

Society News

SOCIETY PAGE

Local Items

Mrs. Ben Sloan, Editor - - - - - Phone 137

HAZELWOOD P. T. A. MEETS
The Hazelwood P. T. A. held the last meeting of the year Tuesday night with a large and enthusiastic group in attendance.

Mrs. Richeson asked for a report from the nominating committee which submitted the following list of names for officers for the coming year.

President, Mrs. Sam Knight; 1st Vice President, Mrs. Earl Wagnenfeld; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. O. C. Landrum.

3rd Vice President, Mrs. Ester Buggin; Secretary, Mrs. John Blacklock.

Treasurer, Mrs. Lucie Thompson. Mrs. Richeson, president for the past year welcomed the new officers and thanked the past officers for their cooperation during the year.

Mr. Zeam made announcements pertaining to the commencement exercises and other school activities Tuesday afternoon, April 10, the primary program will be given Wednesday afternoon, April 11, the grammar grade program, it was undecided about the date for the seventh grade program and the play the Hazelwood Dramatic Club plan to give. This will be announced later.

Miss Margaret Stringfield's orchestra gave several delightful selections at the beginning of the program. This was followed by a reading given by Mrs. Grady R. Smith.

Comdr. Weatherly gave an interesting talk on "How To Spend Leisure Time." He pointed out that there are many ways to spend leisure time profitably in play, reading, studying art, and music. The right kind of play develops self-ship and enables one to enjoy and take in life.

With all business attended to, the meeting adjourned to meet in September.

WILDA CRAWFORD, Secy.

MUSIC CONTEST WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

On next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the annual music contest for the Western District of high schools will take place at the high school auditorium. This serves as an elimination contest for the state contest to be held in Greensboro April 26-27. This district includes Haywood, Jackson, and Swain counties with Miss Margaret Stringfield as chairman. Contestants on Saturday's program will come from Bryson City, Canton, and Waynesville, and the winners will go to Greensboro.

This is the fourth year that Wayville High School has taken part in the contest, which is sponsored by the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, and it is a great advantage to the young musicians.

The program Saturday morning should be of interest to all music lovers and it is hoped that a large attendance will be present. The public is invited.

MISS LOUISE BLACK OF BRYSON CITY WEDS IN NEW YORK

Of interest to friends in Waynesville is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Louise Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Black, of Bryson City, to Mr. Oscar Sydney Cox of New York, the marriage being solemnized at the Park Avenue Presbyterian church in New York on Sunday, April 9.

Mrs. Cox, who is a graduate of Converse college, is at the present time engaged as a fashion counselor in one of New York's leading department stores.

Mr. Cox was graduated from Yale College in 1927 and from Yale Law School in 1929. He is now assistant corporation counsel for the City of New York.

Mrs. Cox, who is a striking brunette with white organdie blouse, immediately following the ceremony, which was attended by relatives and close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cox left for Bermuda. When they return they will visit their parents in Bryson City.

MRS. WHITE IS HOSTESS TO U. D. C.

The regular monthly meeting of the Haywood chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. C. White as hostess at her home in town, 11 Park. Mrs. Leon K. Blum, president of the chapter, presided.

During the first action of business, various ways of financing some of the new features of work were discussed. The president appointed the following committee to confer with the highway committee regarding a proposed marker to be placed as a memorial by the chapter: Mrs. Will Hyatt, Mrs. John M. Queen and Mrs. Killian. Mrs. Zeb Curtis was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. George Platt gave the paper of the afternoon, her subject being "A Study of Two Southern Presidents, George Washington and Thomas Jefferson." Mrs. J. Harden Howell read the president's general message.

MISS PATSY HILL WILL TAKE PART IN MAY FETE

Miss Patsy Hill, granddaughter of Mrs. Charles R. Thomas, who is a student at St. Mary's in Raleigh, was recently elected by the student body to participate as a herald in the annual May Fete at St. Mary's. The fete will be staged on the campus under the direction of Miss Olga E. Dadd, director of physical education. Miss Jane Snyder of Wilmington will be May Queen and Miss Elizabeth Lewis of Oxford, will be the Maid of Honor.

