MRS. JOHN QUEEN HOSTESS TO U. D. C.

The Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held the first meeting of the new year with Mrs. John Queen as hostess on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Leon Killian president, presided. A large number of members with several guests were present.

An inspirational letter was read from Mrs. J. E. Woodard, state U. D. C. president, stating that the magazine, which had meant so much to the Daughters was again to be published. Mrs. T. L. Brambler was elected as a new member.

Mrs. R. R. Campbell read the paper of the afternoon, her subject being "The religious attitude during the War Between the States." It was one of the most interesting presentations ever given the chapter. Mrs. Campbell told in detail of the united efforts of all the denominations in the South for influence on the lives of the soldiers both during and after the War Between the States. She also told of the distributing of Bibles and religious literature among the soldiers.

Mrs. Will Hyatt, chairman, paid a beautiful tribute to the late D. M. Killian, veteran, whose wife and daughter have been prominently connected with the chapter since its organization. Other members serving with Mrs. Hyatt on the memorial committee were Mrs. R. R. Campbell and Mrs. O. R. Martin.

Following the meeting Mrs. Queen served a salad course. Among the guests were Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. T. L. Brambler, and Mrs. Mary Queen.

INDIAN DISPLAY FEATURES COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

The members of the Community club enjoyed a rare treat in the program presented Monday afternoon at the regular monthly meeting, with the president, Mrs. Ben Colkitt presiding. W. T. Shelton, at one time head of the Cherokee Indian Reservation and later in charge of several of the largest Indian Reservations in the West, addressed the club on the subject of "Indian Art."

The program was planned by Mrs. James M. Long who introduced the speaker. Adding unusual interest to Mr. Shelton's talk was his display of the various forms of Indian Art that he had collected in his long years of service to the Indians. Many of the articles are museum pices. He was assisted by Mrs. Shelton in showing his treasures among which were priceless Indian rugs, silver jewelry, bead work, baskets, pottery and carving. As each articel was displayed he narrated how it was made and the significance of its design. In closing his address he touched upon the many forms of Indian magic that he had observed and of the deep secrecy that always attended such occasions.

During the business session it was announced by the chairman of dinners that a special supper would be served on Saturday night at the W. W. N. C. Cafe as a club benefit. It was also decided to replant the Washington Bicentennial tree planted last year on the court house square.

Following the transaction of business a piano solo "Prelude" by Orth Guiman was given by Miss Maude Terrell. Three new members, Mrs. W. G. Furey, Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mrs. M. D. Watkins were welcomed into the club.

After adjournment the hostesses, Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, Mrs. J. C. Crouser, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, and Mrs. Frank Bell served tea and sandwiches.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

The Legion Auxiliary met on last Monday evening in the Masonic Temple. The unit joined the Legion Post in their opening exercises and during this period Mr. LeRoy Davis introduced Mr. Roy Walls, the magician, and his assitant Geo. McCracken. The boys put on a very interesting an entertaining act. The unit then retired for the business meeting.

The reports of various committees were given. Mrs. Camp stated that head stones for ex-service men were available in case there were graves that were not marked. Mrs. R. R. Campbell was appointed to investigate this matter.

Membership was discussed. The unit hopes that all members who have not paid their dues will do so immediately and keep in good standing with the Legion Auxiliary. Not every one can be a member of the Legion Auxiliary and those that are eligible should feel it an honor to belong.

Mrs. Camp read a New Year's message from the National President. Mrs. Doyle Alley requested that any second handed clothing for two high school girls would be acceptable and she would be glad to receive any articles of clothing that could be remodeled for the girls. Mr. George brought a message from the Post at this time, that the Legion Post had decided to change the night of meeting to the second Thursday night, also again the fourth Thursday night. It was then decided the Auxiliary would only meet on the second Thursday night.

Hostesses for Feb. 8th will be Mrs. Raymond Hyatt, Mrs. F. H. Saunders and Mrs. M. C. Green.

There being no further business the unit adjourned to the W. W. N. C. Cafe where ice cream, cakes and coffee were served during the social hour by the hostesses, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. Hurst Burgin.

MRS. DOYLE ALLEY
Publicity Chairman.

Still Found In Stall With Mule

Hickory Record.

The fact that illicit booze may be always be manufactured under the most sanitary surroundings was disclosed in Longview, when deputy sheriffs found a still set up in a stall of a stable with only a pole separating it from an old mule.

The vat of beer was exposed to the debris of the stable the deputies stated.

According to deputies the still was found in the stable of Marvin Spencer near the Burke county line. It was discovered when deputy Glenn Alen went with Burk deputies to the Spencer home to search for goods.

Spencer is said to have seen the officers coming and escaped, although a brother was found and arrested.

EAST WAYNESVILLE P. T. A. CELEBRATES FATHERS NIGHT

The East Waynesville P. T. A. held its regular monthly session on Tuesday night observing Fathers' Night with a splendid program.

A large audience enjoyed the occasion. The music furnished by the Ratcliff Cove string band, composed of two Turner brothers and two Coggins brothers delighted the audience with singing, yodeling and string music. Young Zeb and Jack Alley sang "The Last Round Up" and Birmingham Blues." Miss Mildred McCracken gave a reading, "I ain't a-goin' to Cry no More." Miss McCracken proved herself quite an artist. Playing she reading was highly enjoyed.

Mr. Frank Davis, one of the Haywood County Commissioners, made a brief talk in connection with county interests in hoping to be able to establish a County Range Horse in the future and other items of interest.

Mr. M. H. Bowles, Township Superintendent of Schools, spoke on the relation of the home and the school. Mr. Bowles brought out many important fact of interest to all present.

The colored singers, lead by Essie Child, sang many spirituals and their music was much enjoyed.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches and candy were served at the conclusion of the business program.
