MISS ELEANOR BUSHNELL WEDS MR. BEN SLOAN

(By Hilda Way Gwyn) Characterized by simplicity yet marked by dignity and impressiveness was the marriage of Miss Eleanor Staples Bushnell and Mr. Benjamin Johnson Sloan...

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar with floor standards upon which were placed silver candlesticks with white tapers and an altar with a white altar cloth...

The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in the wedding gown of her aunt Mrs. J. D. Bivens of Albemarle...

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held with the bride's father and mother the latter wearing a beige lace gown with coral velvet sash and rhinestone trimmings.

In the dining room Mrs. R. J. Sloan, aunt of the groom and Mrs. James Atkins, Jr., aunt of the groom poured coffee from a beautiful appointed table which was covered by a lace cloth and centered by a three-tier wedding cake...

The groom is the son of Mr. Hugh Johnston and the late Mrs. Linda Stringfield Sloan. He is a graduate of the Waynesville high school, and the University of North Carolina where he was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

NINTH ANNUAL DISTRICT CLUB MEETING

Interest among the club women of the town centers in the ninth annual meeting of District number one of the North Carolina Federation of women's clubs which will be held in a morning session at the First Baptist church...

The professional which will open the meeting promptly at 10:00 will be composed of the state officers, distinguished guests, state and district chairmen, presidents of all clubs in the district and the report of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution...

The address of welcome will be given by Mr. Grover Davis, of Waynesville, president of the Woman's Club and the response will be made by Mrs. T. W. Fernald of Sylva. Special music will be given under the direction of Mrs. Charles Gullett, voice teacher at Western Carolina Teachers College...

Local committees are working hard to make the occasion an out-standing success. Among these are the reception committee headed by Mrs. Grover Davis, president of the Woman's Club. Registration will be in charge of Mrs. M. C. Green of Clyde, president of the Woman's Club of that place...

MR. AND MRS. REED TO HAVE SERIES OF PARTIES Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed will entertain with a series of parties this winter with the first on Friday evening to be given in honor of their niece, Miss Allen Howell in celebration of her birthday anniversary.

ROTARIANS HAVE LADIES NIGHT

The members of the Waynesville Rotary Club were hosts to their wives and a few additional guests at dinner last Friday, the affair taking place in the dining room of the Methodist church.

For the occasion a Hallowe'en motif was used in the decorations. Autumn leaves and yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used at intervals on the long table, at which the guests were seated Paper Hallowe'en caps were used as favors and were worn by the guests during the evening leading additional color to the scene.

Rotary Club president and acted as toast-master. Rev. L. B. Hayes welcomed the ladies with a few appropriate remarks and Mrs. Wade Johnson responded.

One of the humorous features of the program was the Husband Calling contest in which Mrs. F. O. Garren was declared winner. She received a pumpkin filled with fruit as a reward for her achievement. Mr. Doyle Alley also delighted his audience with "Side Glance" of the Waynesville Rotary as given by a visitor in the city.

Mrs. D. C. Burchin is party hostess. Mrs. D. C. Burchin was hostess at a delightful affair when she entertained a number of friends yesterday at an all day quilting party at her home on Love Lane.

WESTERN DISTRICT MUSIC CLUB

The seventh annual meeting of the Western District of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs was held in Brevard last Saturday and was attended by around 150 delegates and visitors.

Miss Mildred Crawford attended the meeting as a delegate and gave the report from the Waynesville club. Other members of the local club who accompanied her were Mrs. Hugh Love, Mrs. Richard Barber Jr., Mrs. Lucile Foy and Miss Grace Crocker. Mrs. George C. McCall of Marion district district presided over the morning session which was devoted to the senior club. At her suggestion tribute was paid to the memory of Mrs. Joseph E. Johnson, late president of the Waynesville club, by a moment of silent prayer. This was followed by a musical number which was arranged for by Mrs. Johnson before her death, a violin number, "Lament of a Rose" by Cecil Burchin, played by Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr. with Miss Grace Crocker as accompanist.

THE BAPTIST "STORE" Running for some weeks the local Baptists will have a "store" managed by Mrs. W. C. Allen at her Exchange on Main street. Members and friends of the church are requested to contribute vegetables, eggs, butter, meats, flour, meal, canned goods, or any other salable product or article and everybody is requested to buy.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS OCTOBER MEET

The second meeting of the club year was held by the Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. Wade Johnson on Academy street with Mrs. H. W. Baucom, associate hostess. In the absence of Mrs. Baucom who was ill, Mrs. W. T. Crawford acted as substitute. Mrs. Johnson was also assisted by Mrs. T. L. Bramlett, Miss Garvin and her daughter Edna Dale Johnson.

In passing, it is a pleasure to say that this lovely and spacious home of the pastor of the Methodist church is a beautiful expression of the loyalty and untiring energy of Southern Methodist women in and around Waynesville many of whom are members of the various clubs of the town.

The treasurer, Mrs. Blackwell reported money which had been received from the Citizens Bank and Trust Company, $10.00 was voted the town library. Mr. J. B. Ivey was thanked for his usual valuable in-charge in the dahlia show and Mr. Oscar Briggs for assistance at both the dahlia and quilt shows.

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish Feeling "I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine. P. S. -- If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theford's Black-Draught.
