Wrong Educational
And Law Enforcing
Is Cause Of Crime

... with a scientific civilization.

... major in these things that cause us to advance materially. I believe it is time for us to begin to study and do research in social sciences. Dr. Wilbur president of Stanford University, says: "We need to find in the field of social science the results that we have been able to obtain in the field of public health and preventive medicine." Through the application of medical science it has been possible to maintain great personal and public health in large cities and to prevent the invasion of many diseases that once were prevalent. We were able to do this because we had reliable facts accumulated by careful observations and experiments.

... only way to look at statistics from the Oregon state penitentiary to prove that something is wrong with our educational system. Out of 987 prisoners, who entered the state penitentiary during the past two years, 24 were college graduates and 23 wholly illiterate. College graduates outnumbered illiterates nearly 2 to 1. 200 prisoners had high school education and 645 common school education. From these figures it looks as if education, not ignorance, were a serious menace in Oregon. Probably Oregon is not an exception among states in the matter of educated criminals.

Since we are so far away from the kind of education I have spoken of, I am going to spend the rest of my time talking about what we can do for our own community in good morals and discuss some things we can do to help suppress crime among our own people.

First of all, we can take a more active part in our schools and encourage our teachers to spend more time in teaching morals. Training children is not merely a mental process; great attention should be paid to physical training and to character development. Right now such a program is being directed in our schools in this county. We should encourage the teachers in this program.

Whiskey is one of our greatest evils. It causes a great deal of our crime. We had a prohibition law against liquor which failed; it failed in many ways. The success of that law depended all together on an educational proposition. If the so-called educated people of this country had spent as much time in carrying out instructions in good citizenship and the beneficial effects of whiskey as they did in criticizing the law or prating it, we might have saved it. At least we would have more boys and girls less familiar with hip-pocket flasks. A same program of education in temperance can and must be carried out by the forces of education. It is up to us to do something about it in this community.

When I come to enforcing the law, I agree with Sam Robinson that our system is wrong but I go further and say that officers is a real, not an honorary, being officer. In the first place officers are not paid enough money to attract good honest intelligent people. In the second place they are usually dominated by politics. It is up to us of this community and all people of their respective communities to seek such men.

I think we all should take more interest in politics. I think our children should get more training in political science. In this country our government is run by two narrow political parties. Political parties are necessary to good government, but we should know enough about politics and our government to vote intelligently.

All of us expect too much from the government without giving anything to it. I am not thinking of money when I say this. We are a part of the government and we should strive to be good men to run it for us. We should cooperate with the government for the common good of all. We should offer constructive criticism when it is needed. We are part of it. Why shouldn't we cooperate ourselves?

For example, take our own county. We are a part of it. What the county does affects us. It may be for our good or it may not be. We should know something about the county government.

Stockholders Of
The First National Bank Hold Meeting

The thirty-second annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Waynesville was held on Tuesday January 9th. There was a large percentage of the stock represented in person, there being 271 shares. The report of the Cashier showed the bank was in excellent condition. The bank had recently qualified for the U. S. Government insurance on all deposits up to $25,000.00.

The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: J. R. Boyd, J. H. Way, D. R. Noland, M. M. Noland and J. E. Ray.

After the stockholders adjourned the directors were sworn in and proceeded to organize for the year. J. R. Boyd was elected chairman and J. H. Way secretary to the board. The following officers were elected for the year: President, J. R. Boyd; Vice President, D. R. Noland; Cashier, J. H. Way.

The First National Bank was organized thirty-two years ago this past December and has always been conducted in a safe and conservative way with the safety of their depositors being the first consideration. They have always been in a position to accommodate the public in any way consistent with safe banking. They have built up a surplus of more than their capital and a large undivided profit and reserve account. Their total capital assets now being over $1,000,000.00, according to their last statement. In addition they have paid to their stockholders since organization more than $125,000.00 in such dividends.

government and then strive to make it function for the good of all. The same thing is true of the state and country.

A thing we should discourage is moving pictures and literature that depict the gangsters as heroes with fine qualities of mind and spirit. The gangster is not a hero but a public enemy and a coward. I believe these two things have a great influence on the mind of the American youth.

The Christian Science Monitor tells us that it costs $6000 a year to keep a man in prison. It costs only six dollars a year to keep a boy in the Boy Scouts. In the Boy Scouts will be taught vocational training, fine character of achievement and have his character modeled as well as awarded in honesty, courtesy, self-discipline and respect.

We should seek to provide vocational training for our boys and girls as the most effective means of crime prevention as well as the cheapest. Youth is the impressionable age. The same qualities that will go to make a professional leader or a big business man can be moulded into the development of a dashing bandit or a dangerous gangster.

We can educate our children through our homes, churches and schools; social settlements, community centers, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts. We should support these organizations.

Secretary Derr said a few weeks ago that crime costs the American people annually 12 billion dollars. The tribute paid to racketeers costs 18 billions. So you see by these figures crime is a problem that cannot be solved by arrest and punishment. The majority of lawless characters develop criminal characteristics through lack of wise training and through companionship. The record shows at Sing Sing 97 per cent of prisoners were never associated with boys clubs or with any civic club.

This is a challenge to the Waynesville Rotary Club. If things are bad, we ought to seek to make them better. Let's get behind the Boy Scouts; let's get behind Doyle, Alley and his boys; work to make this community a better community in which to live.

This New Treatment
For Piles-Seldom Fails

Many sufferers from Piles or Hemorrhoids have become dependent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, "Go to Smith's Cut Rate Drug Store or your druggist and get an original 60 cent box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES." Insert into the rectum according to directions they reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, anesthetic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the piles bring about a resolution and you get rest and comfort once again.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases of long standing stubbornness results have been obtained. (copy)
