

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Eleanor Bushnell, Editor

Phone 137

Local Items

Mrs. Thomas Rogers of Clyde was here Thursday. Mr. Clifford Brown of Clyde spent Thursday in town. Mrs. Hannah J. Powell, of Cecil was in town last week. Mr. A. A. Downs, of Clyde, was here on business Monday. Mrs. Carl Green, of Fines Creek, was a visitor here Thursday. Mr. Wayne McCracken of Franklin spent Friday in Waynesville. Mrs. Ellis Smart, of Crabtree, spent Thursday shopping in the city. Mrs. Dock Ensley, of Asheville, visited friends here last week. Mrs. Julia Boyd, of Jonathan, spent Thursday shopping in Waynesville. Mr. H. P. Ledbetter was among the visitors here from Pigeon last week. Mrs. John C. Ferguson of Franklin visited friends in the city Thursday. Mrs. Avery Peck of the Osborne Farm spent Thursday in Waynesville. Mrs. R. R. Ferguson of Crabtree spent Thursday shopping in the city. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ensley of Crabtree were among the visitors here last week.

Morning Coat Dress

One of the latest Parisian fashion creations for fall wear is the morning coat dress in navy woolen, with wax braid cape effect.

Mr. Sam Welch of Raleigh was a weekend guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. Howell Way. Miss Martha McCracken, who is a student at Mars Hill College, spent last weekend at home. Harold Massie spent last week-end in Athens, Georgia, and attended the Tulane-Georgia football game. Mr. Gilmer Leatherwood, of Greenville, South Carolina, spent last week-end with relatives in the city. Mrs. Eugene Carter and Miss Virginia Carter spent several days with friends in Hendersonville last week. Mrs. R. N. Barber and Miss Mary Barber returned to their home Thursday after a several days' visit in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward of Columbia, South Carolina spent last week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Woodward, at the Adger House.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Schulhofer left Friday for Aiken, South Carolina where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. D. R. Shearer, of Johnson City, Tennessee, is the guest of her sister Mrs. V. C. Nobeck.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Pritchard and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crowe of Miami spent a few days this week at Oklawaha, the suburban home of Dr. I. B. Funk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prevost left yesterday by motor for a ten day trip to St. Louis, Missouri and various northern points.

Messrs. Dewey Patton Scott Reeves and Alfred Khune attended the Tulane-Georgia football game in Athens, Georgia last Saturday.

Mr. L. M. Killian, Leon Killian, Jr., Mr. W. F. Swift, Bill Swift, Jr., and Ray Burgin expect to leave Saturday by motor for Chicago, Illinois where they will spend a week at the World's Fair.

Mr. Bolling Hall, of Memphis, Tennessee, is spending some time here in the interest of his apple orchard on the Balsam Road. Mr. Hall is a guest at the Hotel LeFaine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ragland, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ragland, Jr., and Mr. George Ragland left Saturday for their home in Louisiana after a several months stay in Waynesville and Dellwood.

Mrs. Katherine Buckley, who was in charge of the Mountain Crafts Exchange on Main street during the summer, left last week for her home in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mrs. Charles Frazier returned to her home in Atlanta, Georgia, Saturday after spending the summer in the city. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hyatt, who spent the week-end as her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Budge and Mrs. Gaston Drake, who are motoring from Boston, Massachusetts to their home in Miami, Florida will arrive today and spend a few days as guests of Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers.

Mrs. Joe Gill, who has been visiting her parents in Dallas, Texas for the past two weeks, has returned accompanied by Miss Ann Bullock of Miami, who is a guest at the Piedmont Hotel and who motored with her as far as Memphis, Tennessee.

Dr. J. R. McCracken, past grand high priest of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of North Carolina, left Sunday for Washington, D. C. to attend the general Grand Chapter meeting of the United States. He will return home next Sunday.

Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick, presiding elder of the Salisbury district, with Mrs. Kirkpatrick and daughters, Miss Frances Kirkpatrick of Salisbury, and Mrs. Willie Springle of New York City, spent several days at their cottage at Lake Junaluska this week.

U. D. C. TO HONOR DISTRICT OFFICERS AT TEA The members of the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will entertain with a tea this afternoon honoring Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, district president of U. D. C., and Mrs. Roy Marvin, district secretary. The affair will be given at the home of the chapter president, Mrs. Leon Killian.

The committee on arrangements for the tea is composed of Mrs. C. C. White, chairman, Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Roy Campbell.

HUSBANDS PARTY IS DELIGHTFUL EVENT

On Thursday evening a delightful affair took place at the Waynesville Country Club when members of the Community Club entertained their husbands and a few additional friends at the annual "Husbands' Party." The guests were greeted at the door and introduced to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Ben Colkitt, president of the club, with Mr. Colkitt, and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, chairman of social activities and her committee, Mrs. J. M. Long and Mrs. C. C. White, with Mr. Prevost, Mr. Long, and Mr. White.

The ball room of the club house presented an attractive appearance for the occasion. Wild flowers, fernery and grey moss were used in decoration and cheerful log fires burned at each end of the room.

A delightful buffet supper was served by the entertainment committee after which dancing followed. Music was furnished by a mountain string band.

The guests present besides those mentioned above were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Burgin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Coin, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Henry, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Stamey, Mrs. Tom Lee, Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. Ida Jean Brown, Miss Elizabeth Quindlan, Miss Juanita Weaver, Mrs. J. W. Weaver, Mr. Wallace Blackwell, Mr. Lee Davis and Mr. Fred Ferguson.

WAYNESVILLE VISITOR WEDS IN KNOXVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Richards, of Savannah, Georgia, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucile Mary Richards, to Mr. James Johnston Wood, III, of New York City. The young couple motored to Knoxville, Tenn., on Saturday, September 7, where the ceremony was performed by Judge S. O. Houston.

Mrs. Wood was educated at Eastern school in Hendersonville and he Pappe school in Savannah. Mr. Wood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston Wood II of New York, and he attended the University of Michigan. He is now in the advertising business.

Mrs. Wood will remain with her mother at the LeFaine hotel, where they have been for the past few months, until the twenty-first of October when she will join Mr. Wood in Florida where they will spend the winter.

LOCAL MEMBERS TO ATTEND DISTRICT D. A. R. MEET

Mrs. J. Harden Howell, regent of the Doreus Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a large delegation of chapter members will go to Asheville next Wednesday to attend the district meeting of the D. A. R. to be held at the George Vanderbilt Hotel.

The chief address of the day will be made by Mrs. Sydney P. Cooper, of Henderson. Other talks will be made by Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, district chairman for Crossnore school, and Mrs. Ralph Van Landingham of Charlotte, retiring vice-president of the national organization. Reports of chapters of the district will also give reports.

Following the morning business session a luncheon will be served in the dining with Mrs. Rouben B. Robertson as toastmistress. Mrs. J. W. Seaver of the Waynesville chapter is on the luncheon program to give a toast to Mrs. Gilbert Morris, director of the first district.

Miss Edwina McDowell will serve as nurse from the local chapter at the meeting.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and Mrs. Smathers' birthday anniversary with a delightful informal family party at their handsome home on Smathers street last Saturday evening.

Fall flowers from the garden of the hostess and many bouquets received from friends enhanced the beauty of the rooms.

A charmingly appointed dinner was served at the large dining table which was centered with a lovely birthday cake. Contrary bridge featured the evening's entertainment.

Those present for the affair included only members of the two families and one of the groomsmen at the wedding twenty-five years ago, Mr. Charles Moore, of Atlantic City, who with Mrs. Moore is a house guest of Judge and Mrs. Smathers.

