

What Happened In Haywood During 1933

January

County agent office discontinued on 10th.

C. B. Atkinson named to succeed Major Howell who is in Legislature at Raleigh.

Post office shows a loss of 25 per cent over 1931.

Over 600 license tags are sold by January 5th in Waynesville.

W. P. Leatherwood buried on 5th.

$15,000 allotted welfare work in county for January and February.

L. M. Welch, 90, died on 10th.

First National Bank declares dividend.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Garrett open garage home.

Three schools are closed because of "flu."

Petitions presented to commissioners asking that county agent's work be resumed.

$6,000 verdict favoring Mrs. Lillie Harbeck returned against Woolworth Company, Asheville.

Francis L. Fisher died on 19th.

Judge Walter E. Moore died on 23rd in Asheville.

Felix E. Alley is appointed judge in place of Judge Moore.

Slick Tongued Salesman "gips" smokers for $150 on Main street.

February

Over 150 people witness Judge Alley take oath of office as judge.

Large audience hears Rev. J. R. Williams preach at revival at Presbyterian church.

James L. Palmer died on 2nd.

Two hundred Masons held meeting here.

Three young men sentenced to 10 to 15 years to penitentiary for holding up filling station near Lake Junaluska. (Ed. Note—One of these men, Clay Creamsman, escaped last week from the state penitentiary.)

Traffic lights are discontinued in city.

Jury finds Charlie Rice not guilty of slaying Deputy Sheriff Will Ray. Shefford Farm house destroyed by fire 15th.

W. M. Francis died on 15th.

Tom Cope found guilty of manslaughter. (Arrived to state prison last week.)

Depot street is widened.

Joe Turbyfill died on 23rd.

E. A. Burgin enters mail carrier on 28th.

S. J. Schultze passes away on 11th.

Route four from post office discontinued.

Mr. S. J. Limer dies on 28th.

March

City board will not sell water shed timber.

R. H. Dymore buried at Clyde on 6th.

R. V. and Wm. Erk buy Wall-Savory Company.

Banking holiday is taken county wide.

Bradley House buy insurance company from J. M. Newton.

Plans for reopening Citizens Bank abandoned.

First National Bank opens 16th after bank holiday.

C. M. Dicus proposes a district chamber of commerce.

T. J. Cathey named county auditor.

R. H. Henson commits suicide after shooting at an officer.

Judge J. N. Mease buried at Canton on 19th.

Over $10,000 turned in at bank and post office since "no gold hoarding" law passed.

Mrs. Mary Gwynn dies in Canton on 16th.

Bonnet Ray was buried here on 27th.

Clearing of right-of-way of Soco Gap Road started on 27th.

Mrs. James McLean buried 30th.

Arthur Francis wins district speaking contest.

April

L. J. Brown buried here on first.

Beer Bill introduced by Senator Francis passes General Assembly.

Congressman Weaver urges President Roosevelt to do work in park.

Merchants decide to close stores at seven o'clock.

District Chamber of Commerce organized.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge visits Lake Junaluska.

Thirty tons of mica shipped from Eureka mine on 12th.

Rotarians elect B. D. Bunn president.

$1,800,000 cut from tax assessments in county.

Large gladiola farm located here.

Lee Setzer is killed when struck by truck at Dellwood.

Five hundred Methodist women attend conference here.

Constable James Chambers dies from pistol wounds alleged to have been fired by Marshall Jenkins.

Million and a half gladiola bulbs planted by Kirchhoff.

Robbers get $228 from Bank of Clyde vault.

New College established on Gwynn farm.

May

R. Atkinson wins in Mayor's race.

W. L. Hardin, Jr., Sam H. Jones and J. H. Way elected aldermen.

Fifty-three graduates receive their diplomas at high school on second.

J. C. Fisher dies at Hazelwood on second.

Return of Lee is taken quietly in city.

Masses Department Store moves into new building.

Horse racing bill will not be voted on by commissioners.

Tenth District Methodist Society met here 17th.

Haywood county included in bank of local law.

Jack McLean appointed county superintendent of education to succeed Homer Henry.

Engineers completed survey of extension of highway 293.

Large crowd at annual Flower Show.

June

County receives $275 from beer license.

Park sign erected across Main street.

Frank Meade Playground opens June first.

Two additional trains put into service on Murphy branch.

