MRS. KILLIAN IS D. A. R. HOSTESS

The April meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. Jim Killian on last Wednesday afternoon.

The reception rooms were aglow with bowls of yellow spring flowers. The meeting was presided over by the regent, Mrs. J. Harden Howell, while in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. J. W. Seaver. Mrs. R. N. Barber served in that capacity.

Plans were discussed regarding the placing of the marker for the grave of Mrs. Sarah Roberts Haynes, a valued member of the chapter for many years. The regent displayed the marker, duplicates of which will be made from time to time as the means are available to mark the graves of all deceased members.

Mrs. James M. Long displayed the handsome silk flag that will be presented to the Junaluska school during the commencement exercises the last of the month. The chairman of magazine, Mrs. Kate Morris, announced two renewals to the National publication.

Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn had the paper of the afternoon her subject being "Lafayette" a continuation of a study of leaders, who helped to establish the new republic. She outlined in detail the glamorous events in the colorful life of the French, with particular emphasis on his contribution to the cause of the Colonists.

Following the paper, Mrs. R. P. Walker read the message of the president general from the National Magazine, with the outline of the many attractions of the program of the National Congress to be held in April. At this point the regent announced that Mrs. H. D. Seaver, of Canton, would be in Washington at that time and would represent the chapter.

During the social hour, the hostess was assisted in serving a salad course by Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. Leon Killian. Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Ben Colkitt and Mrs. Charles U. Miller, who is in town on a visit to relatives.
