HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL A SUCCESS

The Halloween Carnival held at the Hazelwood School Friday night proved a decided success. The forty-five minute program consisted of string music by Messrs. Belt, Winchester, Allen, Ray Belt and Franklin and a negro comedy "Whars My Pants," played by Miss Mayme Leatherwood, Mrs. Hestie Gaddy, Mrs. Blake Hamilton and Messrs. Raymond Scates, James Kuykendall, Sam Knight. After the program various booths were opened and proved quite popular. The amount cleared after expenses was $50.00 which will be deposited in the treasury of P. T. A. for school expenses.

Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc.

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUCKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.

BETTY MOWDY IS PARTY HOSTESS

Little Miss Betty Mowdy celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary on Monday afternoon with a lovely party at her home on Welch street.

The Halloween motif prevailed throughout the affair. Chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used in decoration and black cats, witches and jack-o-lanterns gave the desired spooky effect. A witch's den where fortunes were read provided much amusement during the afternoon. After various stunts and games appropriate to the occasion the children were invited in the dining room where ice cream, cake and candy were served. The table was centered with a lovely birthday cake and flanked with candles in the chosen colors. Halloween favors marked each plate.

MRS. GRADY ROGERS IS HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. J. P. Dicus and Mrs. Charles Burgin were joint hostesses at a charming party on last Thursday afternoon, entertaining at the home of the former in honor of Mrs. Grady Rogers, a recent bride.

The home was lovely in its decorations of marigolds and autumn leaves with the Halloween motif carried out in various details. A feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the flower romance contest in which Mrs. Rufus Siler and Mrs. W. S. Patterson were declared winners. They received lovely black vases filled with yellow chrysanthemums as prizes. Each guest brought to the party her favorite recipe and these were compiled in a book and presented to the bride. As the concluding feature an ice course was served which further carried out the Halloween colors of yellow and black.

The guests present included the honoree and Mrs. S. L. White, Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. C. M. Dicus, Mrs. Theodore McCracken, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. Felix Alley, Mrs. J. R. Latham, Mrs. Kate Morris, Mrs. R. L. Coon, Mrs. R. Q. McCracken, Mrs. G. C. Platt, Mrs. W. S. Patterson, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. P. L. Turbyll, and Mrs. E. B. McClure.

MISSSES ALDEN HOWELL AND MARGUERITE MURPHY HOSTESSES

Misses Alden Howell and Miss Marguerite Murphy were joint hostesses at a delightful Halloween party on last Friday evening entertaining at the home of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Reed on Woolsey Heights.

Halloween decorations prevailed throughout the rooms where the guests were received and effectively suggested the witchland fantasy. Black cats, goblins and weird pumpkins started from advantageous nooks and crannies in their black regalia dashed about on broom sticks dominating the scene. The "spooky" atmosphere was furthered by the costumes of the guests.

A marshmallow treat and Halloween games and contests furnished amusement throughout the evening. James Latham received the prize in the contest. The young hostesses served orange-ade salad, and sandwiches carrying out the seasonal colors as the concluding feature of the entertainment.

The invited guests were Misses Katherine Martin, Hilda Way, Eileen Massie, Vera Hosablock, Sara Jane Walker, Iris Chafin, Victor Noback, Glen Bourneau, Marcus Rose, James Latham, Henry Tuttle, Robert Platt, and Thad Chafin.

MRS. JONES AND MRS. PATRICK JOINT HOSTESSES

One of the loveliest affairs of the autumn season was the bridge party given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. C. Patrick and Mrs. Woodson Jones at the home of Mrs. Patrick.

Decorations were in the Halloween spirit. The rooms were charmingly arranged with chrysanthemums and marigolds and the autumn motif was carried out in the tallies and salad course served at the conclusion of the games.

Mrs. Rufus Siler was awarded the top score prize and Mrs. Joe Tate, who scored second high also was presented a gift. Mrs. J. M. Long won the consolation prize.

