WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INITIAL MEETING... Mrs. Grover C. Davis was hostess to the members of the Woman's Club at the first meeting of the fall series last Thursday afternoon at her home on Walnut street... The main feature of the afternoon's program was the installation of the following new officers: Mrs. Grover Davis, president; Mrs. W. B. Matthews, second vice-president; Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick, third vice-president; Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, treasurer; and Mrs. J. Harden Howell, corresponding secretary... Committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Mrs. H. W. Baucom, chairman of education; Mrs. W. B. Matthews, chairman of publicity; Mrs. Homer Henry, chairman of public welfare; and Mrs. John M. Queen, chairman of legislation... Mrs. H. W. Baucom was also elected vice-president to fill the office of Mrs. B. D. Bunn, who resigned upon leaving the city... Mrs. John Queen made a report of the quilt show sponsored by the club in July and Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick made a report of the recent Pablia Show. Both shows were successful and the reports were gratifying... Mr. W. B. Matthews presented the matter of the proposal to create a health zone including the territory of Haywood, Jackson, and Swain counties. The club went on record as desiring to cooperate with other organizations in the city in inviting the State Board of Health to establish this health district... Mrs. J. F. Kirkpatrick, retiring president, made a few timely remarks, thanking the members of the club for their cooperation during her term of office and graciously handed the gavel to Mrs. Davis, the new president... Mrs. Davis spoke briefly and appropriately of her appreciation of the honor bestowed on her and expressed a desire to serve the club and its interest to the best of her ability... Mrs. S. P. Gay read transcripts from the club manual pertaining to club ethics and the rules and by-laws... During the social hour Mrs. Davis served a delightful ice course with coffee.

STANDARD OIL EMPLOYEES HAVE DINNER AND BUSINESS MEETING... The employees of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, both wholesale and retail, held their regular monthly meeting on last Wednesday evening at the Hotel LeFame... A delightful coffee dinner was served in the dining rooms of the hotel, which was attractively decorated in the new Essolene colors. Covers were laid for thirty... After dinner the employees under the supervision of Mr. J. R. Latham in the wholesale division and Mr. L. A. Davis in the retail division, entered into the discussion and received instruction on the petroleum code of the NRA, this being the primary purpose of the meeting. The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, as has always been the custom, rallied to the cause and is endeavoring to further the cause by seeing that all employees are properly and thoroughly instructed on the observance of the code... The supervisors, Messrs. Latham and Davis, and the employees west of Asheville were delighted to have as their honor guests Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodson, Mrs. J. R. Latham, Mrs. L. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Richards, and Mr. Sample. Mr. Goodson, known by all the employees of the company for a number of years, was warmly welcomed. His discussion of the petroleum code was thoroughly appreciated. After the usual constructive talk by Mr. Latham, the meeting was adjourned... MRS. PAUL HYATT IS MUSIC CLUB HOSTESS... The Waynesville Music Club met for the opening meeting at the Piedmont Hotel with Mrs. Paul Hyatt as hostess... Instead of the usual formal opening, Mrs. Hugh Love, the presiding officer, made a few appropriate remarks and the club paid tribute to the memory of the beloved members lost since the last meeting—Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson and Miss Frederika Quinlan... Since Mrs. Hugh Love as vice president, will fill the office of president, Mrs. L. M. Richeson was elected vice president. Mrs. Richard Barber, chairman of the program committee, presented the year book, which was accepted in full. Four new members were elected: Miss Grace Crocker, Misses Maude and Margaret Terrell, and Miss Ellen Louie Killian. Mrs. Carlton of the Statesville Music Club, gave several musical notes of interest to the club and a message from Mrs. Eugene Davis, the state president... Mrs. Horace Keener as leader for the afternoon's program presented the subject "Art Song and Folk Song," with the following numbers: English Air "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," vocal trio; Mrs. Lawrence Green, Misses Nancy Killian, Miss Mildred Crawford, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stretcher... Welch Air "All Through The Night," vocal solo by Mrs. Lawrence Green, accompanied by Miss Nancy Killian... Irish Air "Believe Me If Aall Those Endearing Young Charms," vocal solo by Miss Ida Jean Brown, accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Bowles... Art Song "The Spirit Flower," vocal solo by Miss Mildred Crawford, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stretcher... At the conclusion of the program the hostess served delicious sandwiches and tea... Publicity Chairman... Mr. Charles Badgett Jr. left Sunday for Knoxville, Tennessee to resume his study in the Law School of the University of Tennessee. This summer Mr. Badgett passed the Tennessee bar examination and will receive his law degree at the close of the fall semester at the university. He is an honor student of the law school and is also editor of the Law Review Board, the official publication of the Tennessee bar.

MRS. ABEL IS D. A. R. HOSTESS... Mrs. J. F. Abel was hostess to the members of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the initial meeting of the fall on last Wednesday afternoon... The guests assembled in the living room where quantities of late summer flowers were used as decoration... Mrs. James Harden Howell, the new regent, conducted the meeting and also made an interesting talk on the work of the D. A. R. She pointed out that $90,774 is given by the National organization to approved schools all over the United States each year. It was also noted that North Carolina has 2492 members in her 62 chapters and that these chapters lend $1,327 through the Student Loan Fund to 113 boys and girls in the state. Additional funds could be used in this respect if available... Mrs. John N. Shoultz reviewed the D. A. R. Magazine and read the President-General's message... During the business session which preceded the program the chapter voted to endorse Mrs. Flora Myers Gilentine, of the Colonel Hardy Murphree Chapter, of Chattanooga, at the 44th continental congress to be held in Washington, D. C. in April, 1935... Mrs. W. B. Matthews presented two letters which she asked the chapter to endorse—one requesting the State Board of Health to establish a health zone embracing Jackson, Haywood, and Swain counties with headquarters in Waynesville, and the other to the National Park Service asking that the needed steps be taken to acquire additional land, necessary to complete the North Carolina side of the park. The club voted to endorse both letters... Mrs. Matthews also asked members to bring old magazines to the office of the District Chamber of Commerce to be distributed in the Civilian Conservation Camps... Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwynn in a report of Crossmore School, announced that $54 had been donated by the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter for the building of the new dormitory at the school... Mrs. E. B. Camp was elected treasurer of the organization to fill the office of Mr. J. M. Long, who resigned; and Mrs. C. H. McDowell was elected to fill the office of registrar left vacant by the resignation of Mrs. S. H. Bushnell... Guests at the meeting included Mrs. J. F. Carlton, of the Fort Dobbs Chapter of Statesville and Mrs. Robert Osborne, of Tampa, Florida, a former member of this chapter... During the social hour the hostess served a delightful salad course.
