MR. MOODY DAVIS WEDS MISS SMITH IN LEAKSVILLE

A wide circle of friends in Haywood county will be interested in the following account of the wedding of Mr. Moody Davis, formerly of Waynesville, and Miss Rebekah Smith, of Leaksville, which appeared in The Greensboro Daily News last Sunday, Leaksville, Aug. 12.—A wedding of cordial interest throughout the state was solemnized in a pretty home ceremony at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Rebekah Smith became the bride of Robert Moody Davis. Rev. H. P. Powell, of Marion, a former pastor of the bride and Rev. W. H. Willis officiated, using the ring ceremony of the Methodist church.

Only the immediate families and a limited number of intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of stately palms and ferns interspersed with floor baskets of gladiolas and regal lilies.

Prior to the wedding ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered by Miss Sallie Sharp, of Reidsville, violinist, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Smith, a sister of the bride. The numbers played were "Faery" by Fibick and "Liebestraum" by Liszt. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was during the ceremony. Elegie Op. 10 No. 5 was softly played. Miss Sallie Smith, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was beautifully gowned in stained glass blue triple sheer, with a large felt hat and other blending accessories. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses.

The lovely bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom, who was attended by his brother Lee Ferguson Davis of Waynesville, as best man.

The bride was attired in an exquisite gown of white triple sheer, made on princess lines. Over her gown fell a bridal veil of tulle and Alencon lace, which was worn cap style and held in place with orange blossoms. Her arm bouquet was of white roses showered with valley lilies. Mrs. Davis is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Smith and is a young woman of rare charm and accomplishments. She was graduated from Woman's college, Greensboro, afterwards taking post graduate work at Columbia university. Since her college days she has been a member of the faculty of the Leaksville township schools.

The bride's maternal grandfather was Col. E. W. Hancock who served with valor in the Mexican war and the war between the states. She is also a descendant of Ethan Allen, of Revolutionary fame.

Mr. Davis is a native of Haywood county a son of Mrs. Joseph Smalley Davis and the late Mr. Davis. He received his education at Cullowhee college. He is a World War veteran, being in service overseas. After returning from France he located in Leaksville where he holds the position of superintendent of public works of the city. Ancestors of Mr. Davis on both sides were pioneer builders of Haywood county.
