Engravers Forced To Make Counterfeit Money In Cal.

San Francisco.—Expert engravers, torn from their homes or places of business by a gang of kidnapers, have been forced under pain of death to turn out the thousands of counterfeit bills, which are now flooding the country.

READY TO PROSECUTE
This was the amazing revelation made by Capt. Thomas B. Foster, head of the United States Secret Service here, as the Government prepared to prosecute half a dozen alleged counterfeiters trapped here in the past several weeks. Foster said: "The counterfeit ten and twenty-dollar bills now circulating throughout the country have been printed from plates made by some of the finest engravers in the United States."

FORCED TO HELP
"These men are not voluntary violators of the law; our evidence shows, but are kidnap victims."
He went on to say that an engraver is "spotted" by the counterfeit gang, which kidnap him and holds him prisoner until he engraves the plates. Before he is liberated the victim is then released with the make sure there are no "errors" which will show up the counterfeit. He and members of his family will be killed if any report is made to the authorities.

CLYDE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The Clyde High School met and officially organized its literary society. The officers are as follows: President, Hubert McCracken, Vice President, Hazel Rogers, Secretary, Sibyl Anderson, Corresponding Secretary, Lucile Brooks.

Treasurer, Jack Green, First Censor, Carlton Corzine, Second Censor, Max Rogers, First Critic, Paul Gossett, Second Critic, Dorothy Walker, Chaplain, Irvin Keaver, Sergeant-at-Arms, Rodney Carr.

The committees by the various standings were appointed by the president. The society enjoyed a most interesting program on Wednesday. Devotional exercise was given by Irvin Keaver.

Margie Brooks read an entertaining prophecy. Emily Smathers, Lucile Brooks, Edwina Brooks sang My Wild Irish Rose and Harvest Moon. A French poem was given by Francis Kirkpatrick.

Hubert McCracken, the president of the society, delivered an inspiring talk on The possibilities of Our Literary Society. The school quartet, Paul Gossett, Francis Kirkpatrick, Varnar Haynes, and Hubert McCracken, sang Swing Low Sweet Chariot.

A one act comedy which was written, directed and acted by Vivian Haynes, Gordon Sentelle, and Sibyl Anderson, proved to be the spice of the program. The society then closed its meeting with the singing of rounds led by Gordon Sentelle.

The senior class is glad to have Ruth Gossett back in school, who recently underwent an operation.

The pupils are very happy to have a new music teacher, Miss Crocker.

North Carolina

Here are some interesting facts about North Carolina that perhaps most people think they know—if you do, that's fine, and if you don't—well read it:

Home Run Champion

Joe Hauser, first baseman for the Minneapolis team, is admittedly the home run champion of organized baseball, and has been since 1930. His old record was 63 grand circuit drives, but he already has passed that mark this season.

Timely Questions And Answers On Farm Problems

Question: What causes chickens to pull out their feathers and how can this be corrected?

Answer: This trouble is caused by what is known as the depluming mite. This parasite burrows into the skin of the birds and causes considerable irritation with the result that the birds pull out the feathers. To destroy this mite the birds should be dipped in a solution containing 12 ounces of flowers of sulphur and 6 ounces of well-dissolved laundry soap to each five gallons of tepid water. Give the treatment on a warm day and be sure the solution reaches the skin.

Question: How much silage will one cow consume during the winter feeding?

Answer: This depends upon the length of time the animal is to be fed. Ordinarily a cow will eat about three pounds of silage a day for each 100 pounds of live weight. The weight of the cow in hundred pounds multiplied by three will give the amount of silage in pounds consumed in one day. This amount multiplied by the number of days the animal is to be fed will give the amount of silage to be stored for each cow.

Question: Should nitrogen be applied to apple orchards in the fall?

