

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for November 12

PAUL IN MACEDONIA

THESE THINGS ARE TO BE REMEMBERED:—A. A. The word of God on the Lord Jesus Christ, which is the power of God unto salvation, should be saved, and the people should be saved.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A. Happy People.
ADULT TOPIC—A. A. The word of God on the Lord Jesus Christ, which is the power of God unto salvation, should be saved, and the people should be saved.

1. Forbidden to Preach in Asia (v. 6, 8).
The inclination of the missionaries was to tarry in Asia Minor, preaching the word, but they were hurried along, contrary to this inclination—a fine example of divine guidance. The Holy Spirit is just as active and faithful in closing doors as in opening them. "The steps as well as the steps of a good man are ordered of the Lord."

II. The Call to Macedonia (v. 9, 12).
The time had now come for the gospel to begin its conquest of another continent. The crossing of the gospel from Asia to Europe determined the entire history of the church. Instead of being an oriental movement, it became mainly occidental.

2. The vision (v. 9). Paul being hemmed in on all sides, experienced a vision of a man of Macedonia pleading for help. This made clear the meaning of the closed doors about him.

2. The advance (v. 10-12). As soon as the divine way was known they moved forward.

III. The First European Convert (v. 13-15).

The Jewish element in Philippi was so small that they were unable to afford a synagogue. Therefore, the devout people were accustomed to worship by the river side. To this humble gathering Paul came and preached. Lydia, a business woman of Thyatira, believed his message and was baptized. The steps in her conversion were strikingly typical—

1. Attendance at the place of worship (v. 13). Usually those whom God is calling are found in the place of prayer.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (v. 13, 14). The instrument used in the conversion of sinners is God's Word. "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God" (Rom. 10:17).

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14). When the gospel is preached the Spirit of God opens the sinner's heart for the reception of Christ.

4. She was baptized (v. 15). Confession of Christ in baptism is the natural desire of those whose hearts the Lord has opened.

5. Hospitality practiced (v. 15). Those who experience God's saving grace are disposed to have part in his work by aiding his ministers.

IV. Paul and Silas in a Roman Prison (v. 16-30).

1. The occasion (v. 16-24). As the missionaries went to the place of prayer they were accosted by a young woman who possessed a spirit of divination. In the name of Jesus Christ, Paul commanded the evil spirit to come out of her. With the casting out of this evil spirit went the supernatural power which was a source of revenue to the syndicate of men who owned her. This so enraged her owners that they brought Paul and Silas before the magistrates on a false charge. Without opportunity to defend themselves Paul and Silas were stripped, beaten by the angry mob, remanded to jail, and were made fast by stocks in the inner prison.

2. Their behavior in jail (v. 25). They prayed and sang hymns to God. In spite of circumstances their hearts went up to God in joyful gratitude.

3. Their deliverance (v. 26). The Lord wrought deliverance by sending a great earthquake which opened the prison doors and removed the chains from off their hands.

4. The conversion of the jailer (v. 27-34). What he heard of Paul's preaching and through his present experience, made the jailer a humble inquirer after salvation. Paul clearly pointed out the way of salvation.

5. The magistrates humbled (v. 25, 40).
a. The prisoners ordered released (v. 35, 36). The earthquake produced fear in them, moving them to order the prisoners' release.

b. Paul's refusal to go (v. 3). The ground of his refusal was that their rights as Roman citizens had been violated.

c. Officially brought out of prison (v. 38, 39). Because these were Roman citizens, the officers removed them with fear for what they had done.

Power
When a man receives the Lord Jesus Christ he is to realize that he also receives the power of God to pass through all his being, and to be exhibited in the world for the glory of God and for the salvation of others.

Never Mind How Many!
It is fatal to all courage and energy to begin with counting our foes, instead of realizing the strength of our ally. Greater is he that is for us than they that are against us.—Dr. A. Alexander MacLaren.