MRS. BARBER TO GIVE RECITAL IN HENDERSONVILLE

Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., talented violinist of Waynesville, will give a recital in Hendersonville Tuesday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock. She will be accompanied by William Zimmerman, of Asheville. The recital is being sponsored by the Music Club of Hendersonville and is being anticipated with great pleasure by music lovers of this section.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Albright and as their guest the first of the week, Mr. C. B. McKel of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mistle left last Tuesday for Hollywood, California to attend a meeting of motion picture operators. They will be extensively entertained by various picture insiders.

Miss Elsie Smathers, of Asheville, spent last weekend with her sister, Mrs. Francis Mason, and Mr. Mason.

Mrs. Charles Ryd and two children, High Point, were weekend guests of Mrs. Ryd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ryd.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Davis spent several days last week in Winston-Salem. They were joined there by their son, M. Paul Davis, who is a student at Wake Forest College.

Mrs. J. R. Metcalfe and Mrs. S. E. Fisher were Asheville visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Margaret Perry who is a student at Western Carolina Teachers College spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry, in Camp Hillwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLeod and infant daughter, of Asheville, were weekend guests of Mrs. McLeod's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ferguson.

Mr. S. M. Bushnell, Jr., of B. served part last weekend at home.

Miss Louise Moody was an Asheville visitor Friday.

Mrs. Charles U. Miller arrived last Tuesday from North Webster, Indiana, where she has been spending several months, and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John LeRoy Davis.

Mr. Medford Leatherwood, of Jonathan is a Waynesville visitor Monday.

Mr. Jerry Robinson was here from Clyde Monday.

Among the visitors here from Canton Tuesday were: Messrs. S. M. Robinson, Chester A. Cogburn, T. A. Clark, R. B. Overton and Hunt Baile.

MEETING OF YOUNG WOMAN'S CIRCLE POSTPONED

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Woman's Circle of the Methodist church which was scheduled for tonight (Thursday) has been postponed until a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ferrell, of Winston-Salem were weekend guests of Mrs. Charles R. Thomas at her home on Walnut street.

Mr. W. D. Smith attended a meeting of several county agents of Western North Carolina which was held in Asheville Tuesday. He was accompanied to Asheville by Mrs. Smith and Miss Velma McElhannon.

Mr. R. J. Kelly returned to his home in Charlotte Friday after a few days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Carol Bell.

Mr. George E. Evans, of Asheville, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. N. Massie, and Mr. Massie on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Miller returned to Atlanta, Georgia Friday after a several days' visit to Mr. C. W. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr. and children, Betsy and Paul, left Monday for Spartanburg, South Carolina, where they are visiting Mrs. Hardin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Reel. Mr. Hardin will return today.

Mr. Clarence Miller left last week for his home in Lexington, Kentucky, after a few days' visit to his father, Mr. C. W. Miller.

Mrs. Joe Doggett, of High Point, spent last weekend here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Woodson Jones.

Mr. Sam Welch, of Raleigh, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. Howell Way, Monday.

Mr. J. W. Reed, Jr., who has had a position for the past several months with the King Auto Sales Company in Mt. Clemens, Michigan, arrived Sunday for a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost returned to their homes, Monday after spending a few days in Charleston, South Carolina where they went to see the Magnolia Gardens.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Abel returned to their home last week after a month's visit to their daughters, Mrs. Robert Osborne and Mrs. Allen McClean, in Tampa, Florida and Mrs. Winifred Baker in Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russ had as their guests on Sunday the former's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Russ and Miss Claris Russ, of Hendersonville.

Mrs. J. W. Reed left Tuesday to spend a few days in Asheville as the guest of Mrs. Berry Lee Barnes.

MRS. McCracken Honors Miss Stewart

Miss Evelyn Stewart of St. Louis, Missouri, who has been assisting in certain duties here since her visit to Mrs. Ernest Withers, was bestowed, as a courtesy last Thursday when Mrs. J. R. McCracken was hostess at a luncheon.

