THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

The Best Advertising Medium In Haywood County——Published At The Eastern Entrance of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park——Read by Thinking People

VOL. XLVI NO 18 WAYNESVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1934

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS

Floods that took nine lives receded yesterday giving residents of western Wisconsin and southeastern Minnesota their first opportunity to survey the heavy damage to property. Torrents of rain that fell Monday hit Wisconsin communities hardest. Precipitation there ranged from two to four inches.

A check of more than $25,000,000 yesterday was paid to Richard Joshua (Dick) Reynolds as he reached his 28th birthday. Young Reynolds is married and has one son R. J. Reynolds, 3rd, born several months ago. The will of the elder Reynolds provided each of his four children would inherit a fourth of the estate when they reached the age of 28. Dick is the first to come into his.

E. A. Davidson, former president of the defunct Cherokee Bank, of Murphy, and his son, J. W. Davidson, who was a director of the bank, entered State's prison in Raleigh, Tuesday to serve prison terms of five to eight years for banking law violations.

Federal guns blazed retort yesterday to gang defiance and cut close to the trail of the arch-fugitive, John Dillinger, and reddened it with blood of one of his gun-toting pals. The wounded man was Eugene Green, who admitted he was one of the three persons who shot their way out of a police trap Saturday.

Edward W. Pou 70, representative of the Fourth N. C. District for 34 years and dean of the House, died in Washington early Easter morning. He was buried in Smithfield Tuesday.

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd has been left alone for out on the Ross ice barrier ,since last Wednesday starting seven months' absolute issolation in a snow covered hut with books, a gramophone, writing materials and scientific instruments for company.

Eclipsing all previous marks the attendance at the famous Moravian Easter service at old Salem Easter morning was the greater because of fair weather. Winston-Salem Journal reported that thousands, unable to secure accomodations, remained on the streets all Saturday night.

Otto H. Kahn, nationally known financier and banker and patron of art and music died suddenly in his New York office last Thursday.

Mrs. Cornelia Vanderbilt Cecil, Asheville millionairess, only daughter of the late George Vanderbilt, and her English husband, John Francis Amherst Cecil are seeking, by mutual consent, Associated Press reports say, a divorce in the French courts.

The National Geographic Society on Saturday presented to Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh its highest honor, the Hubbard medal, for her share in her husband's aerial survey. The presentation ceremony took place in Washington. The medal previously had been awarded only to Col. Lindbergh and Admiral Richard Byrd.

National Publication Carrying Article About Haywood Apple Orchards

"Esso Tours and Detours" a publication of Standard Oil Co. is going to press one month earlier in order to carry an article on the apple orchards of this county, which was prepared by Mrs. Helen C. Matthews.

Throughout the season, the publication will carry one or more articles prepared by Mrs. Matthews, one being on the golf course and other attractions that are offered in this community. The publications are distributed through stations of the company and travel bureaus throughout the country.

Read
before
You Buy

The wise and thrifty shopper reads the advertisements before they buy——because in the advertisements they find bargains, and fashion suggestions that otherwise they would miss.

Begin today and read the advertisements regularly.

Report Made On Sanitary Work Done In County

Total of 199 Privies Built Under CWA Since Last November. Over $7,500 Spent On Pay Roll.

[illegible] in his [illegible] report to [illegible] in Raleigh [illegible] week on the work done in Haywood county by the Sanitary Department [illegible] CWA showed that 199 [illegible] have been built in the county, [illegible] an average cost of $22 for materials.

The CWA furnished the labor to build the [illegible] projects at a total cost of $7,552.61. Sanitary [illegible] cost received $172.24. A total of 16,182 manhours were spent on the project, the report showed.

Twelve school privies were erected, and two septic tanks installed. A total of 295 old privies were moved and rebuilt.

This project got underway on November 29, and ended March 30.

Lee Ferguson Enters Race For Nomination As A Commissioner

Lee Ferguson, of Jonathan Creek, is a candidate for member of the board of county commissioners.

Mr. Ferguson is well known throughout the county having served two terms as commissioner. In 1926 he was commissioner and in 1928 he served as chairman of the board.

Mr. Ferguson stated when making his formal announcement that he had always tried to look after the taxpayer's money as if it were his own.

He is an outstanding farmer and cattle raiser.

Walter T. Crawford Seeking Nomination As Representative

Walter Crawford, well known Waynesville attorney announced this week that he is a candidate for Representative in the coming Democratic primary. Mr. Crawford is the second to announce thus far.

Mr. Crawford was born and reared in Waynesville. After finishing high school here he entered Mars Hill College and was admitted to the bar in 1929.

For the last five years he has been actively engaged here in legal practice.