P. T. A. MEETS AT EAST WAYNESVILLE

The East Waynesville Parent-Teacher Association met in regular session on Tuesday night, October 2nd. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 and reports of committees followed. Mrs. Smiley Carver was elected first vice president to succeed Mrs. Sam Platt, who recently resigned. Mrs. Matney rendered several musical selections. The district convention to be held in Asheville was brought to the attention of all members and delegates were urged to attend. Enrollment campaign week will begin October 23rd and many new members are already enrolling. An adult attendance of 45 was counted. The seventh grade, with Mr. Tom Reeves as teacher, won the half-holiday for having the highest percentage of parents present.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

U. D. C. ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. L. M. Killian was elected president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the October meeting held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hyatt.

Other officers were elected as follows: Mrs. J. M. Queen, first vice president; Mrs. G. E. Platt, second vice president.

Mrs. N. W. Garrett, secretary; Mrs. Robina Miller, treasurer; Mrs. C. C. White, historian; Mrs. W. F. Swift, registrar; Mrs. Roy Campbell, custodian of crosses.

Mrs. D. M. Killian, chaplain. The main feature of the afternoon's program was the paper given by Mrs. W. A. Hyatt on the subject, "Southern Soldiers in Northern Prisons."

During the social hour Mrs. Hyatt and Mrs. George Platt, joint hostesses for the meeting served delightful refreshments.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS

The Haywood Post No. 47, Auxiliary of the American Legion met at the LeFaine Hotel on last Monday afternoon.

After the usual order of opening the president, Mrs. E. B. Camp, called for the reports of the standing committees. She then told of a very pleasant trip to Green the Sunday before. Mrs. Camp was accompanied by Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. J. J. Brown and Miss Ida Jean Brown. Beautiful dabbles given by Mr. W. E. Shelton and Mr. Oliver Shelton were taken to the men assigned to this unit.

A discussion on the unit's obligations followed and it was decided to meet all obligations at the beginning of the year.

Mrs. Camp read an article, "Final Lines and a Fresh Page" by Mr. Alford Blackburn, National president. It was decided to hold the November meeting at the Masonic Temple at 8 p. m. at which time, Mrs. Tom Lee, Mrs. C. A. Black, and Mrs. E. A. Saunders will be hostesses.

P. T. A. COUNCIL ORGANIZED

A meeting was called on Thursday afternoon, October 5th, for the purpose of organizing a County-wide Parent-Teacher Council. All principals of schools, together with presidents of various Parent-Teacher Associations were present and heard a very interesting discussion by Mrs. C. S. Ford, District President, on the benefits of the county organization. The following officers for this council were named: Mrs. Jack Messer, chairman; Mrs. D. D. Alley, first vice president; Mrs. Carey Wells, Canton, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Hyatt, Bethel, third vice president; Mrs. Beall, Canton, treasurer; Mrs. C. Haynes, Clyde, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred Safford, Fines-Creek, corresponding secretary.

It was decided to have two meetings each year, the first to be held the last Saturday in October, immediately following the adjournment of the teachers' meeting to be held on that date.

MRS. JACK MESSER, CHAIRMAN

NEEDLE WORK GUILD INGATHERING 20TH

The day for the ingathering of garments by the Waynesville Needlework Guild has been postponed from October 18 to Friday, October 20. The garments will be on display in the building next to the Wayneswood Theatre from 2:30 until 6 p. m.

Every sort of article of wearing apparel or household linen is acceptable in the guild work but it is obvious that warm, durable, practical articles are in greatest demand during the cold winter. Two new clean garments joined together is all that is necessary for membership in the worthwhile organization.

It is hoped that every man, woman and child in the community, who is able to do so, will make some contribution to the guild ingathering so that its supply of garments will be sufficient to last until spring. Any director will be glad to receive your articles if you are not already a member of some directorate.

HAMBURGER SUPPER NEXT TUESDAY

The public is cordially invited to be at the Methodist church on next Tuesday evening for a good supper and unusual entertainment. The time is 6:30 p. m.

