MRS. BUNN GIVEN FAREWELL COURTESY

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Paul Walker charmingly entertained with a handkerchief shower honoring Mrs. B. D. Bunn, who is leaving soon to reside in Apex, N. C. where Mr. Bunn has accepted the superintendency of schools.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with quantities of summer flowers. Pink, white and green were the dominant colors and this color scheme was also carried out in the refreshments.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Bunn greeted the guests at the door. A short musical program was rendered by Mrs. Lawrence Green and Miss Mildred Crawford. Mrs. G. C. Platt and Mrs. J. R. Hipps directed the guests into the dining room where Misses Clayton Walker, H. D. Boy Hurs, Bargin and Miss Eula Patterson served ice cream, cake, nuts and minis. Mrs. H. W. Baucum presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. J. C. Patrick kept the register. This was presented to Mrs. Bunn with the names and addresses of all those present.

Little Nancy Walker carried in a large doll dressed in colonial costume which had been made by a unique arrangement of the handkerchiefs and presented to Mrs. Bunn, who in her usual gracious manner expressed her appreciation for all the courtesies of the afternoon and her regret at leaving her many Waynesville friends.

Mrs. Walker's guest list included all the members of the four missionary circles of the First Baptist church.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL WALKER HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker entertained delightfully with a big-saw puzzle party at their home Thursday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Sam Platt, who are leaving soon to make their home in Dalton, Georgia.

Partners were found by matching miniature big-saw made from miniature pictures. At the conclusion of the contests an ice course was served. A color note of pink and green was attractively carried out in the refreshments and arrangements of flowers.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Platt, Mrs. G. C. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patrick.

MISS EDITH CHAMBERS WEDS MR. MARION BRIDGES

Of much interest to their friends in Waynesville and the community is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Edith Chambers and Mr. Marion Bridges, which was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the groom.

Rev. H. W. Baucum, pastor of the Baptist church officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. There were no attendant and only members of the immediate families and a few friends were present.

The bride was attired in a full costume of brown crepe with accessories to match.

Immediately after the wedding the young couple left for a motor trip to Greenville, South Carolina and Charlotte.

Mrs. Bridges is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chambers of Modford Farm. She is an attractive young woman of the brunette type.

Mr. Bridges is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridges. He received his education at the Waynesville High School and is now co-publisher of The Waynesville Mountaineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges are making their home with Mr. Bridges' parents.