Those playing bridge were: Mrs. J. M. Long, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. C. M. Dicus, Mrs. Graden Ferguson, Mrs. Diana Shoubread, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. R. L. Coon, Mrs. James Tutwiler, Mrs. Joe Tate, Mrs. J. W. Seaver, Mrs. Dewey Noland, Mrs. John Hodges, Mrs. Wilford Ray, Miss Margaret Heatt, Miss Eula Patterson, Miss Louise Edwards, Miss Ethel Craig, Mrs. N. M. Medford, Mrs. Hugh Massey, Mrs. Charles Burgin, Mrs. M. G. Stamey, and Mrs. W. F. Swift.

The tea guests were: Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Grady Rogers, Mrs. Paul Walker, Misses Daisy and Bess Boyd and Mrs. Dewey Stovall.

MR. AND MRS. REED OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Outstanding among the social events of the season was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. James Wood Reed at their home on Woolsey Heights on last Saturday evening in celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed were married in Selma, Alabama at the Methodist church with the Rev. Dr. Hurt officiating. They made their home for a year in New York City and for twenty-three years have lived in Waynesville.

The mantle in the living room was decorated with the wedding pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Reed and lovely photographs of the church at the time of the wedding. A small improvised altar with cathedral candles occupied one end of the room.

Colorful decorations of autumn foliage and fall flowers, together with elaborate arrangements of Halloween devices of black cats, witches with their brooms, gleaming jack-o-lanterns and other seasonal symbols formed the setting for the affair.

The guests were greeted at the front door by Mrs. Maria Mitchell and Mrs. Miriam W. Dewey, mother of the hostess.

For the occasion Mrs. Reed wore her wedding gown which was made of hand-made imported lace and her wedding veil. She wore orchids and carried the fan and handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother which she carried at her wedding.

In the hall up stairs a string band furnished music for a square dance and downstairs tables were arranged for bridge. Punch and cake were served during the evening at a beautifully appointed table in the dining room. A lovely two-tier wedding cake decorated in green and white and topped with a miniature English bride and groom under a wedding bell was cut at a late hour.

A handsome radio was presented to the hosts by the guests attending the party. About ninety friends called during the evening.

MRS. STRETCHER IS HOSTESS TO MUSIC CLUB

Mrs. R. H. Stretcher was hostess to the Waynesville Music Club on Saturday afternoon, October 28th. Mrs. Hugh Love, the newly elected president, presided over the business session which was opened by the club collect.

The club discussed as a project of this year's work the possibility of bringing to Waynesville some artistic notes. Some such undertaking is considered for the near future. Reports were heard from the delegates to the district meeting in Breward.

Miss Mildred Crawford, leader of the afternoon's program on American Music, gave in her usual unique manner an interesting introduction, and sketch of Lowell Mason. She used the following numbers on her program:

- 1. Hymns—(a) Missionary Hymn—Lowell Mason.
- (b) Safely Through Another Week.
- (c) Hark! Ten Thousand Harps!

Mrs. E. B. Camp, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. H. B. Foy, Miss S. W. Lindsley, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Love.

- 2. Folk Song—Negro Spiritual—"Steal Away to Jesus"—Mrs. L. M. Richeson, accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Love.
- 3. Instrumental Solo—"Improvisation"—MacDowell—Mrs. R. H. Stretcher.

As the last number on the program Miss Margaret Stringfield played an original composition, arranged to fit the words of a poem written by Ova Plamondon Boyd, entitled "Hymn To The Great Smokies."

After the program the hostess, assisted by Mrs. S. P. Gay, served a delicious salad course.

Publicity Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin McInnes returned to their home Friday after a week's visit to Omaha, Nebraska.

Chesterfield A Balanced Blend

I keep coming back to that word "balanced" on the back of the Chesterfield package

YOU often hear the word balance—something is out of balance—top-heavy, not on an "even keel."

What you read, "Chesterfield Cigarettes are a balanced blend," means that the right amounts of the right kinds of tobacco are welded together; that is, home-grown tobaccos, the right kind, the right quantity—are blended and cross-blended with tobaccos from Turkey and Greece.

When these tobaccos are balanced one against the other, then you have a mild cigarette.

When they are in balance, then you have a better-tasting cigarette.

May we ask you to read again the statement on the back of the Chesterfield package? May we ask you to try Chesterfield?