Jerry Limer given contract to build $12,000 Nurse's Home.

Frank W. Miller named on State Highway Board.

J. L. Stringfield succeeds Fred Caldwell as Chief of Police.

Smith's Drug Store has formal opening on 15th.

Mrs. Allen Noland 99 buried on 10th.

Ben Kerley, 20, is killed in auto wreck at Balsam on 9th.

State College presents Arthur Osborn and two sisters with honors on 12th.

S. Grogan, 84, buried in Canton on 20th.

Mrs. Jane Carson buried at Clyde on 18th.

Chas. E. Ray, Jr. enters business here with his brother J. W. Ray.

Sanitary officer retained by commissioners.

Baptist revival drawing large crowds.

Mrs. C. W. Allen buried in Jackson county on 28th.

July

Girl drowns at Lake Junaluska Camp for Girls lake while swimming alone.

Congressman Weaver expects park to open early in 1934.

County observes safe and sane Fourth of July.

Mrs. J. R. West, 42, buried July 4th.

Harvey Price commits suicide at Fines Creek.

Doyle Alley named state vice president of Young Democrats.

W. E. Shelton appointed United States Commissioner.

Mrs. Mary F. Quinlan dies on 11th.

Court opens on 10th with Judge Felix E. Alley presiding.

Mrs. Isabel Ferguson, principal speaker at Young Democratic Convention.

Charles West shoot at two people then commit suicide on 15th.

Jury returns verdict of first degree murder in Homer Brown case for slaying wife. He is first white man ever found guilty of first degree murder in Haywood county.

One hundred sixty-three people in county file income tax report.

M. H. Bowles named superintendent of Wayneville school.

Jim Southland in jail charged with killing brother in Caldwell.

Mrs. Sarah Haynes dies on 31st.

August

E. B. Robinson and John Michon purchase 2,000 acres of timber in East Fork.

President Roosevelt signs order for spending $1,000,000 on park lands.

John W. Doan 77 dies on first.

Arthur Francis named secretary of state farm bureau.

England-Waters increase wages thirty per cent.

James Sheffield and son Leonard held for slaying of Bud Miller.

General Hams von Below dies at hotel on 6th.

Highway 284 being surveyed in preparation for paving.

Hazelwood, Waynesville and Clyde advertise delinquent taxes on 10th.

City tax rate is set at $2.20.

Mrs. Johnson Smith killed when car hits car at Clyde.

Flower Show August 22 said to be best ever held here.

W. H. Allen dies on 24th.

A. J. A. Lee dies on 24th.

Asheville School for Boys defeated Waynesville 20 to 0.

Two wrecks on South Main street on 22nd. Cars damaged, none of occupants injured.

Chevrolet Agency opened here with M. D. Watkins owner.

September

County school budget set at $92,674.50 by school board.

Telephones in court house offices are disconnected.

Mrs. Sarah Boyd dies on September 4th.

Dr. F. M. Martin commits suicide on 4th. Ill health reason.

T. J. Cathey named county purchasing agent.

Dahlia show draws large crowd on 12th.

Clyde chief of police bound to court for assault.

State made drastic cut in school allotments for county.

Dr. F. M. Davis named county chairman of repeaters.

Methodist revival drawing large crowds.

Benson Phillips dies on 16th.

Proposed health zone would include Haywood county.

Clyde P. T. A. held first meeting of year on 14th.

Thomas Price, slain on Lickstone Mount on 24th. Four men are held in jail charged with slaying. Hearing given defendants on September 28th.

Wayneville wins over Andrew 53 to 0.

October

Dry named James Atkins Jr. a candidate.

The books show that there are 1757 dogs in county.

Asheville and Waynesville tied 6-6 in football game.

Two members of city police force asked to resign.

J. M. Mease passes away on 5th.

Arthur Triantafyllidis held for killing Canton school boy with truck.

Triplets born to Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Green on Friday 13th.

One hundred and fifty attend district welfare conference here.

Mountaineers held Christ School 1-137 score.

Plans abandoned for building tunnel through mountain to park on highway 293.

Community fair held on 21st a best ever held here.

W. H. Allen dies on 23rd.

A. J. A. Lee dies on 24th.

Asheville School for Boys defeated Waynesville 20 to 0.

Two wrecks on South Main street on 22nd. Cars damaged, none of occupants injured.

