

To Hold Special Term Of Court On Land Condemning

Jurors have been drawn for the special term of the Superior Court called by Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus to hear condemnation suit of the State Park Commission against the Ravensford Lumber Company's property in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park area.

The case is scheduled to go to trial at the special term commencing October 30, in Asheville, with Judge G. Vernon Cowper, presiding. The Ravensford property consists of a large saw mill, town site of Ravensford, and 32,000 acres of land in Swain and Haywood counties.

It is the last large tract of land needed to complete the boundary of the national park.

Obituary

Whereas in the Providence of God, Brother J. M. Mock has been called from the "glorious contest," he is resolved by the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Church of Waynesville, North Carolina;

First. That his place as a member of the Board of Stewards will be hard to fill as he was ever in the lead spiritually and financially.

Second. That his faithfulness and constancy has been an example worthy of emulation.

Third. As a token of respect and genuine love, for Brother Mock we desire that these resolutions be published and a copy sent to his family and a copy filed in the Church Records.

Respectfully Submitted

Mr. James T. Baldwin of Buffalo, S. C. died in Spartanburg General hospital Sept. 23, after an illness of two weeks. He underwent a major operation and later developed pneumonia from which he died. He was a former Haywood county resident, having been born and reared here and resided for a number of years on Fines Creek. He was a man of fine character and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was a Mason and this organization had charge of the services which were held at the Methodist church and interment in Greenlawn cemetery, in Union. Mr. Baldwin was born in 1858, a son of Ross and Harriet Byers Baldwin.

He married Clementine E. Williams of Haywood county. She died Sept. 5, 1930. He is survived by seven children: Mrs. J. C. Ferguson of Waynesville, Mrs. J. E. Sizemore, Mrs. Sallie Willard, Steve, Pinkney, Willard and John T. of South Carolina and two brothers, Gailor Baldwin of White Oak and Alex of Canton, and a sister, Mrs. Camantha Huskey of Riceville, Tenn.

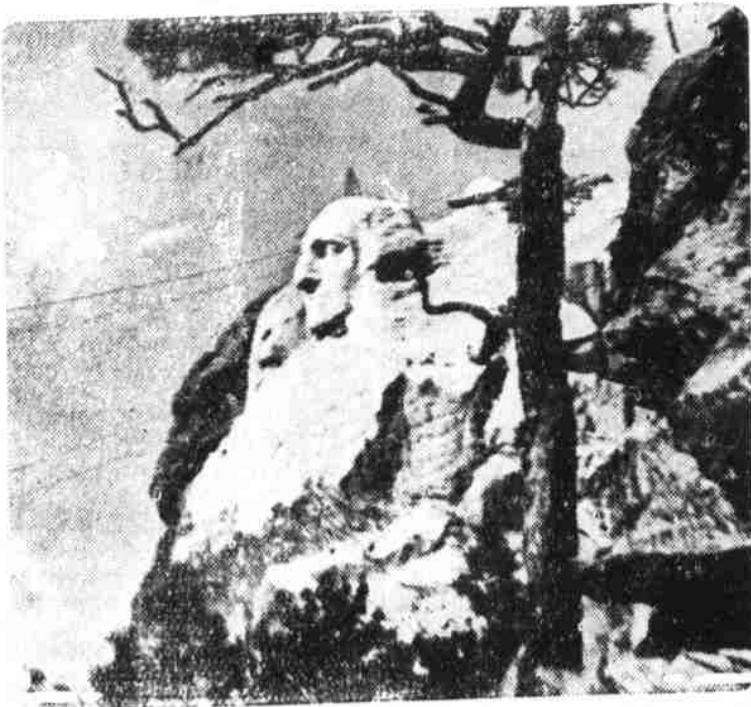

MAN KILLED DURING QUARREL OVER DOLLAR

A quarrel over a dollar led to the slaying of Eugene Shaw, middle-aged farmer in Anderson last week.

Howard Coker, 23, a textile operative, shot Shaw and told officers the killing was in self defense. He owed the farmer a dollar, he said, and they got into an argument about it during which Shaw drew a knife.

Shaw was struck by two bullets and died instantly. Coker was charged with murder and in jail.

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark.

"If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Brother Of Mrs. D. A. Baker Appointed Head Of Gov. Work

H. H. Bennett, Well Known Here, Is Now In Charge Of Division Of Erosion

H. H. Bennett, brother of Mrs. D. A. Baker, of this city, and well known here recently became the head of the newly created division of erosion in the Department of the Interior, the appointment being made by Secretary Ives. The new division will operate with a fund of $5,000,000 allotted by the public works administration.

Mr. Bennett, who is a North Carolinian, has been connected with the bureau of soils since his graduation from the University in 1902. He was recognized as one of the leading scientists in the agricultural department when he assumed his new duties. He has been in practically every part of the world working on government projects. A greater part of his time being devoted to work in Cuba, South America and Alaska.

For a number of years he has given much of his attention to problems of erosion, and is a leading authority in this field. His work in this connection led to his appointment as head of the new bureau.

Junaluska P. T. A. Met Last Thursday. Many In Attendance

On Thursday night a large number of members of the Lake Junaluska Parent-Teacher Association met in regular monthly session at the school. Aided by friendly lamps and lanterns, the usual routine of business was conducted.

A committee composed of Mrs. W. H. Burgin, Mrs. J. D. Stentz, and Miss Stephanie Moore, was appointed to prepare a Halloween entertainment.

Representatives from ninety-eight families were reported by Mr. Francis to be in school at present. Half this number of paid members are necessary before the local organization can become standardized. The Stentz quartet delighted the audience with two numbers—"Smilin' Through," and "Now The Day Is Over."

Mrs. Glavich chairman of the program committee, featured a series of health talks for the literary part of the program. The first, "Health Conditions in School Buildings," was presented by Miss Flora Rathbone. Second, "Training for Health Habits in the Home," by Mrs. Threlkeld. Miss Moore discussed "Contagious Diseases and Their Control," followed by a presentation of "Proper Foods for School Children," by Mrs. Burgin.

The meeting was adjourned to meet the first Thursday in November. (Contributed.)
