MISS ANABEL McCracken IS BRIDE OF WAYNE ROGERS

Characterized by impressive dignity and beautiful simplicity was the wedding of Miss Anabel McCracken and Mr. Wayne Rogers which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

The home was thrown en suite and beautifully decorated with green foliage and white blossoms.

For the entrance of the bridal party Miss Doris McCracken, cousin of the bride, played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin."

Mrs. A. L. Ensley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She was attired in a fall frock of brown and her flowers were purple and yellow.

The little ring bearer Josephine McCracken, wore a dainty frock of blue and white.

The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. W. H. McCracken, who gave her in marriage. She was becomingly dressed in a smart fall costume of brown crepe with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rogers, parents of the groom, entertained the wedding guests at an informal reception at their home in Clyde.

Mrs. Rogers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McCracken and granddaughter of the late Enos E. McCracken of Crabtree. She received her education in the Clyde High School and Asheville Normal.