Chevrolet Agency opened here with M. D. Watkins owner.

November

Repeatist and dyes stage last minute drive in county before election.

Roberts enter A. P. Stern here twice.

Fugitive for 19 years surrenders to Sheriff J. A. Lowe.

Mrs. W. H. Terrell dies on 9th.

Dry wins in state and county by two to one.

Col. S. A. Jones die on 9th.

W. H. Nichols passes away on 13th.

Ravenford Lumber company awarded $1,057,190 for park holdings.

Parkto Park highway is assured by Secretary Ickes.

Boards of Waynesville and Hazelwood to apply for loan to build sewer line to Lake Junaluska.

995 to be given work in county under CWA by December 15th.

Rev. Paul Hardin Jr. sent here as pastor of Methodist church. Rev. Wade Johnson transferred to Charlotte.

Telephones are put back in county offices.

Mr. M. H. Reeves passed away on 24th.

D. M. Kilham dies on 27th.

21 day Blacklock murder case gets under way on 30th.

December

W. Roy Francis named assistant United States District attorney.

Waynesville Mountaineer wins football champions of Western North Carolina.

Memorial service held for the late Judge Walter E. Moore on 4th.

Mrs. C. P. Clark dies November 29th.

Over 1200 men registered at re-employing office by 30th of December.

James Sheffield found guilty of first degree murder of Bud Miller. Potters and Bedford went on trial for their lives on 12th.

Jack Mosser named superintendent of Baptist Sunday School.

Dr. G. P. Green dies on 18th.

W. H. Henderson passed away 17th.

Seven fire trucks are ordered to Raleigh.

Dewey Porter sentenced to "pen" 20 to 25 years for Price murder.

Holiday business shows an increase over last year.

Over 100 attend banquet honoring Freddie Crawford, all-American Duke football star.

Flowers are urged to sign for tobacco crop reduction.

Boy Clont killed on 29th when piece of his hat hit in head.

Mrs. Stoney buried at Canton on 27th.

Glenn and Della Medford shot at filling station on highway No. 19.

New Car Sales In State Show Increase

Raleigh, North Carolina during the first 11 months of this year bought nearly twice as many automobiles as during the same period of 1932 and sales in November were nearly three times as great as in November last year.

L. S. Harris, director of the state motor vehicle bureau today reported 2,320 new passenger cars and 455 trucks or 2,775 vehicles were sold in the state in November, compared with 912 new cars and 188 trucks, or 1,100 vehicles in the month last year.

Thus far this year 26,263 new cars and 5,960 new trucks, or 32,223 vehicles, have been sold as compared with 14,166 new cars and 3,396 new trucks, or 17,562 vehicles for 11 months of 1932.

Lady in Art Shop I must say I cannot see anything beautiful in these futuristic paintings.

Police Clerk: Pardon me, madam, that is an antique mirror you are looking at.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of G. Dellwyn Green, deceased, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate to present them to the undersigned on or before the 1st day of January, 1934 or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.

All persons indebted to said estate will please make payment immediately.

This 1st day of January, 1934

J. R. BOYD, Executor of the estate of G. Dellwyn Green, deceased.

No. 116, Jan. 1-11-18-25 Feb. 1-8.

BETTER PRINTING BETTER RESULTS

Well printed letterheads will give a certain prestige to your firm among those people whom you write letters—well designed advertising matter positively stimulates sales and acts as a booster to your representatives—while neat properly planned office and accounting forms promote efficiency in the book-keeping department of your business.

We are here to give you better printing, so that you can bring yourself better results.

Phone 137

The Mountaineer

Printers of Better Printing

The Largest Printing Plant West of Asheville

SHE WAS THE BOMBSHELL OF HOLLYWOOD!

With sheepdogs to right of her, hang-dog relatives to left of her, and an irrepressible press-agent always two jumps ahead of her, making her romance of today the front-page news of tomorrow—no wonder she blew up!

A story of Hollywood as explosive as its title, punctuated with brilliant laughs and satirical thrusts at the make-believe of Filmdom.

There are explosions of laughter and excitement in every chapter of this new serial story.

BOMBSHELL

Adapted from the play by
CAROLINE FRANCKE and MACK CRANE
from which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has made a hilarious motion picture co-starring Jean Harlow and Lee Tracy

Starts

Today On Page 4