IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for September 10

JONATHAN

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 18:1-4; 19:1-7; 20:30-40
 GOLDEN TEXT—A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. Proverbs 17:17.
 PRIMARY TOPIC—Sew Friends.
 JUNIOR TOPIC—David's True Friend.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choosing Worthy Friends.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Be a Friend.

I. Friendship Established Between Jonathan and David (1 Sam. 18:1-4).

The friendship of Jonathan and David has become immortalized in the world's thought. It was unique in that it occurred between two men of rival worldly interests. Jonathan was the crown prince and heir to the throne according to hereditary rights. David was to be king according to divine choice and arrangement. Jonathan knew this and yet magnanimously waived his natural, personal rights in favor of God's chosen.

1. Love at first sight (vv. 1, 2). At the end of the interview between David and Saul, following the victory over Goliath, Jonathan's soul was knit with that of David. While there was mutual love, this trait stands out prominently in Jonathan. To him it meant great loss, the loss of the throne, while to David it meant immense gain, the acquisition of the throne, to which he had no natural right.

2. A covenant established (vv. 3, 4). This mutual love found expression in the establishment of a covenant between them. Following this love covenant, Jonathan stripped himself of his court robe and equipment and gave them to David. This act was a virtual abdication of the throne to David. Truly, "Love seeketh not her own." (1 Cor. 13:5).

II. Jonathan Defended David Against Saul's Frenzy (1 Sam. 19:1-7).

David went into the battle with Goliath out of zeal for God and true religion, not for personal glory; but it turned out as always, that because he put God first, God honored him. It is always true that those who honor God shall in turn be honored of God.

On David's return from victory over Goliath, he was met by a triumphant chorus of women of all the cities of Israel, chanting praises to him of the victory over their enemy. They ascribed more praise to David than to Saul. The one group sang "Saul has slain his thousands," and the other answered, "And David, his ten thousand." This praise of David aroused the murderous envy in Saul's heart and moved him twice to attempt to kill David.

This wickedness was in Saul's heart. The occasion fanned it into a flame making it a burning passion of evil. Let no one think of this as an ordinary sin. Its counterpart may be found in many of us. The supreme test is as to whether the success of others and the honor bestowed upon others arouses within us envy and jealousy. It is hard to forgive those who outdistance us in the race of life.

In Saul's third attempt to kill David, Jonathan defended him and secured from his father the oath that David should not be slain. He thus exposed himself to the anger of his infuriated father for David's sake. This willingness to lay down his life for David proved his real friendship (John 15:13).

III. Jonathan Revealed to David Saul's Murderous Attempt (1 Sam. 20:30-40).

The beginning of the new moon was celebrated by sacrifices and feasting, at which all the members of the family were expected to be present (v. 5). David's excuse for being absent was that he might go home to attend the yearly sacrifice of his family. Matters were now so serious that Jonathan and David renewed their covenant. In this renewal the terms were broadened beyond the life of Jonathan (vv. 14, 15).

Saul's anger was now so fierce that for Jonathan to be found in David's company was most dangerous, so he cleverly planned this sign by which he could make known to David Saul's attitude and purpose. True friendship warns those who are exposed to danger. This pledge was faithfully carried out by David (II Sam. 9:7, 8).

Testing Christianity

To examine its evidences is not to try Christianity; to admire its martyrs is not to try Christianity; to compare and estimate its teachers is not to try Christianity; but for one week, for one day, to have lived in the pure atmosphere of faith and love to God, and tenderness to man, that, indeed is to have made experiment of Christianity.—William Archer Butler.

Beautiful Sentence

One of the most beautiful sentences in the Bible is this brief sentence from the thirty-second chapter of Genesis: "He blessed him there." No life can be at its fullest, strongest and best until one can say, referring to some time and place: "He blessed me there."

Like a Diamond

"The nature of a human being is like a finely-cut diamond; it reflects a multitude of color-flashes as the light of other personalities is played upon it."

Final Plans Are Made For Dahlia Show On Tuesday

Those In Charge Of Show Expect Largest Flowers Ever Shown To Be On Display

Final plans have been completed for the annual dahlia show which is sponsored by the Woman's Club and will be held Tuesday in the building next to the Wayneswood Theatre.

All indications are that this year's show will surpass all other shows that have been put on here. The larger growers, such as Mr. J. B. Ivey and W. T. Shelton are enthusiastic over the prospects for the coming show. The officers of the Woman's Club and those in charge expect not only the largest display of dahlias ever shown here, but they also look for the largest flowers ever shown at any similar show. Mr. Ivey stated recently that there would probably be some dahlias which would measure at least fourteen inches in diameter. The average dahlia grower considers a seven or eight inch flower as being large.

The prize list follows:

Class 1. The largest and best display of dahlias: First prize large dahlia basket given by J. B. Ivey. Second prize dahlia tubers to the value of $3.00.

Class 2. Best display of dahlias raised in Haywood county outside of Waynesville township. Dahlia tubers to the value of $3.00, winner of class 1 not to compete.

Class 3. Best display of dahlias raised outside of Haywood county. First prize dahlia tubers to the value of $3.00. Second prize dahlia tubers to the value of $1.00, winner of class 1 or 2 not to compete.

Class 4. For display coming the longest distance. Dahlia tubers to the value of $2.00.

Class 5. The best and largest display by exhibitors raising less than 50 dahlia plants. Dahlia tubers to the value of $2.00.

Class 6. The most artistic vase or basket of dahlias (other foliage allowed). First prize dahlia tubers to the value of $2.00. Second prize dahlia tubers to the value of $1.00.

Class 7. The best vase or basket of pink dahlias (5 or more blooms). First prize dahlia tubers to the value of $2.00. Second prize dahlia tubers to the value of $1.00.

Class 8. The best vase or basket of yellow or bronze dahlias (5 or more blooms). First prize dahlia tubers to the value of $2.00. Second prize dahlia tubers to the value of $1.00.

Junaluska P. T. A. Met Tuesday Night

The first meeting of the Junaluska Parent-Teachers' Association held at the school house on Tuesday evening, with fair attendance of the rain.

With Mrs. Toy presiding the meeting was opened with "America" after the reading of the minutes. The president reported on the requirements for a standard organization. It was voted that the association for the year should be to meet these requirements. With this goal in mind Mrs. Toy pointed Mrs. Sam Queen as the membership committee; Mrs. G. G. G. as chairman of the program committee; Miss Flora Rathbone as the finance committee; and Stephanie Moore chairman of the publication committee.

Plans for the continuation of the hot soup room at school was discussed and two ladies offered to can a dozen jars of tomatoes for the purpose. It is hoped that the soup room can be run this year without the aid of federal money. In order to get a good start, someone suggested the organization raise money the right way.

As the outcome of much discussion plans were made for plate supper 25 cents a plate to be held on September 22, at the school. The supper will be well worth the price, and it is hoped that a crowd will come. There will be entertainment periods with the supper. A fitting close to such an initial meeting, the teachers served delicious punch and cookies.

The association was adjourned to meet again on the second Thursday of October.

Miss Katherine McCarron of Lauderdale, Florida, who is spending her vacation at the home of Mr. B. Matthews, visited friends in Hazelwood last week-end.
