HARMON MOORE NAMED PRESIDENT OF DUKE ALUMNI

Harmon Moore of Canton was elected president of the Haywood County Chapter of Duke University alumni at the conclusion of the Duke University Day celebration held in the dining room of the Methodist church Monday night. Approximately 45 members of the organization were present.

Other officers elected were: Frank Ferguson, first vice president; Miss Margaret Hyatt, second vice president; Miss Martha Mock, secretary and Miss Stephanie Moore, alumnae secretary.

The principal speaker of the evening was Dr. Robert Rankin, professor of political science and assistant dean of the graduate school of Duke University. Dr. Rankin made an interesting talk on Duke and Its Activities. This was followed by a round table discussion by the alumni in which suggestions were offered for promoting Duke summer school at Lake Junaluska.

Interesting short talks were made by Mr. M. H. Bowles, whose subject was "How to Prepare High School Student for College Work," Dr. A. P. Cline, of Canton, and Miss Martha Mock, who spoke on subjects relating to Duke University.

Among the special guests for the occasion were Mrs. W. T. Crawford, mother of Duke's famous All-American tackle; Rev. and Mrs. Clark of Canton and Rev. and Mrs. Paul Hardin Jr. and Mrs. Rankin.

A turkey dinner was served by members of the Suzanne Wesley Bible class, of the Methodist Sunday School.
