PAUL IN JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13:1-3, 10-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Now the Lord is with you, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, 11 Cor. 3:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Setting a Disciple.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Only Way.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Looking to the Church for Guidance.

YOUTH PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Heeding the Voice of the Church.

I. The Controversy in the Church at Antioch (vv. 1-13).

The occasion of the controversy was the return of Paul and Barnabas from their first missionary journey. Upon their return they gathered the church together and rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. The difficulty was a most serious one, for it threatened the disruption of the church into a Jewish and Gentile division. The point at issue was not the admission of the Gentiles into the church. That had been settled some years before when Peter received Cornelius and his household. The question now was: On what ground could they be received? Should Gentile converts be required to keep the Mosaic law as a condition of salvation? That which brought this issue into prominence was the coming of certain men from Jerusalem who declared, "Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved" (v. 1). The problem was so difficult that Paul and Barnabas were unable to put these men to silence. The brethren at Antioch decided to refer the matter to the mother church at Jerusalem. Accordingly, Paul, Barnabas, and others were sent as a deputation to Jerusalem. On the way they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the news of the conversion of the Gentiles.

II. The Deliberations of the Council (vv. 14-22).

1. Peter's address (vv. 14-17). He argued that God had borne witness of his acceptance of the Gentiles by giving his Holy Spirit unto them as unto the Jews (Acts 10:45). Since, therefore, God had not put a difference, it would be folly for them to do so.

2. Paul and Barnabas rehearse their experience (v. 12). They told how that God had set his seal of approval on their preaching of salvation by grace through faith apart from works.

3. The argument of James (vv. 13-21). He showed how the truth declared by Peter harmonized with the prophecy of Amos (Amos 9:11-15). He made it clear that the reception of the Gentiles was not in conflict with God's plan, but in strict harmony therewith. God's plan, as set forth in James' speech, is as follows:

a. God would visit the Gentiles to take out from among them a people for his name (v. 14). This is what is now going on—the worldwide preaching of the gospel and the calling out of the church.

b. After the completion and removal of the church from the world, Israel as a nation will be converted and restored to their land with all its privileges by the Lord himself upon his return (vv. 16, 17a). The building again of the tabernacle of David means the restoration of the Davidic throne. Gabriel, in announcing to Mary the birth of Jesus, said, "The Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David" (Luke 1:32).

c. This will be followed by the conversion of the world through the agency of converted Israel (v. 17b, cf. Rom. 11:15). He showed that there is no conflict when the Scriptures are rightly divided.

d. James' proposition (vv. 19-21). His judgment was that the Gentiles should not be troubled with the things which were Jewish, but should be warned against the perils of heathenism, such as meat offered to idols, fornication, from things strangled, and from blood.

III. The Decision of the Council (vv. 22-29).

The mother church accepted the resolution offered by James and came to a unanimous agreement. They not only sent a letter stating the decision of the conference, but took the wise precaution to send influential men along with Paul and Barnabas to bear the same testimony by word of mouth. This letter denied the authority of the Judaizing teachers (v. 24), and declared the method by which this decision had been reached (vv. 25-27). They wisely put the Holy Spirit first.

IV. The Decision Delivered to the Church (vv. 30-35).

The church at Antioch was called together to hear this report. Its reading brought great rejoicing.

The Abiding Presence

The promise of Christ that he would remain with his own, even to the end of the world, though given primarily to his apostles, was not for them alone, but for all who should believe in him through their teaching and that of their successors.

Meditation of Christ

Let it be today. Shut yourself in, sit down to think, and to meditate, and to read that which will assist your thoughts about him, and your meditations on him.

TO SAVE NIAGARA FALLS

After several years of discussion a treaty was signed by Canada and the United States looking to the preservation of Niagara Falls and a joint board recommended a $7,500,000 program for this purpose. After an investigation of conditions.

The rate of erosion was found by the board to be not so great as was feared being very slight on the American side and from three to four feet a year on the Horseshoe. Extensive protective work was recommended, however, in connection with which it is believed that considerable additional water may be diverted for power purposes without effecting the scenic beauty of the Falls.

Much anxiety has been felt concerning the possibility of a serious impairment of the grandeur of this great natural spectacle therefore the action of the two governments in providing for its preservation will be approved by the people of both countries.

DISTRESS AFTER MEALS

Relieved By Black-Draught

"I had sour stomach and gas," writes Mr. Jess Higgins, of Dawsonville, Ga., "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Theodore's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."

Get a package at the store. Try it! Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SURE P, for CHILDREN.