The young ladies' Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school will serve a hamburger supper at the low cost of 20 cents. The menu will consist of hamburgers with all accessories, 10 cents; slaw, 5 cents; spaghetti, 5 cents; pies of all kinds, 5 cents and coffee, 5 cents.

A program of musical entertainment will be furnished during the evening by representatives from the several churches.

Mr. Tracy Wyche, public accountant, who has been ill for the past six weeks, was removed to the Haywood County Hospital last Saturday from Baltimore hospital where he had been taking special treatment. While his condition shows improvement it is not expected that he will be out for some days.

Dr. G. W. Forster, head of the department of agricultural economics at State College, has been granted a leave of absence for three months to work with the tobacco section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS AND CIRCLES MEET IN SYLVIA

The Suzanna Wesley Bible Class and the Young Woman's Circle of the Methodist church held a joint social meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Fricks in Sylva. About sixteen members were present for the occasion.

Proceeding the social hour business was transacted and plans were made for a benefit supper to be held on next Tuesday night. Mrs. M. H.

Bowles was elected president of the circle to succeed Miss Margaret Hyatt. Mrs. Fricks served a delightful salad course.

Mrs. H. C. Hassell returned to her home in Tuscaloosa, Alabama Tuesday after a week-end visit to her uncle, Mr. James McLean.

READ THE ADS

Jo Ann Beauty Shop. Announces EXPERT NEW HAIRDRESSER Who Knows Style— Specializing in spiral, croquignole, and combination permanent waving. Shampoo and F. W. 50c, Marcell 50c, Haircut 35c, Children's haircut 25c, Permanents $3, $5, and $7.50. PHONE 63

PLAZA Theatre ASHEVILLE. WED. & THURS., OCT. 18 & 19 at 8:30 P. M. MATINEE, THURS., OCT. 19 at 3 P. M. WARNING: Send in your mail order now before opening of box office sale—special consideration given to patrons ordering by mail. THE WORLD'S FINEST PLAY ENTIRE ORIGINAL NEW YORK CAST "THE GREEN PASTURES" by Marc Connelly. MAIL ORDERS NOW. AMAZINGLY ATTRACTIVE PRICES: ORCHESTRA, 1st 21 rows $2.20 $1.65, ORCHESTRA, next 7 rows $1.65 $1.10, LOGES $1.10 $1.10, BOXES $1.10 $1.10, COLORED BALCONY $1.10 $1.10. Above Prices Include Govt. Tax. Please mail orders now to Plaza Theatre, Asheville, with money order or check.

SMITH'S Cut-Rate Drug Store. Big Values for Thur. Fri. Sat. & Mon. $1.00 Water Bottle, 25c KOTEX, 35c VICKS, 49c, 2 For 25c, 23c, 25c STANBACK, 25c FEENAMINT, 25c Woodbury Soap, 2 For 25c, 2 For 25c, $1.00 Wine Cardui, 69c, 40c CASTORIA, 50c Jergens Lotion, 29c, 60c SAL. HEPATICA, 25c Black Draught, 50c IPANA PASTE, 32c, 15c PUTNAM DYE, 8c, AGENTS FOR Whitman's, 10c PEPSODENT, 79c, 30c Groves L. B. Q., 24c, Martha Washington, Page & Shaws, 10c Colgates Soap, 5c, CANDY. Are You A Member of The Needlework Guild? If Not Join Today.

Overcome Pains this better way. WOMEN who get into a weak, run-down condition can hardly expect to be free from troublesome "small ailments." Where the trouble is due to weakness, Cardui helps women to get stronger and thus makes it easier for nature to take its orderly course. Promptly lessening symptoms, disappearing as a natural result of the body's improvement. Instead of depending on temporary relief during the time of suffering, Cardui to build up your resistance to womanly ailments.