WOMAN'S CLUB SPONSORS POSTER CONTEST IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

In observance of Book Week, November 12-18, the Woman's Club sponsored a poster contest for the children in the 3, 4, 5th and 7th grades of the township schools.

The response of the school was most gratifying. In each school a number of attractive entries were exhibited showing the keen interest as well as the talent of the children. A prize subscription to the library was offered each school for the best poster.

The school entering the contest were Hazlewood Elementary prize winner; Marie Gibson, 7th Grade; Central Elementary prize winner; Marie Smith 7th Grade; East Waynesville, prize winner; Anna May Medford.

The other posters with those receiving honorable mention are on exhibit at the Waynesville Library.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. H. W. Bacon and Mrs. Homer Henry.

MRS. CAMPBELL IS PARTY HOSTESS

MRS. McDOWELL IS HOSTESS TO WOMAN'S CLUB

The Waynesville Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. C. H. McDowell on Thursday afternoon with Miss Mary K. Ector as assistant hostess.

The meeting opened with the club hymn followed by the collection. The president, Mrs. Grover E. Davis, presided.

Mrs. Daisy Boyd, chairman of education, announced she was holding a contest in the Waynesville schools for the best poster made during Children's Book Week. The following were appointed to serve as judges in the contest: Mrs. H. W. Bacon, Mrs. Homer Henry and Mrs. R. N. Barber. The president reported that 50 magazines had recently been sent to the Hazlewood County Hospital. Robert was expressed over the resignation of Mrs. Lauriston Hardin as secretary and Mrs. J. P. Knight was elected to serve in her place.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell gave a very interesting account of the district meeting recently held here. Mrs. R. N. Barber, district president, spoke to the club on the work of the district, pledging her support to the interests of the club in the first district. Mrs. W. H. Luther presented the proposed laws affecting the sale of foods, drugs, and cosmetics. The club voted to endorse the movement.

For the year the club has taken up the Study of Bible Literature. Miss Louise Edwards had charge of the program for the afternoon, the subject of which was "The Christ Revealed." She made a splendid talk in which she interpreted the scripture dealing with the first appearance of the Holy Ghost to Mary and followed up the purification that He was the Christ as given in the four gospels.

The club members and guests were invited into a very attractively decorated dining room where the hostess, assisted by Miss Edwina Mc Dowell and Miss Lois Harrold, served a splendid course.

Special guests were: Miss Anne Jones, Miss Mamie Michael, Mr. S. C. Boston and Mrs. James W. Reed. Publicity Chairman.

Mrs. M. H. Bowles, Mrs. Tom Lee, Jr., and Miss Betsey Lane Quinlan were Asheville visitors Tuesday.

MRS. WILFORD RAY ENTERTAINS NEW YORK VISITOR

One of the loveliest social events of the fall season was the bridge party given on last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Wilford Ray at her home on Academy street as a courtesy to Mrs. Nancy Jane Riddle, charming visitor of New York City. Mrs. Riddle is resident buyer for C. E. Ray's Sons Ready-to-Wear Department.

The hand-ome home, thrown on suite for the occasion, was adorned with vase of yellow chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley. The color combination of yellow and red was attractively noted in all party appointments.

At the close of the game, a salad and an ice course were served in which the chosen colors were used. The table was centered with a small yellow basket filled with red berries and evergreen and miniature turkeys were at each place as favors.

When the scores were totaled prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Bell, who held high and Mrs. Frank Hodges, who cut the consolation. Pretty gifts were also presented to the honoree, and Mrs. Ben Sloan, a recent bride.

The guest, present were: Mrs. Carol Bell, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. J. Frank Hodges, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. J. C. Patrick, Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mrs. R. L. MR. AND MRS. DILLARD OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY IN ATLANTA

Of interest here, was the anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Dillard at their home in Atlanta, Georgia recently. The following account is from the Atlanta consultation:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Dillard celebration of their silver wedding anniversary on Powers Ferry road in celebrating their silver wedding anniversary and the handsome home presented a scene of exquisite floral beauty with its decorations of ferns, white and yellow chrysanthemums and tallismen roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard received their guests standing before an improvised altar banked with ferns and silver vases holding yellow and white chrysanthemums and roses. Appropriate musical selections were rendered by the orchestra during the evening. A buffet supper was served and in the dining room the table was overlaid with an Italian cut-work cloth over yellow satin and had for its central decoration a silver bowl filled with yellow and white roses encircled by silver candelabra holding yellow candles. Coffee was served from an exquisitely wrought silver service.

Mrs. Dillard was a charming figure wearing a gown of white satin, embroidered in crystal and silver beads. She carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and tallismen roses. Mrs. Clifton Moody of Waynesville, sister of Mrs. Dillard, was attractively gowned in black satin. Her flowers were gardenias. Miss Louise Moody wore a smart gown of blue satin, the only trimming of the lovely costume being a pair of rhinestone neck clips. She carried tallismen roses. Miss Josephine Davis was gowned in shell pink satin. A wrist corsage of valley lilies completed the charming effect.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rhinehart of Canton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen, of Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Barnett, of Murphy; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moody and Miss Louise Moody, Miss Nancy Killian, and Miss Josephine Davis, of Waynesville; and Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, of Sylva.

HAZELWOOD P. T. A. MEETS

The Hazelwood Parent-Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting at the school house Tuesday evening, November 14, with the largest attendance of the year. In the absence of the president, Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mr. Beam presided. There were no business matters to be attended to with the exception of the treasurer's report. After this was read the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Knight's fifth grade which presented a splendid four act Armistice play.

There being no further business the association adjourned to meet the second Tuesday in December. WILDA CRAWFORD Sec.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford returned to her home yesterday from Durham where she spent several days visiting her son, Mr. Fred Crawford, senior at Duke University and famous Duke football player. She was extensively entertained during her stay in Durham by members of the university faculty and coaching staff. Mrs. Crawford also attended the State Baptist Convention in Greensboro last week and visited friends in Winston-Salem.

MRS. J. K. BOONE HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Charming in every detail was the luncheon given on Thursday by Mrs. Hugh Massie honoring her mother, Mrs. J. K. Boone. The occasion was in celebration of the birthday anniversary of the guest of honor.

The home was lovely in its decoration of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow was the chosen color for all party appointments. The large table in the dining room was graced with an evergreen bowl of chrysanthemums and this same effect was noted at the smaller tables. Each guest's place was marked with a yellow and gold ceramicum filled with nuts and candy. When the dessert course was served a beautifully decorated birthday cake holding lighted yellow candles was placed in front of the honoree.

Mrs. Massie was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Mrs. Rufa Siler.

The guests present were: Mrs. Boone and Mrs. M. L. Hayes, Mrs. Felix Alley, Mr. J. L. Weaver, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. H. G. West, Mrs. E. J. Ralston, Mrs. Wesley Brown, Mrs. P. E. Turbyfill, Mrs. B.
