest of Miss Louisa Thackston at the home of her aunts, Misses Estelle and Georgia Kelley.

Mrs. A. Colledge and two children, Dorothy and Bobby, left Thursday for Fremont, Nebraska where they will join Mr. Colledge and make their home in the future.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick returned Monday from Charlotte where she spent a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. Y. Kirkpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stacy, Jr., of Gaffney, South Carolina, were week-end guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. H. C. Wilburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Abel, of Dellwood have moved to Franklin. Mr. Abel is connected with National Forest service.

Among the visitors here from Crabtree last week were: Messrs. F. A. Justice, Pink Best, A. C. Walker, J. B. Best, and J. F. Rogers.

Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, Miss Pearl Justice, and Miss Belle McCracken spent Saturday shopping in Waynesville.

Mrs. C. H. McDowell and Mrs. K. L. Elmore attended the reception given by the Lake Junaluska Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. K. L. Elmore spent last week end with his family at the home of Mrs. Elmore's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, Jr., of Rock Hill, South Carolina, were week-end guests of the former's parents, at the Kirkpatrick Apartments.

Miss Caroline Ward of Asheville, spent last week-end with Miss Mary Wood at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick returned Monday from Charlotte where she spent a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. Y. Kirkpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stacy, Jr., of Gaffney, South Carolina, were week-end guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. H. C. Wilburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Abel, of Dellwood have moved to Franklin. Mr. Abel is connected with National Forest service.

Among the visitors here from Crabtree last week were: Messrs. F. A. Justice, Pink Best, A. C. Walker, J. B. Best, and J. F. Rogers.

Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, Miss Pearl Justice, and Miss Belle McCracken spent Saturday shopping in Waynesville.

Mrs. C. H. McDowell and Mrs. K. L. Elmore attended the reception given by the Lake Junaluska Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. K. L. Elmore spent last week end with his family at the home of Mrs. Elmore's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, Jr., of Rock Hill, South Carolina, were week-end guests of the former's parents, at the Kirkpatrick Apartments.

Miss Caroline Ward of Asheville, spent last week-end with Miss Mary Wood at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Shoolbred.

Mrs. S. H. Weaver and three children, of Weaverville, are guests of Mrs. Weaver's mother, Mrs. J. R. Williams.

Miss Miriam Wellins, of New York City, is the guest of her sister Mrs. David Simons, at the Kirkpatrick Apartments.

Mr. J. Paul Beam, of Gaffney, South Carolina, spent a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Davis at Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Isenhour of Charlotte arrived Tuesday to spend the remainder of the summer with Mrs. Isenhour's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. McCracken.

Misses Edwina and Marion McDowell left last week for Badin where they are visiting their cousins, Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Moore. They will also visit friends in Hickory and Granite Falls.

Mr. P. W. Townsends, who spent two weeks with his family at the R. L. Lee home on Walnut street, has returned to his home in Aiken, South Carolina.

Mrs. Nora Jean Pearson, who has been convalescing in Waynesville for the past few months, will leave within the next few days to resume her work in Raleigh and Albemarle in Beauty Culture.

Mr. Woodson Jones is in the hospital at Franklin convalescing after an operation for appendicitis last week. Mrs. Jones is spending this week in Franklin with him.

Sympathy that is helpful—that thinks unselfishly—and desires to render an understanding service. Garrett Funeral Home. Phone 1-W Waynesville, N. C. Main St.

CAMEL WOULD TASTE GOOD NOW. A CAMEL WOULD TASTE GOOD ANY TIME. CAMELS DON'T TIRE YOUR TASTE OR GET ON YOUR NERVES. For steady smoking—Camel's costlier tobaccos

A Real Chicken Dinner Amid Beautiful Surroundings Mountain Meadows Inn (Every Sunday 1 to 3 and 7 to 9 o'clock) It was 76 degrees last Sunday on our veranda at 2 p. m. Saddle Horses are available. Reservations must be made in advance. Charge $2.50. Week-end rates: Saturday Afternoon to Sunday Afternoon $4.00. ON THE ELK MOUNTAIN SCENIC ROAD

The VOGUE (In Asheville) Our 16th Annual August SALE of FURS Now In Progress Never before have we been able to offer to the people of Western North Carolina a finer and more complete selection of all models of furs and fur coats... consisting of muskrat, Hudson seal, pony, squirrel and many others of the wanted Furs. Charming and beautiful fur coats can be bought during this annual sale for as little as $49.50 And Up (The same coats selling in October for $95) Our most unusual values are being presented during this sale... and our advise to you (that is if you want a fur coat) is to take advantage of these splendid bargains at once... coats and furs at the prices we are asking will not last long... All coats are unconditionally guaranteed... deposits accepted and coats will be stored free of charge until Fall

The Furriers 63 Haywood St. Phone 781

CASH PAID FOR OLD STAMPS AND ENVELOPES BEARING OLD STAMPS Mail to R. G. Fortune, Jr., 170 Montford Avenue Asheville, N. C.

C. E. RAY'S SONS About Telephoning Our Telephone Number Is With us To Departments of GROCERIES AND FEED MEAT MARKET SHOES MEN'S FURNISHINGS WOMEN'S FURNISHINGS PIECE GOODS, NOTIONS Call 12 and Ask For The Department Desired. Each, You Will Find Pleasing Our Quality and Price SEE US FOR READY-TO-WEAR C. E. Ray's Sons