He is the son of Mrs. W. T. Crawford of this city and the late Congressman W. T. Crawford.

Mrs. Medford Wins Prize For Sending In Best Answers

The judges awarded the $2.50 in cash to Mrs. W. C. Medford, of Waynesville, for sending the answers to the errors found in last week's page of advertising. Mrs. Medford's answers were sent in in a most unusual manner.

A small basket of Easter eggs, with each of the seven errors printed on an egg. Each egg was of a different color.

The contest created much interest, with the answers for the fourth week out numbering all previous weeks. The Mountaineer extends congratulations to the four winners, and appreciates the answers sent in by the scores of others. Plans are being made to stage similar contests in the future.

Death Claims Mrs. Reuben Robinson

Mrs. Reuben Robinson, age 73, died Wednesday of last week at 12 o'clock at her home in Hazelwood. Mrs. Robinson, or "Aunt Jane," as she was known, had been seriously ill since Sunday. She was widely related and well known in this section of Haywood county. Her radiant Christian life brightened and cheered all those with whom she came in contact. As a mother she was unsurpassed in her motherly love and interest, not only in her own home, but in the homes of her neighbors and friends.

Besides her husband Mrs. Robinson is survived by three sons, Hector, Ernest, and Verlin, three daughters, Mrs. James Holder, Mrs. Lee Winchester, and Mrs. D. A. Winchester. One sister, Mrs. Jasper Brock and four brothers, J. P., Will, John, and Ell Seates, also survive. The former brother is Mayor of Hazelwood. Eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

The funeral was conducted at the home at 2 p. m. Thursday with Rev. K. Allen in charge, assisted by Rev. Frank Arrington and Rev. W. M. Pruett, both pioneer Baptist ministers. Mrs. Robinson had been a member of the Baptist church for years.

Interment was in the Buchanan cemetery on Allen's Creek.

Seeks Office

J. T. BAILEY

Nomination For Representative Sought By Bailey

Formal announcement was made yesterday by J. T. Bailey, of Canton, for the nomination of Representative for Haywood County. Mr. Bailey is a wholesale grocer in Canton, and for thirty years has taken an active part in civic and religious activities of the county.

He was a member of the board of education of this county for two years, and mayor of Canton for two terms.

Last fall Mr. Bailey was chairman of the dry forces of the county, and led a successful campaign against the late voting wet.

In a statement Mr. Bailey said, "Now is a time that we must be liberal with the schools of the state, and at the same time watch carefully the financial conditions of the state." He is interested in education and always takes an active part in any movement that is for the betterment of the community.

W. H. Williams Is Seeking Place As A Commissioner

The first candidate to announce for county commissioner for the coming primary was W. H. (Bill) Williams of White Oak.

Mr. Williams, a prominent farmer in the lower end of the county stated when making his formal announcement that he was seeking the office of commissioner because he "wanted to help the taxpayers." This is the first office he has ever sought. He was born and reared in this county and for fifty years has lived on the farm and devoted all his time to farming and cattle raising.

"I have voted the Democratic ticket ever since I was old enough to vote," he said. And I am asking that the voters elect me to the office just this one time, because I want to help them. It is for the interest of the people of the county that I am running."

SCHOOL FINALS ARE HELD AT JAMES CHAPEL

Closing exercises were held at the James Chapel School on last Friday afternoon. Miss Fay Gibbs, teacher of the school, presented her pupils in a program of one act plays, readings, and songs, to which the parents were invinted.

A special feature of the program was the presentation of prizes to the girls and boys having the highest scholastic standing for the entire year. Both prizes went to members of the fourth grade. Sara James, 10, was given a doll and Ray Messer was given a wrist watch.

The prizes were donated by Mrs. J. M. Caldwell, of Atlanta, Georgia, a sister of Miss Gibbs.

LEGION TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at The Masonic Temple.

O. E. S. MEETING

The Waynesville Chapter O. E. S No. 165 will hold its regular meeting this evening (Thursday) at the Masonic Temple. Worthy Matron Burgin, requests all members to be present.

NOTICE TO MASONS

All Masons are requested to be present at the regular Communication of Waynesville lodge No. 259, to be held in the Masonic Temple Friday night, April 6th, 8 p. m., as there is very important business to come before the lodge.

The following degree will be conferred in form Tuesay night, April 10, 8 p. m.

You are cordially invited.

Father And Son Banquet Held Here On Saturday Night

(By Arthur F[illegible])

Our Sanitary [illegible] the scene of a Father and Son Banquet on Saturday night at [illegible] o'clock when the Methodist Men's Club entertained their fathers and friends.

The tables were [illegible] and the room was [illegible] with [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] and