A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the luncheon appointments. A pretty arrangement of Junonia and Begonia, I used the color scheme for the table and lighted yellow paper, furnished the green color effect.

Guests were Miss Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Ernest Withers, Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Mrs. R. H. Blackwell, Mrs. E. M. Richeson, Mr. Hugh Massie, and Mrs. McCracken.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, of Charleston, West Virginia are visiting Mrs. Lewis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, at their home on the Pineview Road.

Mrs. Charles G. Spang and Mr. Donald Barry left Sunday to spend a few days with Mr. Charles Burgess in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mrs. William Ferguson, Mrs. Ruth Long, Margaret Barton, Lucy Lee and Lois Thompson, spent the past weekend visiting friends in a party, Georgia and Greenville, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNeill spent last weekend with friends in Pine Bluff. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Mary Stringfield who visited in Fayetteville.

Mr. Zeo Alley left Thursday to visit her daughters, Mrs. Sarah Smithson and Mrs. A. D. Dunn in Washington, D. C.

Mr. W. G. Myers and Dr. E. L. Morgan left Monday to spend a few days in Washington, D. C. on business. They were accompanied by Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Morgan.

Judge Felix Alley, who is presiding at the spring term of court in Surry county, spent last weekend at his home here.

Mr. Ralph Prevost left Sunday on a business trip through Georgia and Alabama.

Among the visitors here from Crabtree last week were: Messrs. J. F. Rogers, J. B. Best, and F. A. Justice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Allett spent last weekend in Charleston, South Carolina where they went to visit the Magnolia Gardens.

Mr. J. T. Bailey of Canton was in Waynesville last week.

Mrs. E. E. Frazier of Olyph, was here in business last week.

Mrs. A. Campbell of Maggie was in Waynesville last Friday.

Mrs. D. Kerner and Mrs. W. D. Kerner of Maggie spent Saturday in Waynesville.

Mr. J. H. Singleton, of Jonathan was here on business Saturday.

Miss Ellen Campbell, of Maggie spent Friday shopping in Waynesville.

Mr. Dave Boyd was here from Jonathan Saturday.

Rev. R. P. McCracken, of Clinch was a Waynesville visitor Saturday.

Dr. J. H. Singleton, of Jonathan was here on business Saturday.

SPECIAL For A Few Days Full Fashioned Silk Hose First Quality 49c Hurry They Won't Be Here Long Massie's Dept. Store READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS

GOSSARD Foundation Garments will be presented Wednesday, April 18th by an expert GOSSARD CORSETIERE You are cordially invited to visit us that day for a demonstration. Those difficult to fit especially should see the line. Orders can be placed if desired. Gossard Garments have our highest recommendation. Each individual garment is a creation of loveliness. Each one is designed for a purpose. The line is complete. Corsets Girdles Brassieres Combinations C. E. Ray's Sons Mrs. Nan Broadnax Special Representative

General Electric gives you 5 YEARS PROTECTION FOR ONLY $7 A YEAR The standard 1 year warranty.. PLUS 4 years additional protection on the sealed-in-steel mechanism for only $5! Unparalleled performance of the famous General Electric Monitor Top sealed-in-steel mechanism makes it possible for General Electric to protect you 5 full years against any possible replacement cost for only $1 a year. Besides matchless mechanism, General Electric offers you brilliant beauty in design that has created a new style sensation. 1934 General Electric models are the finest, most attractive refrigerators General Electric ever built. Come in and see them before you buy your refrigerator this spring. General Electric features that mean greater convenience and economy: All-steel cabinet, porcelain inside and out. Stainless steel freezing chamber. Automatic interior lighting. Foot pedal door opener. Sliding shelves. Automatic defrosting. Control for fast or slow freezing. Container for fresh vegetables. Quiet operation and less current with full refrigerating capacity for even unusual demands. See the New G-E flat-top model... Aristocrat of all popular priced refrigerators Massie Furniture Co. PHONE 33