Answer: Recent experiments have shown that the apple tree stores up nitrogen in the fall and many growers are now making fall applications. No winter injury nor increase in twig growth has been noted from the application. The nitrogen is applied in September and is taken up by the tree for use the following spring. As this practice is not applicable to all conditions, the grower should try it first on a small block of trees before making a general application.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
© 1933, Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 1 SAUL IN TARSUS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:39; 22:3, 27, 28, 29:4-7; Phil. 3:3-6.
GOLDEN TEXT—Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. I Timothy 2:15.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A School Boy.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A School Boy of Tarsus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Preparation for Life Work.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Training Christian Leaders.

I. Saul's Birth (Acts 21:39). He was born at Tarsus, the capital of Cilicia. Tarsus was a gateway between the east and west, therefore a great commercial center. It was a self-governing city, making citizenship therein honorable. It was also one of the great educational centers of the Roman empire. In the providence of God the great apostle to the Gentiles was born in the city where he would encounter men of every class and nation.

II. Saul's Education (Acts 22:3). 1. In the home (Phil. 3:5). His parents were pious people and doubtless carefully educated him according to Jewish standards. He was brought up as a strict Pharisee.

2. In college at Jerusalem (Acts 22:3). About the age of thirteen, as was the custom, he became a child of the law. It was doubtless at this age that he went to Jerusalem and entered upon his course of study under Gamaliel, one of the most eminent teachers of Israel. His course of study here, doubtless, was largely restricted to the Holy Scriptures. In this school he was prepared for the great work of a Christian theologian. Included in his education was:

a. Patriotism. He proudly affirmed "I am a Jew." He was brought up to love his nation. He was a nationalist of the true type.
b. A love for the Bible. To him the Scriptures were the very Word of God, the final word of authority.
c. Zeal for God. The word "zealous" literally means "to boil."
d. He was conscientious. His supreme aim was to have a conscience void of offense. Because of the blight of sin conscience needs to be disciplined by the Word of God.

3. A trade at Tarsus. Perhaps after his college course at Jerusalem he returned to Tarsus and learned tent making. Thus in later life he was able to support himself while preaching the gospel. One rabbi said "He that teacheth not his son a trade doeth the same as if he had taught him to steal."

III. Saul's Citizenship (Acts 22:27, 28). In the providence of God, the apostle to the Gentiles was a free-born Roman citizen. He was loyal to his country, while at the same time strictly religious. Right relationship to God sanctifies loyalty to one's country.

IV. Saul's Defense Before Agrippa (Acts 26:1-27). He expressed his delight that he now could speak and tell his case to one who could follow his line of argument, but doubtless, he was more delighted in that he could witness to him of the Saviour.

1. His manner of life (vv. 4-12). He had been in accord with the most rigid sect of the Jews. Therefore, he possessed the common Jewish hope of a coming Deliverer.
2. His supernatural conversion (vv. 13-15). It was through the personal appearance of Jesus Christ to him on the way to Damascus.
3. Commissioned by Jesus Christ and sent to the Gentiles (vv. 16-18).
4. His consecration (vv. 19-23). Upon receipt of his commission he instantly obeyed.
5. His appeal to Agrippa (vv. 25-27). He was anxious to have Agrippa act on the knowledge that he had.

V. Saul's Ground of Confidence (Phil. 3:4-6). He had everything a true Jew gloried in.

1. Circumcised the eighth day (v. 5).
2. Of the stock of Israel (v. 5).
3. Of the tribe of Benjamin (v. 5). Benjamin had always remained loyal to the national customs.
4. A Hebrew of the Hebrews (v. 5). He was of Hebrew parentage, not a proselyte.
5. Touching the law, a Pharisee (v. 5). The Pharisees were a sect among the Jews most zealous for the rights and ceremonies of Judaism.

6. Concerning zeal, persecuting the church (v. 6). He proved his zeal by the positive effort to stamp out that which was threatening Judaism.

7. Touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless (v. 6).

Pass Through Fire
Christians are like vases, they must pass through the fire ere they can shine. And often the very furnace and the flame, which they call destruction, are only burning in the graces which are to be their everlasting beauty and glory.

Joy Out of Sorrow
There are joys which can come to us only through sorrow. There are revelations of divine truth which we can get only when earth's lights have gone out.
